See what the most popular and widely circulated periodicals say of our Establishment:
From the "Dispatch" of February 25, 1865.
We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the announcement of Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, Silver Ware, and Fancy Goods, in our advertising columns. We are personally acquainted with the members of this firm and know them to be gentlemen of starling worth and business ability. The stock of goods, for variety and extent, we have scarcely seen paralleled.
From the "Mirror of Fashion," March 1, 1865.
Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, etc., opened on the 15th inst., and we venture to say that no finer display of goods was ever exhibited by any establishment in this city. The ladies throughed their bazaar almost to suffocation, although the streets were rendered nearly impassable by the melted snow and slush. We predict for them a wonderful success.
From the "Times" of February 28, 1865.
Our lady friends should visit the extensive establishment of Messrs. Devaugh & Co., No. 15 Maiden Lane, if they would see for themselves with a sight which they will long remember. Such a profusion of elegant Watches, Chains, Rings, Earrings, and, in short, of jewelry of every name, kind and description, we never before witnessed. Their silver and plated ware is superb, and almost casts into the shade the other splendid establishments which have long been the boast of our city. It is estimated that their stock is worth not less than one million dollars.

How You Can Get a Prize.
Send Twenty-five Cents to us, and as soon as we receive it we will mail you a Certificate showing what you are entitled to. If the article or article please you, send back the Certificate and One Dollar and we will forward you the article, no matter how costly it may be. If the article not what you wish, state; when you send the Certificate and dollar, what other article of the same value you prefer, and we will send it if you wish more than one Certificate sent as $1 and we will send five; for $2, eleven; for $5, thirty; for $10, sixty; for $15, one hundred.
Agents are wanted in the Army and in every place. We have an immense stock of goods to dispose of, and need a large number of Agents. Our terms to Agents are very liberal and some even of our Lady Agents are making from $5 to $20 a day. We give Agents 50 per cent. on all Certificates they sell provided they remit not less than $1 for eight.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WATER TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit; has been produced
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness battles all competition. For 75 cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—When you have done using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made ink, for eight years, from Galls and Copperas, and pay a dollar a pound for the Galls. I've tried Sumac of Aleppa Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal, and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. You have the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. FOLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without it. I remain yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Decatur, Decorg, March 1, 1866.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Dey's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient serv't,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Decatur, March 1, 1866.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing. It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The Ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works like a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moor's Maynard & Noyes', G. S. Ritchie's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 24, 1865.

THE CONSPIRACY TRIAL.—Some thirty witnesses for the prosecution were discharged on Saturday evening from further attendance upon the trial of the assassins, as their testimony would only be cumulative, and therefore consume unnecessary time.

The Boston Herald says: "By the testimony thus far adduced and made public, the guilt of Payne is placed beyond a doubt. Equally as certain is the evidence that Harrold was Booth's accessory before and after the assassination. Atzerott is shown to have been in active co-operation with the others throughout the night of the assassination, and fled at daylight the next morning. There is no doubt of his guilt. Mrs. Surratt is shown to have been aware of the intended murder from its inception, and was the general manager of the affair. She cannot escape the penalty of the law. Dr. Mudd is doubtless guilty as an accessory. Spangler does not appear to have been in the plot at an earlier period than a few hours before the crime was committed. That he knew the purpose of Booth, and promised him assistance, is clearly shown by the evidence."

On Monday, the most important testimony was the introduction of a letter obtained from the rebel archives, turned over to Gen. Sherman by Gen. Johnston. This letter was from a lieutenant in the rebel army, proposing to Jeff. Davis to strike a blow at his deadliest enemy, the writer declaring that he had facilities for moving about in the North to effect his object. This was endorsed by Davis, and marked for attention by his Secretary of War.

The Court recalled the important witness examined on Saturday, and heard his re-examination in secret session.

The prosecution said that they only had a few more witnesses, and proposed that while they were being obtained, the defence should go on, but the latter refused to do so until the prosecution should close.

WASHINGTON ITEMS. — Mrs. Lincoln and all of her family left on Monday night for Chicago.

The North Carolina delegation are having a satisfactory interview with the President, who is understood to adhere strictly to the total abolition of slavery as a condition precedent to the restoration of civil power in that State.

Gen. Banks was not removed for any political consideration whatever. Gen. Grant displaced him for military reasons, and refuses to discuss the question of reconsideration.

The large rewards for the capture of Booth and Harrold are to be distributed at the discretion of the Secretary of War upon the completion of the trials.

Government has decided to bring Jeff. Davis at once to Washington. [Perhaps.]

GEORGIA AND ALABAMA.—The N. Y. Herald's Mobile correspondence announces the surrender of the rebel fleet in the Tombigbee river on the 9th, comprising two commodores and 150 other officers and 12 vessels. A public meeting held at Selma passed resolutions calling on the Gov. of Alabama to convene the legislature with a view to the restoration of the State to the Union. Judge Bird said the war had decided two questions—secession and slavery.

The Herald's Macon correspondence says the people of the interior of Georgia are rapidly settling themselves to the condition of peace. Forage and provisions are freely brought into the places occupied by the national troops, and the people are demanding a convention for reconstruction.

Four of Capt. Travis's famous breech-loading cannon have been found buried in the cemetery at Macon.

☞ Tuesday in Washington was a very fine day for the great military show. Heavy showers occurred Monday night; but the morning sun was bright; and exactly at 9 o'clock the head of the column moved from the Capitol toward the reviewing stand at the White House. It passed on the North end, giving every man a chance to see the children of the public schools, who occupied the portico, and sang songs of welcome and national airs, receiving loud plaudits from the veterans.

— President Johnson, by Proclamation, has opened all the Southern ports (except those in Texas,) to foreign trade, on and after July 1.

— 400 rebel prisoners at Indianapolis, took the oath of allegiance on Monday, and were released.

—Kingar's pork packing house at Cincinnati was burnt Monday night. Loss $400,000.

— Hong Kong dates of March 29, say nothing about the pirate Shenandoah being in the China seas.

— There are 224 inhabited basements and cellars in the Fourth Ward, in New York, occupied by 268 families, comprising 1400 souls.

MUSTERING OUT OF TROOPS.—The following dispatches have been received by the Governor, from the War Department, concerning the mustering out of New Hampshire troops:

WASHINGTON, May 21st.

Gov. J. A. Gilmore:

Referring to your telegram of yesterday, the returning troops will be sent to Concord to be paid off. Maj. Silvey was so instructed yesterday.

THOS. M. VINCENT, A. A. G.

WAR DEPT., Washington, May 22d.

Governor of New Hampshire:

Under the negotiations established by the Secretary of War, and the orders from this office based thereon, troops about to be discharged should go out of service promptly, be properly cared for, and their interests fully protected in every respect. Should delinquencies on the part of officers charged with the execution of details come to your notice, I will thank you to advise me of the same at once, giving names of negligent parties, so that a remedy may be applied. T. M. VINCENT, A. A. G.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Cheshire Railroad has been prosperous the past year. Notwithstanding its expenses have been unusually heavy, the net earnings for the four months ending April 1st were larger by $38,853,65 than for the corresponding period of the year preceding.

—— The ladies of Francestown recently presented to Elias A. Bryant, of that town, who served three years in the 4th N. H. regiment, and lost a leg before Petersburg last summer, a gold watch and chain and a valuable cane.

—— The people of Peterborough are agitating the subject of a railroad through that town. Several plans are presented.

—— The Rochester Courier states that William H. Teague of that town, was drowned in the river there on the 15th.

—— The Nashua Gazette says thirty-eight chimney swallows, driven down by the violent rain storm last week, were taken from one chimney there, all alive but two.

REV. SAMUEL ABBOT SMITH, Pastor of the First Parish in Cambridgeport, died at his residence in that town, on Saturday, 20th inst., of fever contracted whilst recently in Norfolk, Va., on a mission as the temporary agent of the American Unitarian Association. He was born in Peterboro', N. H., April 18th, 1829; graduated at Harvard College in 1849, at the Cambridge Divinity School in 1853, and was ordained June 22d, 1854, over the church faithfully served for eleven years. The crown of his days was the patriotism, that grew out of and became a part of his religion. Wherever he could serve his country, the cause of freedom and humanity, he was untiring in zeal and in deed.

NEW JERSEY.—Hon George Bancroft, in his able paper in the June number of the Atlantic Monthly, refers to the action upon slavery of the fathers of the republic, and says that the "vote of New Jersey only was wanting to have sustained the proposition of Jefferson, by which slavery would have been excluded not only from all the territory then in the possession of the United States, but from all that they might gain." New Jersey went for the continuance of slavery in 1787, and does the same thing now, by choosing a Legislature which has recently rejected the anti-slavery Constitutional Amendment. No other free State stands with New Jersey in this action. It is possible New Jersey may vote the other way next year.

ITALY.—Very unexpectedly to the Romish clergy of Italy, the law respecting marriage has been changed, so that it now becomes a civil rite. This takes large revenues out of the hands of the priests. Hitherto marriages could only be solemnized by the Romish clergy. The children of those who were not embraced in the Church of Rome were regarded as illegitimate.

☞ A very ingenious plan to swindle a doctor was recently adopted in the neighborhood of Philadelphia. A physician was waited on and requested to visit a patient about four miles off. Some demur was made to it on account of the distance to be travelled, and the unfavorable weather, when the spokesman of the other party said he was ready to settle the fee beforehand, and presented a fifty dollar bill to have the amount taken from it. This was done and the physician started in his carriage to find the invalid. In this he was not successful, as no such person lived at the house to which he had been directed. Soon after his return he examined the fifty dollar bill and found it to be a counterfeit.

— The managers of the iron works at Troy have stopped work, and say they cannot resume it again except with a reduction of 50 per cent on the wages.

— It is stated that the Government has recently obtained private letters of Jeff. Davis clearly implicating him in the infamous assassination conspiracy.

— Dennis Callahan, of Lowell, a printer by trade, was killed on Sunday by falling from the top of a pine tree in a piece of woods in Chelmsford.

GEMS FOR THE PRAYER-MEETING.—Dear Gazette:—The value of a book, other things being equal, is in inverse ratio to its bulk and cost. I feel now like devoting quite a large space to a book from the Tract Society, 150 Nassau street, N. Y., precisely because it is by far the smallest collection of hymns and tunes I have ever seen. Since my article on "The Songs of Zion Enlarged" appeared, two of their books have been laid on my table. One is entitled "Happy Voices"—a square book of sacred songs rather than hymns and tunes. It is like a multitude of others, a little better or a little worse, and will, I think, prove a delightful book for children in the family or at school. I care little for it, however: we have a great plenty of them.

Not so with the GEMS. The book contains 81 hymns, and all of them are old and good. It has 44 tunes, partly good old hymn tunes, and most of the rest are the most popular of the lighter music used in Sabbath schools and enthusiastic meetings. It is mere coincidence that all the hymns but two, and all the tunes but one, are found in (but not taken from) the "Songs of Zion Enlarged."

In country neighborhoods it is quite desirable that a few tunes should be thoroughly known. It is far better that they should know ten tunes perfectly than to half know half a hundred. Now from a large collection it is difficult to agree upon a small portion; but let the "Gems" come in vogue in a district, and very soon there will be scarce a tune unknown to any man, woman or child that can sing.

At the West, a small collection is peculiarly needed. Settlers coming from different regions have few tunes in common; not even Old Hundred may be among them. What a blessing will these Gems be to such settlements!

But not only its few tunes may serve as a recommendation, but both its price and its bulk are in its favor. It cannot cost more than a dime and a half, postage included: it rides easily in a vest pocket. There is no freed child but can buy it, and the overloaded soldier on a forced march need not throw it away. It is just the thing needed: let those who would be sure of it send and try it. Yours, I. F. H.

Hillsgrove, Ill., 1865: 114.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The N. Y. Tribune's special says there will be 21 miles of soldiery, 60 abreast, in the review. As there is no limit to Washington extortion, eligible windows sell at $10 an hour, and $50 a day to spectators. Hotels and boarding-houses being full of lodgers, sittings in unoccupied cars are sold at $1 a night.

The Tribune's dispatch says it has transpired that the forthcoming Presidential Proclamation will not permit loyal negroes to vote.

The same dispatch says there is a strong influence in army circles to urge President Johnson for the removal of Secretary Stanton for his warfare upon Gen. Sherman while in the field.—These items are to be taken for what they are worth.

By authority it is said the statement is untrue that Weichman, who boarded with Mrs. Surratt, was in the secret employment of Secretary Stanton. He never saw him until after the assassination of President Lincoln.

GOLD, Tuesday, 131 1-2 to 132.

— When President Johnson saw in The Tribune of the 10th inst., that the purser of the pirate Alabama was appointed to a clerkship in the Interior Department, he sent an energetic letter to the Department, asking the reason for the appointment of such a man.

Local.

POLICE COURT, May 23.—The business of the day was commenced by arraigning Michael Carray, a marine, for drunkenness. He was found guilty, and fined $3, and costs $3.83.

Next in order came William Mason, arrested for indecent conduct and using obscene language to a lady. It appears that William is an old offender in this direction, having on a number of previous occasions insulted the opposite sex. We have not time or room to admonish this individual upon the subject, to a great extent, but would merely suggest that it would be of pecuniary benefit to him to consult some spiritual adviser, and learn from him, out of Holy Writ, what occurs to those who pursue a course of such abominable conduct. Fined $3, and costs $5.74.

Mrs. Julia A. Weeks, for keeping a house of ill-repute, was bound over till October in $200. Failing to find bonds, she was committed to jail.

☞ About seven hundred and fifty Navy Yard workmen were discharged from the Yard on Monday and Tuesday of this week. This number includes carpenters, borers, joiners, spar makers, calkers, gunner's riggers, boatswain's riggers, machinists, watchmen, boat-builders, smiths, yard carpenters and sail-makers. Discharges from other departments are soon to follow, which will reduce the force about 33 per cent. The suspension of so large a number of workingmen will necessarily affect the interests of this city, and a reduction in prices of rents must immediately ensue.

☞ Quite a sensation was caused among certain Navy Yard workmen on Tuesday, we understand, on account of the promulgation of an order to search every chest prior to its leaving the yard. In obeying this order some developments were made which are likely to conflict seriously with the settlement of the accounts of the implicated parties.

☞ Great preparations are making for the 1st of June, as a Memorial Day in honor of President Lincoln. Gov. Gilmore and the State authorities of New Hampshire are doing their utmost to make the scene impressive to the great assembly that will convene at Concord. Many of our returning soldiers will be present on the occasion, and add to its dignity and solemnity.

☞ The sale of two pieces of real estate in Newburyport, at very low prices in comparison to the cost, furnishes the Herald a text for the following popular sermon—which may have equal application elsewhere:

Mr. Smith sold at auction the brick house corner of Harris and Green streets, for $5,550. It is a good, substantial house, in one of the best locations in town, and will be in demand as long as anything is. It was built say sixty years ago, when Newburyport could afford to put up handsome houses. It cost nearly four times what it brought now, though it is in good repair to-day. They build few such houses now: but if our people had invested their money in business at home, where they would have managed it themselves, instead of sending it out of town to be managed by those they know nothing of, it would now have commanded what it cost, and there would have been hundreds of such houses in the city.

Mr. Greenleaf sold the Johnson wharf and stores for $3300. We are glad that Mr. Johnson who built the wharf, and Mr. Bartlet who spent much more money than that in putting it in repair, are not here to know of this sale. It is a shocking price for such a piece of property.

—Gov. John Neptune, chief of the Penobscot Indians, died at Oldtown, May 8th, aged 100 years.

—Four horses were burnt in a large stable in Charlestown, Mass., Sunday night.

—An English temperance paper estimates that there are 500,000 drunkards in Great Britain.

—The capture of Richmond caused a decline in the Turkish cotton market, and many failures resulted. Great distress will fall upon the districts where cotton is cultivated.

— The rebel traitor Jacob Thompson, now in Canada, writes a letter which is published in the N. Y. Tribune, in which he calls himself a persecuted man, defends the right of secession, praises Jeff. Davis, &c., &c. His letters are of little account now.

— An Irish servant girl in Venango County, Pa., who can neither read nor write, has fallen heir to an income of three hundred thousand dollars. Such is oil.

— Already more than 1800 claims for damages by the war have been filed at Washington by citizens of Virginia. The claims amount to over $50,000,000, and there are more to come.

— The Maine troops coming home will rendezvous at Portland, and be mustered out, paid and discharged there.

— Sales of Savannah cotton in New York, on Saturday, realized over a million dollars in gold, only one-seventh of the whole amount of cotton being offered.

— Plenty of hay is offered in the Cincinnati market at from $14 to $18 per ton.

FESTIVAL.—The Ladies of the Unitarian Soldiers' Aid Society, of Portsmouth, announce a Festival for the benefit of the Soldiers, at the Temple, Monday and Tuesday, June 12th and 13th prox. U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7-30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

— Heavy damages were given by a jury, in the Court of Queen's Bench, recently, in an action for breach of promise of marriage. The plaintiff was a Miss Woodward, the daughter of a surgeon, at Worcester. The defendant, Mr. Clark, had been a captain in the Forty-fifth Regiment. In 1863, he had wooed and won the affection of the plaintiff, and a series of letters passed between them. At last he wrote, without any previous notice, that he had made a mistake, and that he did not love the lady with the warmth which was desirable. He therefore, broke off the match. The jury gave the plaintiff two thousand pounds damages.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY.
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Assistant U. S. Patent Office, Washington, D. C. under the Act of 1837.
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent, furnished, by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that such is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has every reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The large business practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All inventors, journeying to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure them the earliest and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him for securing their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on inventors' applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings
to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 20 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Rise, and others.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to some of the gentlemen prominent in starting this company as a man strictly honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum regions, and was solicited to aid in selecting the Property for Farms. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel E. Lancaster, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the Property and report. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Allegheny river, and through nine miles in one direction and three, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty six million of dollars. The last named gentleman, Hon. Charles A. Phillips, a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and P. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The lay of the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Oil vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The oil tells run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, on which immense fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 4000 barrels per day—the Fountain 200—the Parker 300—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this flat are successful. A barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the Flat below Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $10 per ton, and if the vein of coal should be wet it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, burning freely as Cannel.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $6000 to sink a well to the depth of 700 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $20 per day to work it, if it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and preventing geological features of a more rich and perfect character than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting Oil Territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors Mason and Stevenson, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. The Farm comes up to expectations of Prof. Shepard of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is abundant room on this farm to make hundreds of wells, and we feel confident we make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek. No two have lately sunk a well right opposite this farm and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Coquet Well that flows 700 barrels daily, the Jersey that flows 300, the Maple Shade and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Fraser well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with its sucker rod in, and its tubing from eighty to eighty-five of machinery, it has flowed 230 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 3,500 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another well has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Fraser well, and great expectations rest upon it. In sight of the spouting wells, and between the Fraser and the one which has raised no high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and very well fit for a well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On West Pit Hole, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 125 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil would be struck on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

Circulars, prospectuses, &c., containing every information, will be furnished on application at the office of the Company, or sent by mail to parties wishing to subscribe. Apply to or address

☞ Our readers may remember that we have more than once suggested, during the war, that some limit to the liberty of the press in time of war, might be conducive to the public welfare.

It appears now, in relation to Gen. Sherman's operations,—that Gen. Sherman, in answer to a remonstrance from friends as to his former hostility to newspaper correspondents, mentioned as an instance of the evil effects of premature disclosures, that in his march through South and North Carolina he was feigning to march on Raleigh, and so made Johnston believe, although his real destination was Goldsboro', where he could procure his supplies; but while the movement was in full and successful operation, Johnston learned through the Northern newspapers that the War Department was sending supplies to Goldsboro' via Morehead City, instead of Raleigh. Johnston, through this information, massed his army and attacked Sherman at Bentonville, and though Johnston was repulsed, the Union army lost 1400 men. New York papers containing the information were found at Johnston's headquarters.

JEFF. DAVIS ON HANGING.—An officer of the United States army, whose authority in such a case we cannot question, gives the New York Evening Post leave to publish the following account of what he heard Jeff. Davis say just before the breaking out of the war. We use his words:

"I heard Mr. Davis utter the following words in a southern town where he delivered an address in November, 1859. I did not hear the whole speech, only the words quoted, as I passed by the crowd of listeners:

'What! coerce a sovereign state! attempt to deprive us of our most inestimable rights! 'Let Mr. Lincoln try it, or Mr. Douglas either, and we will hang them higher than Haman, and the only difference I should make would be that [humorously] as Mr. Lincoln is considerably taller than Mr. Douglas, we should have to build his gibbet [standing on his toes and reaching up his hands] a leetle higher than that for Douglas.'"

☞ On the morning when Jeff. Davis was taken captive, after a hurried breakfast the party were put in marching order. The prisoners, in ambulances, were preceded by the band of the 4th Michigan Cavalry, playing first "Yankee Doodle," which had evidently a depressing influence on the feelings of Mr. Davis: but when in a few minutes the band struck into the somewhat familiar air of 'John Brown's Body,' it was too much for endurance, and he actually fell prostrate in the ambulance, and was kept concealed from view by his friends for a considerable time."

— A young man who was detected in passing counterfeit fractional currency at Niagara Falls on Monday, threw a revolver on the officers who attempted to arrest him and kept them at bay for some time. He then endeavored to escape by running, but was pursued and overtaken. He fired several shots at his pursuers, who finally brought him down with a shot gun, inflicting a mortal wound.

THE GUNS TO BE SPIKED.—The New York Herald says "the concession of negro suffrage in the reconstruction of the insurgent States will effectually spike the last gun of Northern abolitionists." Loyal papers respond—"This mode of 'spiking the guns of the abolitionists' will afford them the highest satisfaction, and we will guarantee that it will prove effectual. Let the Administration try it."

See what the most popular and widely circulated periodicals say of our Establishment:
From the "Saturday Evening Post" February 25, 1865.
We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the announcement of Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, Silver Ware, and Fancy Goods, in our advertising columns. We are personally acquainted with the members of this firm and know them to be gentlemen of sterling worth and integrity. The class of goods, for variety and extent, we have scarcely seen paralleled in this city.
From the "Mirror of Fashion," March 1, 1865.
Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, etc., opened on the 15th ult., and we venture to say that no finer display of goods was ever exhibited by any establishment in this city. The ladies thronged their bazaar almost to suffocation, although the streets were almost impassable by the melted snow and slush. We predict for them a wonderful success.
From the "Leader" of February 28, 1865.
Our lady friends should visit the extensive establishment of Messrs. Devaugh & Co., No. 15 Maiden Lane, if they wish to indulge themselves with a sight which they will long remember.—Such a profusion of elegant Watches, Chains, Rings, Earrings, and a thousand other articles of every name, kind and description, we never before witnessed. Their silver and plated ware is superb, and at costs into the silver tea for other splendid establishments which have long been the boast of our city. It is estimated that their stock is worth not less than one million dollars.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astonishing testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MILROY AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 31, 1860.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARK.
MELROSE, MASS., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made Ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppa Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my companion is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid once and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. FOLSOM.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, that the best writing fluid I ever used I would not be without. I remain yours, GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 22, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen; and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have found this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and find it a quantity of it. It would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servt.
GEO. W. FAHNESTOCK.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is in some kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brooklyn, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used Stevens, Maard & Noyes', D. J. Rideout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours, respectfully, G. E. STILES.

THURSDAY, MAY 24, 1865.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The army of the Potomac, which passed review in Washington, Tuesday, numbered about 60,000, and were seven hours in passing the White House.

Mr. Seward has been subpœned to appear in the assassination trial on Thursday next. He is so far recovered as to be able now to direct the affairs of the State Department.

Before the Grand Jury in Davis' case, several witnesses were examined, among whom was F. P. Blair. The Government maintains that the treason was committed in this District last July, when the rebel army burned Blair's house and killed a large number of our people.

THE PRISONERS DAVIS & Co.— A Fortress Monroe dispatch of May 22, gives some particulars of the landing of Jeff. Davis and others. Shortly after the steamer reached the wharf the prisoners began to land. No person was allowed to approach the wharf where the prisoners landed except at a distance of over 500 yards.

As the prisoners marched up the wharf preceded by a guard of their captors, the tall, spare frame of Jeff. Davis, dressed in grey clothes and wearing a light felt hat, could be easily discerned.

As soon as the prisoners were all on shore, they were marched up the beach to the sally port of the water battery in the rear of the fortress, and thence to their cells in the second tier of casemates. Clement C. Clay accompanied Jeff. Davis inside the fortress. Mrs. Davis and her four children and the wife of Clement C. Clay remain on board the steamer Clyde, and it is thought they will be sent south this evening, as orders have been received from the War Department prohibiting them from going north.

The parting between Davis and his family is described as extremely affecting, during which the feelings of the once ambitious and desperate rebel leader were completely overcome.

JEFF. DAVIS INDICTED FOR TREASON. The Grand Jury of the United States Circuit Court of the District of Columbia have brought in a bill against Jeff. Davis for treason. On the 12th of July last, Jeff. Davis's forces invaded the District, threatened the Capitol, attacked the Federal troops at Fort Stephen, and shot several hundred of our men, killing over one hundred of them. There is no difficulty, therefore, in proving that Jeff. Davis has committed the crime of treason within the jurisdiction of the Circuit Court of the District of Columbia.

FROM THE SOUTH.—Between Savannah and Augusta, Ga., the country abounds in rebel soldiers going home.—Planters have put in seed for vegetables, rye and corn: a few plant cotton: negroes generally stay and work.—Some people in Augusta grieve over Jeff. D.'s capture.—A wagon with $240,000 in specie, found in a by-road, has been turned over to the U. S.—Gen. Gilmore proclaims that the rebel Governors of South Carolina, Georgia and Florida have no authority; and that the blacks are free citizens of the U. S., and will be protected as such in their wages and liberties.

NORTH CAROLINA.—The N. Y. Herald's correspondence shows that efforts to re-organize the State government in North Carolina continue. Three candidates for Governor are already nominated.

☞ The most interesting evidence of Monday, in the Conspiracy trial, was in the letter of the rebel Lieut. Alston, found among the captured archives of the rebel War Department. The proposition of this writer to rid the country of its deadliest enemies—meaning Mr. Lincoln and his Cabinet—by assassinating them, was shown to have been entertained by Jeff. Davis, and that he had directed his Private Secretary to refer the matter to the rebel Secretary of War, for his consideration. This was the first direct testimony yet produced in the case and allowed to be made public, showing that Davis had ever entertained the idea of assassinating the President and the heads of departments, and its importance was enhanced by the fact that the reference by Davis to his Secretary of War was dated in December last, at which time it has been clearly proven that Booth and some of his original confederates were actively plotting for the murder of Mr. Lincoln. The introduction of this letter establishes the fact thus beyond any doubt, if it be good for no other purpose, that Davis was not only capable of entertaining proposals for assassinating our President, but was willing to treat with cold-blooded villains for its accomplishment. The link in the chain of evidence that directly connects Booth and the prisoners in an agreement with Davis to murder Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Seward, has not been produced on the trial, but may yet be offered before the government closes its testimony.

THE WALPOLE (N. H.) BANK ROBBERS. The arrest of James W. Cummings and Max Shinborn, the parties who robbed the bank at Walpole, N. H., of $50,000 in United States bonds last November, has already been announced. Cummings had $10,000 of the bonds with him when arrested. The following account of the two rogues is given by the Philadelphia North American:

"The two robbers are regarded by the police forces of the country as the most expert, daring, skillful and successful bank and store robbers in the United States. They are the parties who 'cracked' the store of Hamlin Butler at Salem, Wayne county, Pa., and stole from the safe, which they forced open, $7500. They 'fitted' the locks of the bank at Bellows Falls, Vt., and succeeded in opening them. After swinging the outer door on its hinges they were surprised to find a burglar proof door inside, which foiled them in the attempt to rob that bank. In retreating they locked the outer door, having taken impressions of the burglar proof doors, with the intention of making another visit. For some reason or other, known only to themselves, they either did not make the second visit, or that inner barrier successfully resisted their most skillful efforts. They mock, however, at burglar proof doors.

The Walpole bank was robbed on the 18th day of last November of $50,000 in U. S. bonds. Upon the discovery of the robbery, Mr. A. H. Bellows of Walpole hastened to New York city and reported the fact of the robbery. Detectives were delegated especially to work the problem, and on Tuesday last took into custody at Saratoga, New York, Max Shinborn, alias Max Heisler, and found on his person several bonds stolen from the bank. The prisoner was taken to New Hampshire.

They also fitted one of the banks at Keene, N. H., only a few weeks since, but had not, up to the time of their arrest, made the attempt to enter. Had they done so, in all probability, would have been eminently successful. At the town of Keene, Shinborn represented himself as a jeweler from Albany, N. Y. He is more accomplished in burglarious skill than cunning. Cummings turned his attention more to the sale of the plunder. He has attracted the attention of the most skillful of the detectives for some time past. He was seen in quite a number of fashionable places,—at times at our first class hotels; at other times on Third street, among the money holders, and when the telegram was received by the officers, giving such an accurate description of him, he fell an easy prey.

Cummings, it has been ascertained, had sold a stolen bond to Wm. Silkman of Providence, R. I., upon which he assumed the name of George White. He sold another bond to the Second National Bank at Scranton, Pa., under the same name. He sold a third to Dr. Davis, of Hyde Park, on which occasion he assumed the name of George Wilson. He also sold another to the bank at Wilkesbarre, Pa., under the name of Chas. Barnes. It does not appear, so far as we could learn, that he sold any in Philadelphia. He hails from Rochester, N. Y., and was at one time in the nursery business.

There is much of the romantic in his history of while his 'chivalry' is farin advance of Jefferson Davis or Gen. Lee. He neither starved any one nor robbed the poor. He went in for big game, and has been known to give liberally to the poor, that of which he despoiled the rich. His love for horticulture gave him means for obtaining employment in almost any part of the country. We hear of him as working in various nurseries, but any bank in the vicinity of those nurseries was to a moral certainty doomed to be robbed. He leisurely made himself familiar with the approaches to the doomed premises, and very rarely failed in his purpose. He must have been also an adroit mechanic. When his baggage was opened at the Central Station yesterday, from among the soiled linen, the apparel and the toilet articles that constituted its contents, there rolled a bundle in voluminous wrappers that contained wax impressions, a dozen or more in number, of large keyholes, evidently those of banks or safes, upon which he no doubt intended to operate at some future time. He is not likely to receive much mercy from any New Hampshire judge, and the public may as well take leave of him for the next ten years."

—— Andrew Giles, of Bedford, left his home on the 15th inst., for Boston. On the 20th, his friends at home received a letter dated Boston, in which he declared his intention to take the steamboat for Bangor, and while on board to shoot himself and throw himself overboard. He also wrote a letter to the same effect to an uncle who resides in Concord, Mass. His friends in Bedford telegraphed to Bangor for the facts, and on Saturday received answer that on Friday evening, the 19th, Mr. Giles shot himself and threw himself overboard. He was rescued and brought to Bangor and taken to the hospital. He died Saturday. The deceased was about 22 years of age, and had been in feeble health for some time, and greatly depressed in spirits.—Mirror.

COAL.—Coal fell in one day in Rochester, N. Y., from $15 a ton to 8 40 a 7 20, but not until the citizens subscribed for 200,000 tons of coal on their own account. Coal at Pottsville has been selling at $2 50 per ton, or less than the cost of production. There is no demand even at that. The trade is dull at most of the mines in Pennsylvania. The miners have been receiving enormous wages; and do not like to submit to the reduction: but the owners of mines, and those merchants who trade in coal, cannot continue to pay such wages.—With the general fall in the prices of labor, the miners must change their rates.

☞ A rebellion has broken out in Hayti, headed by a scoundrel called Col. Salnave, who has taken two or three cities, and who appears likely to succeed in being dictator or emperor, after the pattern of Louis Napoleon.

WAIFS FROM AN ESTRAY.

ARMY OF WANDERERS,
HEADQUARTERS IN THE SADDLE,
North Bank of Sagamore Creek.

To Major F. W. Miller, Chronicler-in-Chief of the doings and misdoings in Portsmouth and vicinity:

Sir—It is my painful duty to inform you of a fact which is doubtless well-known to you. On the opposite side of this stream, and to the right of the long bridge by which we cross it, the forces of Mammon—that ruthless enemy of the picturesque—have cut down the forest for many acres, seriously damaging one of the fairest views in this vicinity or any other. True, a man may do as he pleases with his own goods; and the fire set on the premises a year or two since was not much of an inducement to let the woods remain; but I had hoped to see their symetry unimpaired for years to come.

From an officer of this army, on detached service in another State, to whom I had reported this devastation of the enemy, I have received this letter of condolence:

"I can join with you in your wail over the fallen forests, for I have sung that song many times on seeing the beautiful groves which were my greatest delight throughout all my boyhood, vanishing like boar frost before the sun. And, as I ramble over the territory here, often meeting piles of fagots—mere bushes—tied in bundles for fuel, I can verify Thoreau's prediction 'that soon the dealers will be chopping down the shortleberry bushes, even.'

"Such pinching, hardened economy surrounds our daily lives and skins the soil of our not over fertile hills, that when I saw some spots among the White Mountains that were beyond the possibility of cultivation, I rejoiced, for it will ever be the unclaimed property of the Sylvan King. In descending the north side of Mount Monadnock I was inexpressibly delighted, as I clambered down a grand ravine, to see the forest monarchs soaring up from the seeds of seventeen hundred and something, and yet standing upon their undisturbed, prostrate and moss-covered predecessors—sleeping where the hurricane had left them, for they were most of them lying in one direction—and I could but exclaim in Longfellow's expressive cadences:

'This is the forest primeval,' &c."

Were the spot likely to be occupied by smiling meadows or cultivated fields, I would not lament thus; but the transition from the leafy tree-tops to a ragged, rocky, stumpy piece of pasture land, is almost too great. ION.

"VISIONS IN VERSE."—This is a volume of nearly three hundred pages, written in a flowing easy style; presenting in a graphic and pleasant style the writer's views and theories concerning the creation of man, his fall and his redemption. To the student wishing to obtain hints and ideas concerning the great problem of man's being and destiny, this volume is well worth perusal. It is an agreeable change from the usual dry manner of treating the subject, being in verse, which makes its perusal a recreation while it is study, and affords delight while at the same time it instructs. It presents Scripture history to the reader in a form condensed, and yet so clear that whoever is at all familiar with the word of God will in reading its lines seem at once to have all the story on record, direct before the mind, and also find himself reading in many instances what his own time is making of history yet to be written. One extract to this point:

Smoke mantled Sinai soon I saw,
Where God to Moses gave the law;
The gushing rock, whose smitten side
The issue of Christ's blood typified;
The winding way, God's peoples' fare,
Now onward, now backsliding there,
While through the wilderness they pass,—
Too like the devious steps, alas!
The Church still prints on desert sand,
Proceeding to the promised land.

Another,

O'er-dazzled thus, I looked abroad
To find a hiding place from God,
And cool the kindling pains of sin
His Holiness had inflamed within.
I looked not long, nor looked in vain;
One like a Lamb that had been slain,
Was seated on his Father's throne,—
I saw my savior in the Son!
Round me his righteous mantle flowed,
And I was hid with Christ in God!

This volume is published by Lee & Shepherd, Boston. The author, R. F. Fuller, Esq., is a Boston lawyer; but, as his book shows, is not confined alone to the study of Coke and Blackstone. W.

GOLD, Wednesday, 132 1-2 to 133 1-2. Steamer Asia, from Boston, took out $250,000 for Liverpool.

COAL.—20,000 tons were sold by auction in New York, Tuesday, from $6.12 to 6.87 per ton. A ton there is 2240 lbs. in these sales.

— The N. Y. Herald's correspondence says Jeff. Davis had joined his family only the night before his capture. He sent them ahead and dismissed his escort, with the hope that our troops pursuing him would follow the escort and let him escape.

— On the morning of the 21st inst., the large barn owned by the North family of the Society of Shakers in Harvard, was entirely destroyed by fire. It contained about 15 tons of hay and ten cows, which were all burned. Loss about $2000. The cause of the fire is unknown. No insurance.

— Maj. Gen. Halleck has been during the past three days superintending the arrangements made for the confinement of the rebel prisoners. Stringent orders in relation to visiting the fortress have been issued, and all civilians are prohibited from entering unless duly provided with a pass from General Halleck.

Local.

☞We understand very liberal arrangements have been made for the conveyance of people to Concord on the 1st of June, to hear Prof. Patterson's eulogy on President Lincoln. All military companies and civic Societies in uniform, will be passed free both ways, and we believe served with a collation there; and citizens generally will go and return for half fare. Our Band certainly ought to be present on the Masons or Odd Fellows; and if fifty or a hundred men should adopt some simple uniform or badge, and purchase the elegant Funeral Car from this city, (which we hear can be done for a low price,)—and which with themselves would be conveyed up and back free—this would be a chief and elegant feature of the procession, and would reflect credit on our city. As our City Government, and our people generally, have already made extensive public observance in respect to the event we all mourn,—it is hardly to be expected that they should do more, as a body; but the proposed trip, as we have suggested, would be very pleasant, and Prof. Patterson's address will be a rich treat, and the display one of the most imposing ever seen in the State.

"THE FOURTH."—The question, What shall we do on the 4th of July? is thus answered by B. P. Shillaber of the Boston Sat. Eve. Gazette—who started the ball which rolled up so grand a celebration in 1858. What say, "Sons" at home and abroad,—is his motion seconded? and shall it be carried?

A Good Time Talked Of.—Those who participated in the enjoyment attending the first visit of the Sons of Portsmouth to their old home, July 4th, 1858, have looked forward with deep interest to the time when the visit should be repeated. This was to have been in ten years from the date of the first, but at that time war was raging, and as many of the Sons of Portsmouth were engaged in it, it was thought advisable to defer it till peace should come and the soldiers return, when the reunion would be marked by a deeper and more joyful observance, taking somewhat the form of an ovation to those who had faithfully served their country in the field. Repeated inquiries have been made of us regarding it, and we have just received a brief letter, asking if it will occur this year. We ask the question ourselves, unable to answer it, suggesting that, though "talked of," some action should be had inaugurating the project, for the time is short.—Gazette.

NEW HALL.—At the Festival of the Soldiers' Aid Society, next month, the new floor of the Temple will be laid for the first time—forming a spacious flat hall, much larger than any other hall in the city, with wings and gallery,—and giving better accommodations than we ever had before in Portsmouth for such a purpose. We would suggest that this occasion will present a favorable opportunity for other use of this flat floor, which ought to be improved—say a public supper of one of our Societies, or some such thing.

POLICE COURT, May 24.—Fannie Riley, for being drunk, was fined $3.00 and costs $3.86; failing to come down, was committed.

Joseph Palmeckey, for being drunk, was fined $3.00 and costs $3.86. Did not respond, and therefore was ordered to the suburbs.

David Kiley, for exercising his pugilistic propensities, was fined $3.00 and costs $2.48.

Thomas Kiley, for indulging in the manly art of self-defence, was fined $3.00 and costs $2.48.

The police received a dispatch yesterday from Boston that Jeremiah Wetherell had deserted his bondsmen. The Marshal and his Assistants watched the trains, and found him and took him in charge.

☞ If the poet's assertion is true, that "music hath charms to soothe the savage breast," imagine the effect of the sweet intonations of our friends of the quartette serenading club on the amiable heart of your reporter on Tuesday evening. Such a serenade, in connection with the returning fair weather, served to place us in a most amicable mood. Verily, there is no discount on their notes, and we much regret the departure of one of their number for a distant land, which breaks up the band. We would like to mess with a crowd who pour forth such good rich tones; acknowledged on all sides as hard to excel; as also their dress, which is gotten up in costly (o)ld style.

Our friend Horace was also favored as were we, but says he "Kent see it," and hopes this article won't "Lame-us." REP.

THE FIRST VIOLETS.

Who that has loved, knows not the tender tale
Which flowers reveal when lips are coy to tell?
Whose youth has passed not, dreaming in the vale
Where the rich violets dwell?

Lo, where they shrink along the lonely brake,
Under the lifeless, melancholy tree,
Not yet the cuckoo sings, nor glides the snake.
Nor wild thy music lures the bee.

Yet at their sight and scent entranced and thrilled
All June seems golden in the April skies:
How sweet the days we pass in Love, till fulfilled,
O distant Paradise!

Dear land to which desire forever flies,
Time doth no present to the grasp allow;
Say, in the land of Love, do flowers arise
At last the fleeting now?

Dream not of days to come, of that unknown
Whither hope wanders (maze without a clue!)
Give their true witchery to the flowers—thine own
Youth in them renew.

Avarice! remember when the cowslip's gold
Laurel and yet lost its glitter in the grasp:
Do thy hoards glad thee more than those of old?
Those withered in thy clasp.

From these the hand falls palsied—it was then
That thou wert rich; only souls are a tie!
Alas, poor fool! joy is the wealth of man,
And bare their poverty.

Come, foiled ambition! what hast thou desired?
Empire and power?—O! what hast thou lost!
These once were thine, when life's gay spring inspired
Thy soul with glories lost!

Let the flowers charm thee to the jocund prime,
When o'er the stars rapt fancy traced the chart;
Thou hadst an angel's powers in that blessed time,
Thy real human part!

Hark! hark! again the tread of bashful feet!
Hark! the boughs rustling round the trysting place!
Let air again with one dear breath be sweet,
Earth fair with one dear face!

Brief-lived first flow'r, first love! the hours steal on,
To prank the world in summer's pomp of hue;
But what shall flaunt beneath a fervor sun,
Worth what we lose in you?

Oft by a flower, a leaf in some loved book,
We mark the lines which charm us most. Retrace
Thy life, recall its loveliest passing look,
Dead violets keep the place.

—SIR E. B. LYTTON.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents	"	"	"	$100 "
Ten	"	"	"	$500 "
20	"	"	"	$1000 "
$1	"	"	"	$5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

The properties of this Company consist of 648 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing interests of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable oil lands the Company possesses. Three engines are already at the wells. Our Agent at Titusville writes us that the well on the McElhany farm has commenced boiling, which places this Company beyond a doubt of success. The Officers of this Company, in placing this property before the New England public, have full confidence that no properties yet offered are superior, or any out of which larger and more certain dividends may at once be expected. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and radiron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Rise, and others.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to some of the gentlemen promoters in starting this company as a man of strict honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum region, and was solicited to aid in selecting the property for this firm. He did so. Mr. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel E. Lancaster, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Allegheny river, and not towards the Miller farm, as has been claimed, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty-six million of dollars. On the last of March, D. W. Harris, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make farther examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:
THE MATTISON FARM.
This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek. The lay of the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.
The oil bells run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which immense fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Maud well flowed 2000 barrels per day—the Fountain 200—the Forker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this flat are productive. As to the value of this, I say forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well well for half a million.
It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the Flat below Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $12 per ton, and if the value of coal without a well well it would be a fortune in itself. It is spliendid coal, burning freely as Cannel.
The average price of Oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $600 to sink a well to the depth of 400 feet, and for no lower than that. Less $20 per day to work it and pump it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:
"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more full and perfect character than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting lands in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professor Hall, of Albany, Professor Rogers, of Boston, and other gentlemen of the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek and Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells, and the flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is abundant room on each side for 18 wells, and on this farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation of the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as they are expected, if they only yield the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and the income from this farm would be over one million of dollars. This Company do not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let others make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.
THE PARKER FARM
Contains 100 acres, s heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek. They have lately sunk a well right opposite this farm and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the company to sell enough the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.
THE BYLES FARM,
On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Coquet Well that flows 500 barrels daily, the Jerry that flows 300, the Maple and scores of other flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit.—This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the Farm Section. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with its sucker rod, and its pipe connections, it will flow forever, it has flowed 250 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tankage to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 3,200 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another flow was struck, and there is above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well four locks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In sight of the spouting well, and between the Frazer and the one which has raised so high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod fit for a well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we should find a flowing well, superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.
THE DAWSON FARM,
On WEST PIT HOLE, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking a well 10 ft. from a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 115 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring lously."
Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have to doubt that which oil will be found on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

NEW HAMPSHIRE PETROLEUM COMPANY.—Rev. Matthew Hale Smith, whose nom de plume is "Burleigh," writes from New York to the Boston Journal on the 18th inst., a letter from which we make the following extract:

"Booth, the assassin, made large sums in the oil speculation. He was paid $250,000 for his interest in the 'United States Well.'"

The above "United States Well" is within half a mile of the "Byles Farm" of one hundred and six acres, owned by the New Hampshire Petroleum Co. The farm is on Pit Hole Creek, where every well thus far yields oil, and most of them immense quantities. On the 7th inst., the New Hampshire Petroleum Co. received a dispatch from Mr. Bates, their Superintendent, stating that another large flowing well had been struck midway between the United States Well and the Byles Farm. That brings a large flowing well within about eighty rods of the farm of the New Hampshire Co.; two flowing wells in sight of it. Last week he telegraphed than an eighty barrel well and increasing had been struck near the Byles Farm, nearer than the last flowing well. A well of this size is worth $320,000, according to the usual estimate put upon the wells, of $4000 for each barrel, if they are twenty barrels. On the 27th inst. they received a letter from Mr. Bates, dated the 17th, stating that the eighty barrel well was pumped with a very small engine,—and properly pumped with a large engine, the operators are confident that that it will become a flowing well of between 200 and 300 barrels. It is thought that the vein of this eighty barrel well and the veins of the two flowing wells run through the Byles Farm. Every rod of this farm is suitable for boring, and there is room for between three hundred and fourteen hundred wells—thirteen to the acre being the rule. The high estimation in which Pit Hole property is held may be judged by the following extract from the Petroleum Recorder Review of the 19th inst., published in New York:

Pit Hole Creek at present ranks among the best oil territory in the oil district of Western Pennsylvania, and oil men who are seeking safe investments look for Pit Hole territory first.

The celebrated "United States Well" is sufficient testimony of the value of Pit Hole property; and parties are safily look for many such wells before the present boring season closes. For fully six miles above the United States Well, the territory is turning out well.

The New Hampshire Co. has another farm of twenty-five acres on West Pit Hole, which promises to be very rich. We have seen all this property, and believe there is oil enough in these two farms to yield the company millions of dollars. They have two other farms, one of 100 acres called the Parker Farm, on East Oil Creek, in a splendid locality, with a big well close to it; and another farm of 84 acres, called the Mattison Farm, on Cherry Creek. The latter Creek runs through it, and there is a coal vein at one corner. These two farms are less than a mile apart, and last week a nice well was struck between the two. The coal vein is to be developed at once, and wells are going down on the four farms. Good oil wells on either farm would make the New Hampshire Co. immensely wealthy, and it looks now as if each farm would be very rich. It is almost a dead certainty that the Byles Farm is full of oil; and the 25 acres on West Pit Hole, with promising wells all around it, bids fair to be nearly as good. This Co. has some of the very best business men in New Hampshire as leading officers, in whom the community has implicit confidence.—Manchester Mirror.

From the "Dispatch" of February 25, 1865.
We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the unsuccessful visit of Messrs. Gavagan & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, Silver Ware, and Fancy Goods, in our advertising columns. We are personally acquainted with the members of this firm and know them to be gentlemen of sterling worth and integrity. Their stock of goods, both costly and extent, we have scarcely seen paralleled.
From the "Mirror of Fashion," March 1, 1865.
Messrs. Gavagan and Co. have left Jewelry, etc., opened on the 15th ult., and we venture to say that no finer display of goods was ever exhibited by any establishment in this city. The ladies thronged their bazaar almost to suffocation, although the streets were rendered nearly impassable by the water thinking of slush. We predict for them a wonderful success.
From the "Ledger," February 28, 1865.
Our lady friends will be delighted with the extensive establishment of Messrs. Devaugh & Co., No. 15 Maiden Lane, if they wish to indulge themselves with a sight which they will long remember.—Such a profusion of elegant Watches, Chains, Rings, Earrings, and, in short, of Jewelry of every name, kind and description, we never before witnessed. Their silver and plated ware is superb, and almost casts into the shade the other splendid establishments which have long a leading place of our city. It is estimated that their stock is worth not less than one million dollars.
How You Can Get a Prize.

Agents are wanted in the Army and in every place.
We have an immense stock of goods to dispose of, and need a large number of Agents. Our terms to Agents are very liberal and some even of our Lady Agents are making from $5 to $20 a day. We give Agents 50 per cent. on all Certificates they sell provided they remit not less than $1 for eight.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines; to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.

Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
Manchester, Mass., Feb. 4, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made ink, for eight years past, of an Prof. Lee's Recipe, (made of Aleppa Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first. It does not changed in the color from single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter letter with it than with any other Ink. I shall try to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. FOLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used I would not be without it. I remain yours,
GEO. B. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Jan. 25, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Lee's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had a quantity of it. It would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servt,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and does as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 12, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The Ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moore's Maynard & Noyes', D. J. Kilcourse's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, MAY 25, 1865.

GEN. SHERMAN.—The Boston Herald's Washington special says:—

Gen. Sherman has written a letter to his friend, Col. Bowman, denouncing what he terms the slanders of the War Department and the malignity of the press in their comments on his correspondence with Johnston relative to the terms of surrender of the latter's army. He says that he dares the War Department to sustain its charges.

The War Department may take care of itself, if it "dares."—No press, so far as we have seen, was ever malignant against him except the rebel and copperhead presses, while his army was trampling down the Confederacy. But every loyal press, and every loyal man with brains in his head, condemned and scouted his foolish concessions to Johnston and Jeff. Such presses and such men have no malignity against him. But if he chooses to identify himself with such folly—then let him make the most of it.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—A gang of rebel outlaws have invaded Westmoreland Co., Va., coming from the lower part of Maryland. A cavalry force has been sent in pursuit.

The assassins' trial was adjourned to allow the government time to examine rebel documents forwarded to the War Department, from which much important testimony will be adduced.

There is a painful rumor current in Washington of a collision between the 5th corps and Sherman's men over the river on Wednesday, resulting in the death of several, and the injuring of a number.

TEXAS.—Rebel Texan papers of the 10th contain amusing attempts to fire the hearts of the Texans. A meeting was held and a committee appointed to devise means to assist Magruder to continue the war. A proposition to conscript all males, white and black, over 18 years of age, was submitted; also that masters be compelled to drill their slaves and lead them in battle, and the women furnished with weapons to defend themselves, at home. These measures were to be finally submitted to Kirby Smith or the President, (Jeff. Davis was then at large). They claim to be able to bring into the field 80,000 warriors, every one of whom will be above 13 years of age

ANOTHER REVOLUTION IN HAYTI.—Hayti or a portion of the island has undergone another revolution. The following is an extract of a letter from Arthur Folsom, Esq., U. S. Consul at Cape Haytien, to N. P. Mann & Co. of Boston:

CAPE HAYTIEN, May 11, 1865.

We have had a complete political change, and, as we learn that Gonaives and St. Marcs have done the same thing, we think it will be a peaceable end to the Geffeard government. The fellow here who has had himself proclaimed dictator is Col. Salnave, (now Gen. Salnave,) the person who attempted to assassinate one of Geffeard's ministers here some months since, but not having succeeded he escaped to the Dominicans, but has now emerged from his hiding place, and on his arrival at the gates of the town all the troops surrendered without firing a gun.

A party of disaffected persons headed by Colonel Salnave, appeared before the town of Cape Haytien on the 10th inst. and demanded its surrender, which was promptly acceded to by the government troops who garrisoned the place, and the rebels marched in and took possession. Not a gun was fired in defence of the town, and the whole affair was carried through without bloodshed. There was no opposition among the people, who appeared satisfied with the change. Other towns on the coast had also been taken by the insurgents.

The instigators of this movement have been at work for some time past in plotting against the peaceable and humane government of President Geffrard, and although a former attempt to overthrow it most signally failed, the present conspiracy in which they are engaged may prove more successful.

President Geffrard was at Port au Prince during the recent disturbances, and it remains to be seen what force he can bring in opposition to the rebels.

GOLD, in New York, Thursday, 136 1-2 to 137 1-2.—The "operators" have felt confident that a rise would take place, and have labored hard to raise the price. $133,000 were sold in Boston, Thursday, mostly on time;—and none as high as 137.

— Gen. Sherman was handsomely serenaded in Washington, Wednesday night.—After much urging and entreaty, he made a brief good speech, advising his brethren in arms to resume their peaceful avocations with alacrity.

— Gen. Custar has taken command of the District of Missouri.

— It is reported at Washington that Ex-Gov. Letcher of Virginia has been captured by Gen. Torbett.

— In Indianapolis, an association is organized to build a permanent house for disabled Indiana soldiers, with Governor Morton as President.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. James Boutwell, aged 51, died at Sanbornton Square April 21. He was pastor of the Congregational Church in Brentwood from 1841 to 1851,—and pastor at Sanbornton from 1852 till his death.

—— Rev. John Colby, late of Hampton, was installed pastor of the Pilgrim church in Southboro', Mass., on the 20th of April. Sermon by Rev. Dr. Swain, of Providence, R. I.

—— Cornelius Lynch, of Manchester, plead guilty, in the Police Court, Tuesday, to a charge of bigamy, and went to jail. Both wives were in the Police Court when he was arraigned.

—— Dr. Alvan B. Lord, aged 47, died at the Asylum in Somerville, May 23, of softening of the brain. He formerly practised in Hampton, latterly in Manchester.

—— Hon. Charles A. Dana, late Assistant Secretary of War, is going into the newspaper business again. He has accepted the editorial chair of the Chicago Republican, a new paper, at a salary of ten thousand dollars per annum. That will be driving the quill to some effect. Mr. Dana was for some years one of the editors of the New York Tribune, and his ability is well known. He is a native of Hinsdale.

—— The fifty-fourth Annual Meeting of the N. H. Bible Society will be held in the Methodist Church in Concord, on Friday, June 2d, at 10 o'clock A. M.

—— The house, barn and outbuildings of Mr. Cook, on Davis' Hill, in Conway, were destroyed by fire on the 11th inst. The fire is supposed to have been set by a girl, a town pauper, who was boarded in the family. She has been arrested and sent to Dover jail.

—— Three owls of the largest size, were taken in one nest in Alton, on Monday, by Capt. Richard R. Davis, and sent to Boston to astonish the natives there.

—— John R. Varney, Esq., has been appointed Postmaster of Dover, in place of Dr. Nath'l Low, resigned.

—— The Strafford Guards, under Capt. Currier, celebrated their anniversary on Tuesday, turning out with full ranks, and making a fine appearance—at Dover.

—— The citizens of Concord propose raising a fund to erect a statue of Mr. Lincoln in the State House Yard.

TENNESSEE.—Nashville is said to be full of rebels, many of them officers, who are abusive and defiant. Much abuse is heaped upon President Johnson and Gov. Brownlow. A rebel colonel was Monday put in prison for using threatening language. Monday night, after the Governor had retired, a rebel officer came to his door and demanded admittance. The guard refused, but he persisted, saying that he had urgent business. It was only by threats of using the bayonet that the guard compelled him to leave. It is believed that he meant to assassinate the Governor.

A bill is introduced into the Senate, requiring lawyers, doctors and the ministers of the gospel, and all persons elected as officers under the State, to take oath that they have in no way encouraged enemies of the United States, before they can practice or hold office.

The Cumberland river is overflowing.

The work is progressing on the Atlanta Railroad. Guerrilla parties in the vicinity of Atlanta have almost entirely disappeared.

General Hobson, of Kentucky, has refused to receive the surrender of Ferguson, a notorious guerilla, and notified him and his men to leave his district immediately.

LIBERAL VICTORIES IN MEXICO.—Texas papers confirm the news from Mexico of the capture of Camargochina by Negrete, and that he was marching on Matamoras, receiving recruits on the way.

Canales had joined him with 300 men, and Cudaiorri was at Sareda with Benevides. The liberals had driven the Imperials out of Piedras Negras, taking a number of prisoners. Lopez had succeeded in reaching Monterey, Cortinas having missed him. It is said a battle tookk place between Negrete and Meija, May 1st. Result unknown.

— THE REBEL RAM STONEWALL is laid up in Havana. The report is that Capt. Boggs of the U. S. gunboat Connecticut, had demanded her surrender of Capt. Page, who preferred to put her in possession of the Captain-General, on condition that she should not be given up to the United States. That official however, refused to receive her on such conditions, but would receive her as a deposit. This was agreed to, and she was towed to the arsenal and her flag lowered. The officers and men were paid off and sent ashore. The U. S. Gunboats Powhatan, Connecticut and several others were lying off the port ready to attack the ram if she attempted to put to sea.

— Gen. Sherman's army, which passed in review through Washington city, on Wednesday, made a most splendid show.—Their marching was some of the best ever seen.

☞ The Superior Court of Pennsylvania, in a late suit, decided the U. S. greenbacks constitutionally a legal tender.

WAIF-ERS FROM A D-ES-K TRAY.

NEW YORK, May 23d.

One by one, as the minority followed the example of the majority, or consulted their almanacs, and ascertained that the thirty days had really expired, "the trappings and the suits of woe" have all been removed. If a pun was any way allowable on so serious a subject, we would remark that after a plentitude of rain, many of them were very wo-ful signs,—and some of the marble fronts they draped presented an amalgamation appearance.

Very much after the manner of turning guns into ploughshares, is the present ploughing and grassing of the City Hall Park, which for these four dreary years has been used as a rendezvous and camp, and trodden bare and brown by the "tramp, tramp, tramp," of the boys a-marching. The triangular plots formed by the intersection of the paths are being surrounded by posts equi-distant, and soon "white robed peace," in the disguise of raggedly-shirted newsboys, will be swinging on the chains between Park Row and Broadway, as they did before the war.

Before the War! What a flood of recollections these three words sweep up! How many pages of history we have written since. How many loving, aching hearts joining with sad and tearful pulsations, the long distance to that golden time, that isle of "the long ago" down the "broad'ning sweep" of the river Time. Welcome, Peace! Gladly may we say with Lowell:

"Come Peace,—not like a mourner bowed
For honor lost and dear ones wasted,
But proud to meet a people proud—
With eyes that tell of triumphs tasted!
Come with hand grippin' on the hilt,
And step that proves ye Victory's daughter,—
Longing for thee our spirits wilt,
Like shipwreck'd men's on rafts for water!"

Niblo's Theatre, in the heart of the Metropolitan Hall, was seriously scorched on Sunday evening. Damage to stage properties, dresses, &c., is stated at one hundred thousand. Insurance, if any, not given. Being most accessible, the costumes and appurtenances of Maggie Mitchell's "Fanchon" (the present performance) were saved. Some of the hotel guests commenced a sudden "May Moving," but subsequently returned. The fire might have proved very disastrous, but fortunately occurred on Sunday evening, the only one of the seven the stage is unoccupied, and was timely checked.

Many Southern merchants are in the city, "prospecting." They are not indulging in goods to any great extent; and there is a general fear of sending merchandise South too precipitately. I hear of several instances of Southern merchants renewing their paper given five years since, to protect the creditors. There is a vigorous call for as speedy social systemization of the Southern States as may be feasible.

The subject of cancelling the public debt by one hundred and fifty thousand subscriptions of $20,000 each, is being strongly agitated. Our "wealthies" who paid a tax of $100,000 to $200,000 last year, can well afford to take from ten to twenty shares each. (How many shares ought you and I take? Ditto he of the distributed Confederate rag newspaper?)

A statue to President Lincoln is to be erected at the lower westerly side of Union Square, to correspond with the equestrian statue of Washington on the right. Subscriptions are active, and limited to one dollar, (what fractional part of a dollar will the Bars and Stars man subscribe?)

John E. Owens, the Comedian, whose personification of the rural farm character of "Solon Shingle" has met with such mirthful approbation, goes to Europe on the next week's steamer.

The dignity of the Confederacy has fallen to a speculation basis. Wagers of 10 to 100 are being made here that Davis will not be hung. How about the "Christian President" now? More anon. N.

—"News from North Alabama is encouraging. Meetings are being held at all points in the State, and exertions made to bring Alabama into the Union again. Petitions are circulating all through Northern Alabama for the appointment of a military governor.

— The U. S. steamer Tuscarora from Fortress Monroe, for Fort Warren, with A. H. Stephens and suite on board, has arrived safe.

— The Washington correspondent of the Tribune says in his sly way: "It has transpired that the forthcoming presidential proclamation will not permit loyal negroes to vote." Nobody supposed it would. What has sunnesty to rebels to do with negroes voting?

— The rebel General Forrest has issued an address to his soldiers, advising them to submit to the laws, and aid in restoring peace.

— A banner in the great procession at Wilmington, N. C. had this appropriate inscription: "George Washington, the father of his country; Jeff. Davis, the destroyer of his country; Abraham Lincoln, the redeemer of his country."

— The Deseret News notices the arrival in Salt Lake City of the first oranges it has seen in that Territory. They were brought from Los Angeles, and can be afforded at the low price of three for a dollar.

DAVIS DISOBEYED BY JOHNSTON. The Richmond Republic says that when General Grant arrived at Raleigh, and the only terms upon which the surrender of Johnston's army would be accepted were made known to the latter, Jeff. Davis commanded him not to surrender; to disband his infantry, spike his cannon, and, with his cavalry and mounted artillerists, to cover the flight of the remnant of the Confederate Government. Johnston received this order with indignation, and refused to obey it, saying that, in the condition in which he then found himself, three duties claimed his consideration:—his duty to his troops; his duty to his country, composed of the wives and families of these brave men, and his duty to his superior officer. The last, he considered under the circumstances, as the least imperative, and he chose to disregard it. Acting upon this determination he surrendered his army.

It appears by the above, that the quasi treaty of Johnston and Sherman would have been acceptable to Jeff. Davis, who probably dictated the artfully worded terms, which on Gen. Sherman's own showing, did not express the understanding which he had of the bargain with Johnston! Gen. S., after conquering the rebel country, was overreached and cheated by the rebel Pres. Jeff. —But our President and our people saw the folly of the terms and condemned them at once.

— Col. Ellsworth was killed at the Marshall House, Alexandria, four years ago May 24.

POLICE COURT, May 25.—Mary Smith for an assault on Mrs. Carter, was fined $5.00 and cost $3.86.

George C. B. W. P. Reefe for being drunk, was fined $3.00 and costs $3.86.

John Barters, Wm. Smith and Henry A. Bolton for an assault on Marshal Dresser, were fined $10 and costs $2.57. These worthies are from the steamer Mackinaw, and belong to a pretty rough crowd. They attacked the City Marshal without the slightest provocation, and would have killed him, had it not been for the prompt interference of his assistants, together with the help of a few citizens. As it was, he escaped with a lame arm, and a head badly bruised.

☞ A pedlar named Joseph Wetherell of Cambridge, Mass., was arrested in this city a day or two since, for peddling his wares without a license. He gave bonds in the sum of $1000, and shortly after stepped out on his bondsmen, who informed the City Marshal of the matter, and in a short time he was in durance vile.

☞ Simeon Smiley, a laborer, had the misfortune of losing his thumb and fore finger on Wednesday, while engaged in operating a circular saw, in the Planing Mill at the North End.

☞ We understand that Mr. O. A. Frost, of the City Hotel in this city, has purchased the Atlantic House, at Wells Beach, Me., and will conduct the same in good style this season, opening June 20th. The house has been thoroughly repaired and nicely refurnished.

☞ Warren and the other stars are to shine forth here again, on Saturday evening. They are a brilliant galaxy, sure enough, and carry a long train of admirers, wherever they go.

☞ The spacious and elegant new Ocean House, at Rye Beach, is to open July 1st, by Job Jenness & Son. A notice of interest to stable men will be seen in another column.

☞ Master Coker, that musical cherub, with his talented company, is to give one more of his superb Concerts in this city, some evening next week, we believe.

☞ The Zouave Troupe and Female Brass Band announce one of their entertainments for next Monday evening.

☞ We wonder whether it is the more impudent or injurious to pull up flowering plants from one lot in the Cemetery, and set them down in another near!

☞ Harper's Monthly for June may be had at Mr. Foster's Bookstore.

☞ Our thanks to Mr. John H. Slater, for a bunch of the largest and finest Pansies we ever saw.

SHOALS.—We are glad to see that the Rev. Geo. Beebe, M. D., has returned alive and well from the brilliant campaign resulting in the capture of Richmond, during which he served as a surgeon. His old parishioners at the Shoals have made a strong effort to induce his return among them, subscribing toward his support more than twice as much as ever before, and almost unanimously petitioning the Venerable Society for Propagating the Gospel, (hitherto mainly sustaining the Mission at the Isles,) to send him there again as their minister, teacher and physician. In their petition they express, as the result of nine years' experience, the utmost confidence in the pastor and his wife, whose united influence has ever been given strongly in favor of moral and social improvement, and of the christian life.

A NEW WEATHER INDICATOR.—Would you like to know for a certainty when a storm is approaching; or when fair weather is coming; if so buy Rocklen & Stack len's barometer. It's beauty, (as commended in many papers,) and the low price, will secure its general use, price with Thermometer attached, $2.50. J. C. RICH, general agent, is in this city offering them for sale.

☞ Rebel vessels of war have disappeared, one after another, many of them having been blown up by the application of explosive materials; but it was left for the Stonewall to close its connection with the Confederacy by a pecuniary burst. It is "deposited," according to the telegraphic phrase, with the Cuban authorities, and probably quite a large sum was obtained upon the vessel, as the officers and men were paid off and put ashore.

☞ In the U. S. General Grierson's raid through Alabama, he passed Greenville, marching about 400 miles, and reaching Montgomery on the 7th inst. He destroyed on the way a large quantity of rebel stores, On the 3d inst. Governor Watt was arrested and reached Montgomery on the 5th.

☞ Gen. Warren, a brave officer, who was under Sheridan, is publishing letters, as well as Gen. Sherman. Gen. Grant has no objection to Gen. W.'s publishing his letters,—nor has the public; but (excepting a few personal or political friends,) the public take no more in the squabbles of Generals (after the war is over) than they do in the personal altercations of newspaper editors.

THE CULPRIT'S APPEARANCE.—A writer on board the steamer that brought the rebel captives, thus describes Jeff. D. and wife. Jeff. Davis, of whom we of the North have heard so much and seen so little for the past four years, is a man about six feet in height, rather lean, and not of the finest figure by any means. I should take him to be somewhat above fifty years of age, prematurely gray. He has full whiskers, rather stunted in growth, and, like his hair, sprinkled with gray. His gray eyes (one of which is blind) have an undefined and unfathomable look; and his mouth, of the Grecian mould, is occasionally jerked out of all proportion by a sepulchral laugh or forced smile. He is confined to his bed a great deal of the time, and it requires all the nursing of his strong nerved wife to keep him from giving way to despondency. He is a pitiful sight, and the last man one would have suppose to be a fit subject for Presidential honors.

Mrs. Davis is the second wife of the ex-President, by whom he has had four children. She is a member of the Howell family, of Georgia, and has a great many relatives at Augusta. She is a woman of probably forty years of age. When I first saw her at Macon, and conversed with her on the cars, I thought her pretty and agreeable; but to look at her now it seems as though twenty years had been heaped upon her head in one short week. Now her pride and vivacity have forsaken her, and truly she is but the wreck of her former self.

☞ President Johnson has respectfully declined the proffered coach and span of horses, tendered by merchants of New York city, for the reason that he has ever held that those occupying official positions should not accept such presents. He asked, however, to be permitted to retain the parchment conveying the sentiments of the donors, regarding it as a mark of high respect from kind friends and loyal citizens.

— At Fortress Monroe, Jeff. Davis and the other captured traitors occupy cells adjacent to each other, and are very carefully guarded by two officers and twenty men of the Third Pennsylvania artillery.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7.3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

The properties of this Company consist of 643 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing interests of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable oil lands the Company possesses. Three engines are already at the wells. Our Agent at Titusville writes us that the well on the McElhany farm was constructed during, which places this Company beyond a doubt of success. The Officers of the Company, in placing this property before the New England public, have full confidence that no properties yet offered are superior, or any out of which larger and more certain dividends may at once be expected. Maps and full information given on application to the Treasurer. Subscriptions received by JOS. W. DAVIS, Banker, 85 State street, and at the OFFICE OF THE COMPANY, No. 47 CONGRESS STREET, BOSTON.

American and Foreign Patents.
E. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity of claims of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that there is MORE SUCCESS DONE AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States, Great Britain, and other foreign countries, enable him, upon application, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All inventors, on a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. EDDY as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. E. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend, all inventors to apply to him to prepare their papers, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber has in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

☞ Says the Saco Democrat, "Had the Democratic party met with no reverses, we should have had no war." To this the Portland Press replies:

True as preaching, but then every mother's son of the party would by this time have worn saddles, and their sides would have been calloused a half inch thick with the spur rowels of the "chivalry." Our Democratic friends may thank their stars that their party machine did get smashed. It was run down by the triumphal car of Liberty and Union, now "one and inseparable."

— At the Northwest this season, every available acre of land, where men or women could be found to prepare the soil, has been seeded, and the crop now looks finely, giving rich promise of an abundant harvest. The return of soldiers to their homes will cheapen labor, and insure a sufficiency of help to gather the crops.

See what the most popular and widely circulated paper says of our Establishment:
From the "Dispatch" of February 25, 1865.
We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the announcement of Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, Watches, etc., and Fancy Goods, in our advertising columns. We are personally acquainted with the members of this firm and know them to be gentlemen of sterling worth and integrity. Their stock of goods, for variety and extent, we have scarcely seen excelled.
From the "Mirror of Fashion," March 1, 1865.
Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great sale of Jewelry, now opened on the 15th inst., we venture to say that no finer display of goods was ever exhibited by any establishment in this city. The ladies thronged that immense atmosphere to suffocation, although the streets were rendered nearly impassable by the melted snow and slush. We predict for them a wonderful success.
From the "Ledger," February 28, 1865.
Our lady friends should visit the extensive establishment of Devaugh & Co., No. 15 Maiden Lane, if they wish to indulge themselves with a sight which they will long remember.—Such a profusion of elegant Watches, Chains, Rings, Earrings, and, in short, of jewelry of every name, kind and description, we never before witnessed. Their silver and plated ware is superb, and almost casts into the shade the other splendid establishments which have long been the boast of our city. It is estimated that their stock is worth not less than one million dollars.

How You Can Get a Prize.

Agents are wanted in the Army and in every place.
We have an immense stock of goods to dispose of, and need a large number of Agents. Our terms to Agents are very liberal and some even of our Lady Agents are making from 50 to 200 a day. We give Agents 50 per cent. on all Certificates they sell provided they remit not less than $1 for eight.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen as will, has been produced.
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most extraordinary testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its chemicals baffle all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this Ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.

Testimonials.
MILBURN AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARK.
MELROSE, MASS., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful ink which you have given us. I have quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good ink, but you neglected to mention it all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter longer with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used I would not be without. I remain yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and thaw would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent receipt, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and I get a quantity of it. I would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servt.
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The Ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moore's Mayson's, Noyes', D. J. Rideout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

SATURDAY, MAY 27, 1865.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Official intelligence has been received of the surrender of the Stonewall to the Spanish authorities at Havana.

President Johnson on Thursday removed his business office from the Treasury Department to the Executive Mansion, which was for the first time since President Lincoln's death, thrown open to visitors.

Sec. Seward, supported by two servants and accompanied by his daughter, visited the President on Thursday morning, the latter giving him an audience in the blue room below stairs.

THE TRIAL of the conspirators was resumed at Washington Thursday morning. The defence have reduced the number of their witnesses to about seventy. The evidence related to the inhuman treatment of Northern prisoners in Southern prisons. The counsel for the prisoners are putting in their witnesses for the defence.

FROM THE SOUTH.—The New Orleans Times says 8000 rebels are now at Mobile being paroled,—among them Dick Taylor and other prominent generals. Cotton is not allowed to come in, as the government cotton is to be disposed of first. The amount surrendered was 16,500 bales; but it is largely scattered and mainly in bad order. That now in the city is being prepared for shipment North.

It is reported that Kirby Smith intends marching across the Rio Grande to tender his services to Maximilian, and that this movement will be prevented.

All the cavalry in the Western Departments are to be immediately mustered at Cairo for active Texan service.

THE REBEL GEN. KIRBY SMITH.—The New Orleans Times of the 20th, is informed that Kirby Smith has not been assassinated. Mrs. Kirby Smith is reported to have arrived at the mouth of the Red river, and represents the position of her husband as extremely critical, as one party threatens to assassinate him if he surrenders, and another threatens to forsake him if he continues the struggle.

The Times also learns that the rebel Gen. Hood and staff crossed the Mississippi river at Turkey bend. About 70 men of an expedition sent in pursuit, captured their baggage and the General's uniform at Sommesport, Hood escaping in the night.

A Cairo dispatch of May 25, says Mrs. General Buckner had arrived there from the mouth of Red river, and Mrs. Kirby Smith had come up to Memphis.

Colonel Sprague and Major Bundy, of Gen. Pope's staff, who went to Shreveport to arrange for the surrender of Kirby Smith's army, have arrived at Cairo, en route for St. Louis.

Two thousand two hundred bales of cotton passed Cairo for Louisville and Cincinnati. A Little Rock (Ark.) correspondent writes that the rebel Kirby Smith is the partner of a great number of cotton speculators, all of whom are busy day and night in transporting it to the Mississippi river at various points, and selling it. Steamers are navigating the Red river, with his safe guards, to get it out for New Orleans and Memphis. It also comes to the Arkansas river and the Mississippi. His shipping from Galveston has been immense. An intercepted letter from Matamoras acknowledges the receipt there from him of 150,000 bales within the last thirty months. The agent says over half of it has been credited to him and the balance to the Confederacy. Kirby Smith to-day,—the letter says,—is, no doubt, the richest man in America. He had better be off before Gen. Phil. Sheridan overhauls him.

NEGRO TROOPS FOR TEXAS.—The negro corps at Richmond, under Gen. Weitzel, has received marching orders, and the men are beginning to put on the war paint, with the impression that they are going to Texas. It is said they look forward to the period of their embarkation with satisfaction.

A WHOLE CLOTH LIE.—A Cairo dispatch of May 25, says Gen. Washburn of the U. S. army states that the reports from Memphis giving an account of a plot among the negro troops there to massacre paroled rebel soldiers, are false in every particular! Will somebody please tell who coined the lie?

☞ Perley telegraphs from Washington that the indictment of Jeff. Davis and John C. Breckinridge for treason, in invading the district last summer, was presented Friday morning,—and that the government has additional testimony implicating Jeff. in the conspiracy.

The assassin of the Sewards is positively identified, and was probably detached from the rebel army for the purpose.

GOLD, Friday, in New York, 138 to 136 1-2. Steamer Europe took $264,000 for Havre.

THE UNIONISM OF VICE PRESIDENT STEPHENS.—There is a disposition manifested just now to "write up" the rebel Vice President into a place in the popular estimation to which he has very little claim. At any rate, it will do no harm to call to mind the language of Mr. Stephens, in the United States House of Representatives, on the passage of the odious Nebraska bill, as a specimen of the firebrands that ten years ago were scattered by such "Union" foxes as the captive Vice President:

"Well, gentlemen, you make a good deal of clamor on the Nebraska measure, but it don't alarm us at all. We have got used to that kind of talk. You have threatened before, but have never performed. You have always caved in, and you will again. You are a mouthing, white-livered set. Of course you will oppose: we expect that; but we don't care for your opposition. You will rail, but we don't care for your railing. You will hiss, but so will adders. We expect it of adders, and we expect it of you. You are like the devils that were pitched over the battlements of heaven into hell. They set up a howl of discomfiture, and so will you. But their fate was sealed, and so is yours. You must submit to the yoke; but don't chafe. Gentlemen, we have got you in our power. You tried to drive us to the wall in 1850, but times are changed. * * * * * You went a wooling, and have come home fleeced. Don't be so impudent as to complain. You will only be slapped in the face. Don't resist. You will only be lashed into obedience."

Perhaps some reader may recollect that a distinguished politician, in Congress, only a very few years ago, when some Northern member complained of an aggression by the slave power, said, in the most insulting tone, "We will subdue you!"

☞ A steamer from Fortress Monroe left on Thursday morning for Savannah under sealed orders. Mrs. Davis, her four children, brother and sister, and Mrs. Clay, go to Savannah, in the Clyde, as permission to proceed North was refused them by the War Department. A guard was sent out to the Clyde, and searched the steamer and all the baggage and effects of the rebel party remaining on board. A large amount of gold and valuable jewelry, &c., was found in the baggage of the ladies, but with the exception of several important documents found, everything was left unmolested. Jeff. Davis' shawl and skirts were presented to the War Department by Col. Pritchard. They were worn over a suit of drab clothes.

☞ A Toronto, Canada, dispatch of May 25, says in the case of Blackburn of yellow fever notoriety, the Magistrate to-day said that owing to the uncertainity of the English law required in such cases of conspiracy, he should not assume the responsibility of deciding the case, but would send the prisoner before the Judges at the next assizes. Bail was accepted in the mean time to the amount of $8000.

☞ Maximilian's Mexican Throne does not seem to be well established. The Republicans are troublesome, and their army is increasing.

— The Hartford Post says that a gentleman of that city has five nephews in the army, who have served out a three years' enlistment, and promised them $5,000 each if they would re-enlist, which all of them did. Three of them are in Sherman's army and will be home within a few days, and he is prepared to pay down $15,000 to them, and $10,000 to the other two whose terms of service will expire this fall.

— Two pugilists—Tessot and Domein—lately fought at Ripley, Canada, for $5000 a side. They fought six hours the first day, and Tessot got the best of it. Domein wasn't satisfied, and so they went at it again the next day, and after 28 rounds Tessot won the purse. The exertions of Domein caused him to burst a blood vessel, and he died.

— Advices from Matamoras, Mexico, 4th, say the Imperialists still held the place. It was believed that the Liberals were withdrawing.

— It is said information of Breckenridge's whereabouts have been received, and effective pursuit ordered.

One day, just as an English officer had arrived at Vienna, the Empress, knowing that he had seen a certain princes much celebrated for her beauty, asked him, if it were really true that she was the most beautiful woman he had ever seen? "I thought so yesterday," he replied.

The British Tea Tax of 1773—Preamble and Resolutions against it in Portsmouth.

The British Parliament repealed the duties on articles imported into America, excepting on tea. To avoid that imposition the colonies very generally agreed, not to import or use any tea, while it was subject to the duty. To obviate this difficulty the duty was taken off, and the East India Company was permitted to ship teas to America on their own account, for which they were to pay a duty of three pence per pound on its being landed here. Under this regulation, teas would be cheaper than they formerly were, which circumstance it was thought, would effect throughout the country, an acquiescence in the measures of government. The design of the ministry to raise a revenue in the colonies without their consent, was apparent. The objection was to the principle, not the amount of the tax, and the opposition to it was general. Almost every trading town on the seacoast passed resolutions to prevent the landing of any tea, shipped to this country by the East India Company. The town of Portsmouth partook of the same spirit; and at a public meeting held the 16th day o December, 1773, adopted the following preamble and resolves.

"Upon a serious consideration of the late act of Parliament, subjecting the colonies to pay a duty upon teas in America, and more especially the act of Parliament, passed at their last session, whereby the East India Company have full power to export their teas to the colonies, liable to a duty upon being landed here, it appears manifestly that the latter (act) was artfully designed by the ministry to carry more effectually into execution the former, which was made for the express purpose of raising a revenue from the colonies by the authority of the British Parliament only, without our consent. Wherefore, from a due sense of the value and importance of our liberties and properties, and from just apprehensions of the horrors of slavery, we are induced to make the following resolves.

First—That the measures of late pursued by the ministry of Great Britain in their attempt to subject the colonies to taxation by the sole authority of the British Parliament, are not only unjust, arbitrary, and inconsistent with the fundamental principles of the British constitution, but directly tend to hasten on the destruction of an empire, which by preserving in all its parts those original rights which first gave rise to its present glory, might increase in wealth and power, become the envy of all nations, and continue in full strength and grandeur for ages to come; therefore, in the foregoing view, we cannot but think ourselves bound by our duty to the King, and love to the nation of which we are members, to oppose such measures to the utmost of our power.

Secondly—That it is the natural right of men born and inheriting estates in any part of the British dominions, to have the power of disposing of their own property, either by themselves or the representatives.

Thirdly—That the act of the British Parliament, laying a duty upon teas landed in America, payable here, is a tax, whereby the property of Americans is taken from them without their consent.

Fourthly—That notwithstanding the preamble to the act laying a duty upon teas, asserts that the act is made for the su pport of government, the administration of Justice, &c., in America, yet this is not only unnecessary, but has a direct tendency to subvert our constitution, render our assemblies useless, and the government arbitrary.

Fifthly—That every virtuous and public spirited free man ought steadily to oppose to the utmost of his ability, every artful attack of the ministry to enslave the Americans.

Sixthly—That the power given by Parliament to the East India Company, to send out their teas to the colonies, subjected to the payment of duties on being landed here, is a plain attempt to enforce the ministerial plan, and a direct attack upon the liberties of America, and that it is the indispensable duty of all true hearted Americans, to render this effect abortive.

Seventhly—That a union of all the colonies appears to be the most likely method, under God, of obtaining a repeal of all those acts, which are so subversive of the freedom of British colonies, and destructive to the whole nation.

Eighthly—That in case any of the Company's teas should be brought into this port for sale, we will use every necessary method to prevent its being landed or sold here.

Ninthly—That whoever shall directly or indirectly promote or in any ways aid and assist in the importation of any of the East-India Company's teas, or any teas subject to payment of a duty here by an act of the British Parliament, shall be deemed an enemy to America.

Tenthly—That this town do hereby return their thanks, to all their brethren in the several governments, upon this continent, for their noble exertions upon this important and alarming occasion.

Eleventhly—That the proceedings of this meeting be published, and sent to every considerable town in this government; and that a committee be chosen to correspond with them, and with the several committees in other governments."

A committee of correspondence, consisting of several respectable inhabitants, was chosen for the above purpose.

REVERDY JOHNSON'S OPINION.—We have before us the Baltimore Sun of Nov. 7, 1864, containing a letter of R. D., with the above head. Here is an extract:

I firmly believe that all that is dear to us is involved in the present contest—that if Mr. Lincoln is re-elected, the country, in all probability, will be lost—that if McClellan is elected, in all probability it will be saved.

This opinion has been set aside by the logic of events. He goes on to say:

And for his election everything promises well. The soldier's vote is known to have been cast largely in his favor.

Everything did not keep its promise—and the soldiers' vote was cast much more largely against him.

TAKE CARE.—A dreadful accident took place, Saturday night, on the Washington and Philadelphia road. A soldier had stretched himself upon a seat, and finding himself cramped for room, put his feet out of the window, when a passing train took off both legs about four inches below the knees.

Mr. Jason Pittsley, a brakeman, was killed on Monday morning as the train was passing Assonet, Mass. He was sitting on the top of the car with his feet hanging over the side, when they struck the edge of the depot projecting over the track, and he was thrown to the ground; when taken up he was dead.

A FRIEND of mine has a wife who inflicts upon him every season two or three immense evening parties. At one of those parties he was standing in a very forlorn condition, leaning against the chimney-piece, when a gentleman coming up to him, said, "Sir, as neither of us are acquainted here, I think we had better go home."

POLICE COURT, May 26.—The majority of the inhabitants of this vale of tears are spending their lives in pursuit of happiness, and the method they employ to reach it depends very much on their ideas of what constitute unalloyed bliss. Some are evidently impressed that a good square pugilistic encounter with an enemy against whom a deadly feud has existed for months and perhaps years—having a basket near by in which to gather the eyes that are gouged out in the melee—approximates as closely to heaven as it can and miss it. Others conclude that to be transported to ecstatic bliss, they must punish their throats and endanger the mucous lining of their stomachs by pouring down a sufficient quantity of r. g. whiskey to consummate this end. And this brings us to the subject matter of our article, which is, that Wm. Brodney was arraigned for indulging his appetite for liquor, and fined $3, and costs $3.86.

☞ Look out for the Warren Combination, at the Temple to-night, Saturday. Fun alive, to be sure,—and no discount on that. See their bill and cast in the advertisement.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Amos Copp of Loudon, N. H., has had four sons and four sons-in-law in the war. One son and three sons-in-law were killed; and two of his sons were wounded, one so badly as to be permanently a cripple.

—— The oldest graduate of Harvard College, the venerable and eminent physician Dr. Matthias Spalding, of Amherst, N. H., died on Monday, aged 96 years. He was born at Chelmsford, Mass., June 27th, 1769, and graduated at Cambridge University in 1798—of which class there are now only two survivors.

— Mrs. Warren Porter of Greenfield, who fell asleep last October and remained unconscious for eighteen weeks, then woke up for three days, and took another nap of five days' duration, has since that time been gradually recovering and is able to ride out. — Henry Heuemann of Boston, who made a vow that if Gen. Lee surrendered or was captured he would walk from that city to Washington, has accomplished his singular pilgrimage. He arrived at the national capital on Sunday last, having made the distance in 25 days.

— On the same day that the old flag was raised over the ruins of Fort Sumter, the negroes on Jeff. Davis' plantation in Mississippi raised a flag over the mansion of the arch-rebel. The occasion was one of great enthusiasm.

Communication.

GEN. SHERMAN.—Among all our military generals, during the war, no one acquired a higher fame and popular applause. Even in Europe, his signal success was spoken of in very flattering terms. We sincerely hope that it shall not hereafter be truly said of him—

"But one false step forever blasts thy fame."

We refer to the disgraceful terms he agreed to upon the surrender of Gen. Johnston's army. Can it be said he did not understand the meaning of that agreement, written out in plain English? Did he not well know that should the Government ratify the agreement, the Southern planters would insist upon holding slaves as "their property?" And how singular that he should agree that the rebels should deposit their arms in their respective State capitals?—where they might again be used, perhaps, before the rebellion would be completely subdued. Under all the circumstances, it devolves upon Gen. S. to exculpate himself from the charges which his army and the loyal people have made, or at least make such explanation of his conduct as will be satisfactory to the Northern people. It will not answer for him to accuse other Generals and the Secretary of War of being "assassins" of his character! He must first vindicate his own conduct, as we hope he will, or at least attempt to do so. If in this he should fail, he must suffer the consequences.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a					$50 note.
Two cents	"	"	"	"	$100 "
Ten	"	"	"	"	$500 "
20	"	"	"	"	$1000 "
$1	"	"	"	"	$5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7.3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

THE THIRD SERIES OF SEVEN-THIRTIES.

The great success of the 7.30 Loan must always be looked upon as one of the most powerful evidences of the strength of the United States Government, and of its strong hold upon the confidence and affections of the people. On Saturday, May 13th, the subscriptions were over thirty million dollars, and for the week ending on that day over ninety eight million dollars, and in the three months that the Loan has been in charge of Mr. JAY COOKE, over five hundred million dollars. These large receipts will enable the Treasury to pay off our armies as they are disbanded, and to rapidly discharge the various obligations that have been incurred during the war. History will show that a great war-debt to individuals has never before been so promptly paid; and we think all will agree that Secretary McCulloch deserves great credit for the ability he has manifested, not only in securing the means, but for the financial skill he has displayed in so directing these vast receipts and disbursements as not for a moment to disturb the equilibrium of commerce, embarrass individuals, or in any way tighten the money market. It is doubtless true that the Secretary of the Treasury might have negotiated the remainder of his loans at six per cent. interest instead of 7.30, but so much valuable time would necessarily have been lost in popularizing a new loan that the great object of the Government, viz., an immediate supply of money sufficient to pay all the debts incident to the war, would have been defeated; and besides, the difference of interest would not have been equal to three days' expenses. The policy may have looked "penny wise," but the best financial authorities, as well as common sense, pronounced it "pound foolish." As it is—and will be, no soldier will go home without his greenbacks, and the floating debt in the shape of vouchers, requisitions, &c., will be wiped out as rapidly as the proper officers can audit and adjust the accounts.

The Second Series of the 7.30 Loan was exhausted on Saturday, May 13th. On Monday the Secretary of the Treasury authorized JAY COOKE, the general Subscription Agent for U.S. Securities, to receive subscriptions for $230,000,000 of a Third Series, which is all that is authorized by Congress, and is without doubt the last loan at this high rate of interest that will be offered by the Government.

There is no change in terms or conditions of this Third Series, except that the Government reserves the right of paying interest at six per cent. in gold instead of seven and three tenths in currency—a right which would pre-suppose a return to specie payments, and make six per cent. in gold even better than the higher rate in currency—a consummation most devoutly to be wished.

The privilege of converting the notes into 5.20 six per cent. gold bonds at the end of three years or receiving payment at maturity, at the holder's option, is retained.

The first day of the Third Series opened with a subscription within a fraction of five millions, and the month of June will certainly see the lot of the 7.30s out of market. How early in June we cannot predict, but parties who wish to make sure of a portion would do well to be in time.

Full particulars may be found in our advertising columns.

From the Portsmouth Journal.

MECHANIC ASSOCIATION.—Agreeably to the vote of the Association at the last Quarterly meeting, the Board of Trustees have desired the President to call a special meeting of the Association to act on the proposition to open a public Reading Room, &c., for the members and others; and it is probable the meeting will be held at the Hall in Gray's Block, on Tuesday evening next—this being the room designed to be occupied by the Association for the purpose stated and for all meetings of the body. All the members seem to favor the new Reading Room, and it will probably be established immediately, as it should have been long since.

MASTER COKER'S CONCERT.—A highly appreciative audience listened to the superb entertainment at the Temple last Friday evening, and were delighted—especially with the singing of young Master Coker, a bright, pretty little fellow, who prepossessed every one in his favor, and sang a sweet and pure soprano, with not a single false tone, expression or gesture to mar the effect. Master Ellard also sustained his part of the performance with much ability, and was greatly admired. The performance on the violoncello by Mr. Mollenhauer was excellent. And the pianist M. Lasserve, is a master of his instrument. The fine tenor voice of Mr. Weeks was well appreciated. We are pleased to have an intimation that they are soon to make another visit to Portsmouth.

VANDALISM.—We regret to learn that some evil minded person or persons have within six months girdled and injured no less than sixteen of those handsome Maple and Ash trees which Samuel Langdon, Esq., has taken pains to place out on Lafayette road, for the benefit of every one who travels there. These trees have been growing there for about seven years, and were a public ornament. Any person detected in so despicable business, should be made a public example.

FIRST OF JUNE AT CONCORD.

To enable those persons who may be desirous of visiting the State Capital on the first of June, to participate in the appropriate ceremonies to be observed on that day, in honor of the memory of ABRAHAM LINCOLN, late Chief Magistrate of the United States, the following liberal rates of fare to and from Concord, have been agreed upon by all Railroads in the State, (excepting the Boston and Maine,) viz;

State Militia Organizations, Bands, and Discharged Soldiers, (upon showing their discharge papers) FREE. Members of all other organizations and citizens generally, HALF FARE.

By order of His Excellency the Governor:

NATH'L HEAD, Adjutant General.

Strong measures are in progress to do away the divisions of Churches in the several denominations, occasioned by the slave question several years ago. The Unitarians, for instance, had churches in Charleston, Mobile, New Orleans, Savannah, Richmond, &c., but were broken up, as it was not allowable to touch the question of slavery, and none of their preachers would go South thus fettered.

The $100,000 fund has peculiar reference to missionary movements South and West.

BACK AGAIN.—A large lot of machinery, which was stolen from Harpers' ferry, and used in the Richmond armory, has arrived at Washington. The machinery was all packed in cases, directed to North Carolina, but in the hurry of leaving Richmond, was left.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS.—The June number of this Magazine is as attractive as its predecessors, containing a profusion of capital illustrations, and as good reading matter as Mrs. Stowe, Gail Hamilton, Trowbridge, Edmund Kirke, and others equally skillful, can furnish. Published by Ticknor and Fields.

The properties of this Company consist of 643 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so as to take the great producing interests of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable oil lands the Company possesses. Three engines are already at the wells. Our Agent at Titusville writes us that the well on the McElhany farm has commenced flowing, which places this Company beyond a doubt of success. The Officers of this Company, in placing this property before the New England public, have full confidence that the interest yet offered are superior, or any out of which larger and more certain dividends may at once be expected. THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in the city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings
to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Land and paying wells, was known to some of the gentlemen prominent in starting this company as a man strictly honest, cautious, and experienced in the Petroleum regions, and was solicited to aid in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 21 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel E. Lancaster, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the farms selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Alleghany river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty six million of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Harris, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a skilled business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of Lands and make further examinations. They came in the same conscious the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The top of the hill is thoroughly for Oil; though lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a thick undeveloped Coal vein on one side, and a deep vein of Iron Ore valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which innumerable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Wood well flowed 4000 barrels per day—the Fountain 200—the Parker 100—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel will sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the Zilla below Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $13 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, burning freely as Cannel.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $60 to bore a well to the depth of 700 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $20 per day to work it after it yields oil. The Hon. G. P. Ball, of the Steele & Wood Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more full and perfect character than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting Oil Territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investment.—Professors MAYNARD and SHEPHERD, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands in generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Bates of Mr. Harris, it will have paying wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is abundant room on each acre for 18 wells, and on this farm for over 500 wells. Just multiply the putation of the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as those south of Titusville, and yield the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and your income from this Farm alone is over one million of dollars! I have spoken in my examining and selecting Oil Territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investment.—Professors MAYNARD and SHEPHERD, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands in generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Bates of Mr. Harris, it will have paying wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is abundant room on each acre for 18 wells, and on this farm for over 500 wells. Just multiply the putation of the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as those south of Titusville, and yield the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and your income from this Farm alone is over one million of dollars! I have spoken in my not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the mouth of Cherry Creek, one mile east of the Coquet Well that flows 700 barrels daily, the Jersey that flows 300, the Maple Shade and other noted flowing and pumping wells within half mile of it. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on Pit Hole Creek, the Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with its sucker rod in, and its pipe seven-eights full of machine-ry, it has flowed 250 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they have now will hold 3,200 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another line well has been struck, and above it a spouting well, which flows so much, low enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that looks promising. Better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In sight of the spouting wells, and between the Frazer and the one which has yielded so high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod fit for a well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in good rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, each down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On West Pit Hole, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk, and bored to feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

See what the most popular and widely circulated periodicals say of our Establishment:
From the "Saturday Evening Post," March 4, 1865.
We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the announcement of Messrs. Devaugh & Co., Gift Book Sale of Watches, Silver Ware, and Fancy Goods, in our advertising columns. We are personally acquainted with the members of this firm, and believe them to be gentlemen of sterling worth and integrity. Their stock of goods, for variety and extent, we have scarcely seen paralleled.
From the "Mirror of Fashion," March 1, 1865.
Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, etc., opened on the 15th inst., and we venture to say that no finer display of goods was ever exhibited by any establishment in this city. The ladies thronged their beautiful rooms to suffocation, although the streets were rendered so impassable by the melted snow and slush. We predict for them a successful season.
From the "Ledger," February 28, 1865.
Our lady friends should visit the extensive establishment of Messrs. Devaugh & Co., No. 15 Maiden Lane, if they wish to indulge themselves with a sight which they will long remember.—Such a profusion of elegant Watches, Chains, Rings, Earrings, and, in short, of Jewelry of every name, kind and description, we never before witnessed. Their silver and plated ware is superb, and almost castes into the shade the other splendid establishments which have long been the boast of our city. It is estimated that their stock is worth not less than one million dollars.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to make Two Quarts of Ink.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of the Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my friends of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made Ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppo Galls, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gets the good praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. There is no sediment. Some in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without. I remain yours, GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had I a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient serv't,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 4, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It flows perfectly over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have a use for good ink. It is the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moor's Maynard & Noyes', D. J. Rideout's, and many others, but yours is equal to any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

MONDAY, MAY 29, 1865.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—It is said that discoveries have been made in captured rebel documents implicating prominent Northern men, whose loyalty heretofore has not been questioned.

The N. Y. Herald's Washington dispatch says a true bill of indictment has been found against Jefferson Davis by the Grand Jury of Washington, and it is said that as soon as the attendance of witnesses for the prosecution can be procured he will be tried.

Richmond correspondence says Seddon, the rebel Secretary of War, has been arrested and is imprisoned on a gunboat with Hunter and Campbell. It was believed that Lee also would soon be in custody.

Davis sits alone in his cell, save the two guards, who are not permitted to address him on any subject whatever, and is given no lights.

The Boston Post's dispatch of May 26, says, although Jeff. Davis has been indicted here, it is thought doubtful if his trial follows. It is believed that it will take place in Baltimore, the Chief Justice presiding.—In order to all ow Gen. Sherman to have a hearing, his official report as presented to the Committee on the Conduct of the War will be permitted publicity in a few days.—John Ford, of Ford's Theatre, was unconditionally released from the Old Capitol Friday.—Fred Seward is worse.

Gen. Sherman expects to leave for the West in a few days. He will lead his soldiers to their homes. He retains, through Gen. Grant, command of the Department of Mississippi, and will at once resume his duties until the civil authority is restored.

Gev. Pierpont has gone to Richmond, and a State election has occurred in Virginia.

The election for members of Virginia House of Delegates, as far as returns are received, shows that the disunionists have swept the State.

The Boston Transcript's special dispatch of Saturday says General Sherman's report of his arrangement with Johnston, which he accuses the Secretary of War of suppressing, has never been received by the Adjutant General or the Secretary of War. It was made to Lieut. Gen. Grant—was in his hands as late as Thursday noon, and doubtless remains there still. Not a line which Gen. Sherman has ever sent to the War Department has been suppressed.

The Tribune's Washington despatch says the Attorney-General has decided that the amnesty proclamation becomes void by the suppression of the rebellion; that the decrees of confiscation are in full force and that the exercise of Executive clemency can not be extended to the future.

☞ At the Conspirator's Trial in Washington on Friday, Harry Finnegas, of Boston, stated that he was in Montreal last October and overheard a remark made there by Sanders and Cleary, that "if the boys had luck, Lincoln will not trouble us much longer, for Booth was bossing the job."

An exchanged Union prisoner named Sweeny testified that he was at Andersonville, in the stockade there, and heard Howell Cobb remark that all of the prisoners would be dead ere the Summer was over, and that if he (Cobb) could catch Lincoln he would hang him.

Other witnesses confirm rebel declarations that the enemy's policy was to starve our prisoners.

By Telegraph—Sunday noon.

War Department, Washington, May 27.
To Maj. Gen. Dix:—A dispatch from Gen. Canby dated at New Orleans 26th inst. states that arrangements for the surrender of the rebel forces in the trans-Mississippi department have been concluded. They include the men and materials of the army and navy. Signed, E. M. Stanton, Sec. of War.

Washington, May 27.—The following order has just been issued from the War Department, that in all cases of sentences by military tribunals of imprisonment during the war, the sentence be remitted and that the prisoners be discharged. The Adj't General will issue immediately the necessary instructions to carry this order into effect. By order of the President. Signed, E. M. Stanton.

New York, May 27.—The Post's special Washington dispatch says that the U. S. District Attorney notified the proper authorities that the Circuit Court is ready to proceed with the trial of Jeff. Davis.

Gold 136 7-8.

☞ Gen. Wilson has issued a notification at Macon, Ga., under instructions from the President, that neither the Legislature nor any other political body in Georgia will be permitted to assemble under the call of the rebel State authorities. [This is the true ground; and it will be taken, we presume, in regard to all the States that have had bogus governments.]

GOLD, at New York, 136 1-4 to 136.—Steamers for Europe that day took out $1,854,823. The sales in Boston were not

AMERICAN MANUFACTURERS — The American Watch Co.—Our readers, we are sure, are not generally aware of the great impetus that has been given to manufactures since the beginning of the war. The high rates of exchange, and the necessities of the army, have made the Eastern hills and valleys resound with the hum of busy machinery, and nowhere has machinery done more or created a greater revolution in production and trade than in the manufacture of the watch. What was once the toilsome, slow and uncertain result of hand labor only, is now the swift demonstration of unvarying mechanical forces.

The same class of genius that invented the sewing machine and the telegraph invented the delicate and wonderful mechanism that takes hold of the raw material—the brass and steel, and gold, and precious stones, and under competent direction turns out that daily wonder—a perfect time-keeper. That genius is essentially American, and has been found, collected, assimilated and made productive by the American Watch Co., at Waltham Mass.

Taking the best fruits of several years experiments, they established their factory nearly ten years ago, which they have been obliged to enlarge from year to year until now they employ 700 workmen, and turn out a product valued at a million and a half of dollars per annum— or equal to that of all other watches now sold in this country. The secret of this company's success is that they have done what they promised — that they have actually furnished a first-rate substantial watch at a moderate price— and this is the great difference between their watches and the ordinary importations from Europe,

Except certain very high-priced varieties, the European watch is the result of cheap and unskilled hand labor, that never goes well, and in a short time "costs more than it comes to" in repairs. The American Watch Co. give a guarantee for the quality of all their productions, that is good with any dealer who sells them.—Exchange.

CHURCH DIFFICULTY IN SALEM.—We learn from the Salem Gazette that, on Sunday, May 21, when the rector of St. Peter's Church in Salem, Rev. Mr. Pickman, entered the vestry and proceeded to array himself in his robes of office, the senior warden protested against his appearing to conduct the service and against his claims to be rector, stating, also, that arrangements had been made for a lay service on that day. Mr. Pickman replied that, as the hour for service had arrived, there was no time to discuss the subject. He then proceeded to the vestry door in order to enter the church, but was prevented by the vestrymen being seated in their chairs in front of it. Having requested a passage and been refused, he placed his hand upon the shoulder of one of them as if to remove the obstruction to his entrance, but was met by the necessary degree of resistance to prevent the accomplishment of the purpose. The rector then declared that he was prevented from discharging his duties by brute force, to which the reply was made that it was he who was attempting to enter by brute force. He then disrobed himself, and requested permission to pass out into the church, which was granted. Proceeding to the chancel steps, with his robes on his arm, he announced that he had been prevented, by force, from officiating that day, and informed the congregation that a meeting would be held at his father's house, whereupon, with his robes upon his arm, he left the church for the place indicated, followed by a portion of the congregation.

The Boston Transcript explains, that the rector had "become unpopular with his flock; that they requested the Bishop to advise the rector to resign; and that the Bishop did not comply. Then that the parish voted the rector a salary of $12 only for the coming year; and finally that the quarrel is not edifying to the public."

FROM TEXAS.—The New Orleans Picayune of May 21, has reliable information from the trans-Mississippi Department, that Col. Sprague's conference with Kirby Smith resulted in nothing, in consequence of a want of harmony in the rebel councils. Smith was disposed to surrender, but the Missouri Generals, Parsons and Shelby, demanded an amnesty for themselves, which was not offered in the President's proclamation. Col. Sprague returned, accompanied by a Missouri Colonel, who goes with him to Washington to confer with the authorities. If Generals are not included in the amnesty they propose joining Maximilian. The troops are deserting in great numbers and going home, and the people are generally despondent. Cotton can be bought very low for gold. Several boats loaded with cotton are ready to come out of Red river as soon as they are permitted to do so. Another flag of truce boat was expected to come down on the 25th. The country is overflowed from Alexandria to the mouth of Red river.

The steamship Clinton, from Brazos 16th, brings confirmation of the fight at Boro Del Chicopass between the United States forces under Col. Barrett and the rebels under General Slaughter, in which the enemy were driven 20 miles towards Brownsville, where the enemy were reinforced and Barrett retreated, fighting, and reached Brazos with a loss of 72 killed, wounded and missing, including Capt. Temple and Lieut. Sedgwick, of the 34th Indiana, captured. Slaughter's official report magnifies our force and claims a big victory. He admits a loss of 40 killed.

[Communication.]

SHALL THE FREEDMEN VOTE?

This question is being discussed in some of the public journals. It has long since been correctly settled in many of our free States, where all citizens, irrespective of color, exercise the right of suffrage, and are taxed for their property. But in the late slave States, persons of African descent have not been allowed to exercise any right. They were "not citizens," according to Chief Justice Taney's infamous decision, if the mother was of African descent. We believe that God did not create the vast African Continent for the purpose of making slaves of her native population, nor Asia for a similar purpose, although in the southern parts of it a large portion of the natives have a sable complexion. The learned Brahmins are of a dark brown complexion, and the Siamese (who would be allowed to vote here) are as black as any of the Africans, although the latter are of various complexions. There is no white native race, in the hot equatorial regions of around this earth. The truth is, whether believed or not, that all coloring matter in the vegetable and animal kingdoms is derived from the solar rays, of which there are but seven primary colors. By denying the unity of the human family, or our common origin, we reject the truth of Divine revelation.

Therefore it seems to us to be an absurd position that the color of the skin has any bearing upon the "natural and inalienable rights of men," or that it should be used as a pretext to deprive them of the right of suffrage. But it is said by some that the sable complexion renders the mental faculties less susceptible of improvement than those of the fair complexion. This idea is refuted by ancient as well as modern history, and those who adopt the idea evince their own ignorance. The complexion makes no difference at all in that respect. Some of the most learned men who ever lived were of dark complexion,—and we shall soon find many in our Republic, should they be allowed the means of mental culture. Although only a quarter of a century has elapsed since about eight hundred thousand slaves were set free in the British West India Islands, it is a fact not to be denied, that now the colored people there enjoy equal rights, sit in the legislative halls, and on the Judicial Bench, thus proving that by freedom and mental culture they stand upon an equality.

Now that the rebellion is crushed out, there will be an attempt in some of the recent slave States to deprive the freemen (many of whom have fought like heroes, and been of vast aid on the side of freedom,) of the right of suffrage. We have entire entire confidence that our Congress will admit no State into the Union that will not first establish a truly republican form of government, giving to all men, irrespective of color, equal rights and privileges, and for this valid reason: Should the freedmen be disfranchised, another imperious oligarchy would probably arise, with a view to re-establish, in some degree at least, "the framework of Southern Society." They would again control the public mind, and elect to office, State and National, those who would strive to enact such laws as would restore gradually the old order of things. Consider, too, that the slave States had an area about one third larger than the free States, and that soon they will have a great influx of population of all kinds from all other nations. Our safety consists in letting the freedmen hold the balance of power to prevent aristocrats from being elected to office. Upon this point the negro may safely be trusted at the ballot box. He would be certain to vote in favor of freedom and equal rights—surely so when allowed the means of education. But it is said that he has not now sufficient intelligence to vote. This objection has some weight at present, although he would act under the influence of his more enlightened friends, as we do at the North. But if that be a valid objection, it would be equally valid against the right to vote of at least three-fourths of the white citizens without mental culture, who do not rise above the colored population in respect to intelligence. Such has been the appalling "framework of Southern Society," of which southern statesmen in Congress formerly boasted. That framework must now be broken to pieces, never to be repaired. There must be a reorganization, a regeneration, a reconstruction, in order to promote the welfare and prosperity of the whole people, and to give perpetuity to our dear bought, glorious institutions. PRO PATRIA.

☞ A successful expedition has been made up the Roanoke river, N. C., by the Lasco, Valley City and picket boat No. 5, under command of Lieut. Com. Thornton, as far as the rebel naval station at Halifax, and succeeded in capturing the steamers Cotton Plant, Fisher and Dolly, and the engines of Cushing's torpedo boat and other craft, with cargoes. The Roanoke is cleared of obstructions, and a number of guns sunk by the rebels have been raised. A quantity of Confederate cotton is stored away along the banks of the river and will be captured. The rebel naval station at Halifax was taken possession of by our forces and will be held until further orders.

A FEW REASONS WHY THE
AMERICAN WATCH
IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "ancres," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be.

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Elery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH (named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

☞ Save your Rags and old Papers! Every family can supply themselves with a good newspaper from the proceeds of such savings. Mr. URIAH BLAISDELL advertises to buy them.

Local.

☞ That wonderfully versatile troupe, the Carter Zouaves, appear at the Temple this evening. They have been seen and appreciated by too many of our citizens to require an extended notice, as the mere notice that they are to perform usually ensures them a good house.

☞ Since publishing our item in regard to the appointment of custodians to preserve inviolate the sanctity of the South Burying Ground, we have heard quite a number of the proprietors express themselves willing to pay an assessment to meet the expense of such an object. Who will take hold of the matter, and see that it goes into operation at once? The season is rapidly approaching when the trespasses there are the most heinous.

VANDALISM.—We notice one of the young elms, rooted with so much care by our late townsman Henry L. Richards, sadly bruised by the collision of some recklessly (mis)guided team, and another in a dying condition from being wantonly chopped or hacked quite around its circumference. The person who should be guilty of such an outrage deserves the severest punishment our criminal code permits. Let our public protect the shade trees on its only Avenue, at all hazards.

POLICE COURT, May 27.—Both sexes of the human species were represented in the dock of the Portsmouth Police Court on Saturday morning, in the persons of Jesse Rowe and Emeline Brooks, the former for an assault on the latter, and the latter alias Emeline for getting drunk, and thus outraging the former's sense of propriety.—[Mem.—J. R. is a believer in the theory of "women's rights," but don't think they ought to get drunk, and thus encroach upon the rights (?) of the sons of Adam.] Jesse is one of those self-conceited young gentlemen (quite common now-a-days) who imagine their personal appearance to be so captivating as to allow to them the most unrestrained liberties with the female sex; so his presumption encourages him to attempt to make love to Miss Emeline Brooks, who repels his advances, and causes him to come to grief, otherwise known as the Police Court, and be bled to the extent of $3.00 and costs $3.86. It being past 4 o'clock—after bank hours—he was compelled to go to jail.

Emeline was fined for being drunk, $3.00 and costs $3.86; and being in the same situation pecuniarily as Mr. Rowe, she was sent to the House of Correction.

A NUISANCE.—The tin tubes used by boys in the streets through which they blow beans, putty and like missiles, are a great nuisance, and may result in a painful termination, (for the boys, at least,) if they are not a little more carefully used. A day or two since a lady was hit in the eye by a bean blown from one of them, and for a while feared she might have received permanent injury to that organ.

☞ We regret to see that many persons in this vicinity have neglected to remove the nests of the tent caterpillar from their trees, and many of them are in consequence loathsome from the presence of myriads of the disgusting crawlers, while some are already stripped of their foliage by the voracity of the worm. The early morning, while yet the caterpillars are within their nest, is a good time to rage warfare against the grub, and let it be "to the knife," if necessary, for 'tis better to sacrifice a twig than to lose the whole tree.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—The estate on the corner of Court and Washington streets was sold at auction on Saturday for $2335. Charles Robinson, esq., was the purchaser.

☞ We notice among the arrivals at Boston, in the steamer China, from Liverpool, Dr. Oliver and lady, of this city.

☞ Our Maine friends have always felt a little sore when this naval station has been claimed as belonging to Portsmouth (except when yellow fever was there,) but they need feel no further anxiety on that point as this city has been moved across the line. On Saturday we received an exchange from New York, directed to the "New Hampshire Gazette, Portsmouth, Maine."

PERSONAL.—T. G. Senter, Esq., formerly of this city, but for a long term of years Principal of the Lynn High School, is in this city spending a few days. We are glad to see him looking so well after his arduous duties.

☞ The two companies of heavy artillery from Fort Constitution, under command of Capt. Thyng, preceded by their band, marched to the Plains on Friday afternoon, where they drilled as infantry, in a very creditable manner, preparatory to the ceremonies at Concord on the 1st prox., in which they are to take part.

☞ Buckley's Serenaders, from Boston, are to favor us with a couple of their mirth-provoking entertainments next week. We have been favored with a good class of amusements of late, and our diversion-loving public will hail the return of these old favorites.

☞ The Oriole has been seen in this neighborhood, the past week, to feed upon the caterpillars, which infest our apple trees. For their service our gunners should spare the Oriole.

HOLD YOUR HORSES.—The carriage smashing business is very brisk in this vicinity, and hardly a day passes that we do not hear of some runaway or smash up.

☞On Friday night, near Carlisle, Penn. a house was burnt, in which seven children were burned to death. The eldest being 15 years and the youngest six months. Mr. and Mrs. Mayberry, the parents, were also severely burned. The fire was accidental.

FESTIVAL.—The Ladies of the Unitarian Soldiers' Aid Society, of Portsmouth, announce a Festival for the benefit of the Soldiers, at the Temple, Monday and Tuesday, June 12th and 13th prox. They invite Contributions of Money, Fancy Articles, Flowers, or Refreshments, from any who feel interested in the cause, which needs unremitting labor for some months to come. Any donations may be sent to Mrs. J. B. HALEY, No. 9 Richards Avenue, Portsmouth, or to any member of the Committee: Mrs. Haley, Mrs. F. W. Miller, Mrs. W. E. Pray, Mrs. M. P. Brooks, Mrs. Wm. Day, Miss M. E. L. Pickering, Miss E. W. Morrison, Miss Carrie C. Haley, Committee.

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-three hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their action no cause we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m29dawlm

THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD, THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE.

By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON, Tribune Correspondent.

The above work will embrace Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years: travelling through the South in the secret service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the War; with our armies and fleets both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture while running the batteries on the Mississippi River at Vicksburg, where more than half his companions were either killed or wounded; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers of North Carolina and Tennessee through the enemy's country to our lines.

This work presents a rare opening for both men and women, who desire lucrative employment.—For particulars address

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the bile the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents	"	"	"	"	$100 "
Ten	"	"	"	"	$500 "
20	"	"	"	"	$1000 "
$1	"	"	"	"	$5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

For the Portsmouth Journal.

TO THE SONS OF PORTSMOUTH ABROAD.

It is a well known fact that many did not attend the Reception Celebration of 1858, for the reason that it was not anticipated so hearty a response would be given to the kind invitation to us all to return to our birthplace, or that it would be productive of such an amount of pleasure to those who answered the call; and many a pang of regret was afterwards felt that they were not among the number. Especially so was this the case, when, through the printed reports of all the brilliant things said and done on the occasion, they were moved by the eloquence of a Burroughs or a Haven, or had their love of the Muses retouched by the graceful numbers of a Fields, or the humor and pathos of Mrs. Partington. Regret with not a few amounted even to vexation that they had permitted such an event to transpire without being sharers in it. One remarked, within the writer's hearing, "Why, I would have gone, if I had been obliged to pawn my watch to pay my passage;" and another replied, "If I had no watch, I would have walked all the way, and felt amply repaid for the exertion." An opportunity is now offered to all such to make amends to themselves for the past, and lay up a store of pleasant memories for all their future lives, by re-assembling on the 4th of July next.

Sons of Portsmouth, one and all, wherever your homes may be, in city, town or village; whether the shores of your adoption be washed by the Atlantic or Pacific, the inland seas of the great West, or the placid waters of a winding river; and you, too, upon the ocean,—come!—Whether still in your teens, or one, two or three score, or whatever age a kind Providence has permitted you to attain,—come! Whether, in the winter days, you glided on your sled down the slopes of Jennett's, Masons', School House, Brimstone or South Bridge hills, or the North or South mill-pond was the scene of your youthful efforts in the now popular sport of skating; or in the summer time, you fished from Walker's mill, caught cunners at the Spring, or threw your hook and line from South Mill dam,—come! To whatever troop, whether Northmen or Southmen, you may have been attached in those memorable encounters in "hoop time,"—come! Such of you as can recall those bright visions of your youth, the "general muster days," by whatever route nearest your home you reached the Plains, the South, Middle, or Islington avenues,—come! Whoever may have taught your young idea how to shoot,—if in whatever sanctuary you attended on the Sabbath, or Sunday school you received your first lessons in things spiritual,—come! In whatever portion of dear old Portsmouth your early home may have been,

"From Tuttle Point to Gravelly Ridge,
From Christian Shore to Newcastle Bridge,"

—come, come, come!

If you are married, whether your partner in life's joy's and sorrows had her early training at Portsmouth schools and Portsmouth firesides, or you have taken a Ruth which exemplify Moabites, be sure and bring her with you; for a welcome awaits the daughters of Portsmouth, whether by birth or adoption, not less earnest and heartfelt than that extended to her sons. But, whether married or single, casting life's cares to the winds, and consecrating your hearts to the memories of childhood, come on a pilgrimage of devotion to your birthplace, and the poet's joy will be yours as you exclaim,

"Where'er I roam, whatever realms I see,
My heart, untravelled, fondly turns to thee!"

ONE OF THE SONS WHO LEFT IN '29.

New York, May, 1865.

HOME FIRE INS'CO., OF NEW YORK.

"One thing is forever good," says the poet Emerson, "that one thing is success." Nothing is so successful, nothing so cheering to all the workers of the world. It is for this reason that we dwell with pride and pleasure upon those magnificent institutions which exemplify success in the business world. Such an institution is the Home Fire Insurance Company, of New York. Its assets, at the present writing, amount to nearly Four Million Dollars. What token of prosperity could be more conclusive! What evidence of stability and beneficent power more ample and satisfactory! Since its first dividend, in New York, one hundred and seven Fire Insurance Companies, the total of premiums received by which, in 1864, was $16,188,150. Out of this sum the Home received $1,942,974, being one eighth of the aggregate receipts. The net surplus of the company, after providing for all liabilities, now amounts to $628,628, which is equivalent to a dividend of 60 per cent. to its stockholders, on a capital of $2,000,000. These figures indicate a success that is its own best exponent and advocate—a success that makes its way by its own strength. And to what is this great success to be attributed? We answer—to the liberal plan upon which the company conducts its business. Like the mythological Briareus, it stretches its hundred arms in all directions, and lays hold of business in every city, town, village, and hamlet in the United States. Wherever it goes it is a Home. Its name is a household word, and its prestige as a friend and family guardian, has come to be brighter and brighter with the lapse of any kindred corporation in the land. Thus, as a natural consequence, it goes on increasing its business, extending its agencies and its influence, and taking firmer hold upon the confidence and esteem of the whole community. If we may revert to an old figure we would say that, in the way of acquiring new business, it goes in like the snake of Pelion, and grows every year more substantial and beneficent. It is quite natural, therefore, that we should feel pride and pleasure in contemplating and recording such a remarkable instance of business prosperity. Besides, there is a lesson in this spectacle, that ought not to be lost upon the Insurance Journal and the insurance worker. The success of the Home is the result of a broad, comprehensive, far-seeing enterprize. It teaches us that the days of one-horse companies is past—that the grand nineteenth century is not tolerant of the corner grocery style of doing business, but demands liberal combinations and wide-spread beneficence in the designs of its workers. In secondary and subordinate spheres, Small Insurance Companies, for sections of the community, may serve their purpose within the narrow precincts of their several petty domains; but a Company that would do justice to the insurance business, and fulfil the demands of the age, must be large and cosmopolitan. In this way only are great results to be achieved. The Home is an opposite illustration of this doctrine—for which reason we single it out for present eulogium. With ample funds in its coffers, and managed by most efficient and thorough insurance heads—who understand the business in all its branches—and sustained by the zealous industry of a corps of agents, unsurpassed in the world for ability and faithfulness in their duty, the Home has been placed in bold relief before the public, so that its merits and claims have been thoroughly made known throughout the land. When people take out policies of Insurance they naturally wish to feel sure of one thing—namely, that they are safe; and when they deal with a Company which has about Four Million Dollars in Assets, and an income of some six thousand dollars a day, they need have no anxiety as to the safety of their investment. Nor is any body anxious, that trusts the Home. Such are its assets—such is its income. Its invariable custom is to pay its losses without delay and without reluctance. To be insured in the Home, therefore, is to be doubly sure. It is a model of success and a monument of American enterprise.

The above is from the Insurance Monitor for April. JOHN S. HARVEY is the agent for the Company, in this city. See his advertisement of several new Companies in another column.

The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that the more extensive business he has, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense advantage of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in Great Britain and France, he offers to him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All success, or a journey to Washington, to procure patents, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure them the ample and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. His numerous proofs of great talent, great ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his practice, made on inventors' behalf, amplicatious SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes —of the—

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great care and caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to be of great assistance in materially aiding this company as a man strictly honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum region, and was solicited to aid in selecting the property for them, and he did so. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq. and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, Hon. Moody Currier, Hon. Jeremiah Hill, of Boston, and Daniel E. Lancaster, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were what they were from could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Allegheny river, and for twenty miles from each side of the river, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty-six millions of dollars. The late Hon. Charles Hale, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, T. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and A. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 78 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They reported to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 68 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The lay of the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a little undeveloped Creek on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The oil lies nearly level for miles from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great flats south of Titusville, from which innumerable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 2000 barrels per day.—The Fountain Rock—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten bored on this Farm are a success. A very barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the Flat below Titusville. One of the Mattison wells is 818 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, burning freely as Cannel.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $60.0 to sink a well twenty rods deep, and few cost more than that. It costs $20 per day to work it after it yields oil. G. F. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more full and perfect character than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and developing Oil territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professor BENJAMIN SILLIMAN, of Yale College of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If he will come up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells on the flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be valuable property. Oil region is abundant room on each acre for 15 wells, and on this farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation of the number of acres in the Basin, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as they are expected, if they only yield the minimum number of wells on that Oil Belt, and your income from this Farm alone is over one million of dollars. This Company do not engage in any speculation, but merely state facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, is nearly timbered, situated near the road to Parkersburgh, not far from East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek. They have lately sunk a well right opposite the farm and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to roll or lease the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Conquest Well that flows 150 barrels daily, the derry that flows 200, the Maple Shade and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with the sucker rod in, and its pipe seven-eighths full of machinery, it has flowed 230 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 3,200 barrels. Below this well on the same Creek, another fine well has been struck, and above it a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will be abundantly.—Still farther north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer, and great expectations rest upon it. In sight of the spouting wells, and between the Frazer and the one which has raised to high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod fit for a well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Cloquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On West Pit Hole, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.

Within ride shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came to the surface! We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

Circulars, prospectuses, &c., containing every information, will be furnished on application at the office of the Company, or sent by mail to parties wishing to subscribe. Apply to or address

REBEL ASSURANCE.—The Washington Chronicle says it is not doubted that Mrs. Lee, the wife of the rebel leader, Robert E. Lee, has formally announced her determination to lay claim to Arlington Hights, and is in a very ill humor because that baronial estate has not been sufficiently cared for by the vile Yankees. This is the sublimest specimen of assurance we have read of lately. Mrs. Lee will probably also demand the removal of the thousands of Union soldiers who lie buried on the estate.

— The Manchester Veterans, will join in the funeral obsequies at Concord, June 1, 1865, by unanimous vote of the Corps, at their meeting held last evening; on this occasion, as on the 8th of June, they are to be the guards of the citizens of Concord, and arrangements are being made for the reception, at once creditable to the Corps and the citizens of the Capital.

NOT GUILTY.—On Friday morning in New York city, the trial of Isaac Henderson, late Navy Agent, broke down for want of evidence and the jury without leaving their seats rendered a verdict of not guilty.

— A terrible storm passed over a portion of Johnson county, Kansas, on Wednesday evening, blowing down houses and fences, uprooting trees and doing great damage. The hail is said to have blown into drifts two or three feet deep. Several persons were seriously injured, but no lives were lost.

— At Augusta, Ga., silver is plenty for change, and greenbacks are at par.

— There are 35,000 bales of cotton in Macon, Ga., and the stock in the State is estimated at 300,000 bales.

— There is great demand on the Georgia plantations for horses, mules, cattle and hogs, and high prices are paid; payment is taken in produce.

See what the most popular and widely circulated periodicals say of our Establishment:
From the "Flagstaff" of February 18, 1865.
We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the announcement of Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, Silver Ware, and Fancy Goods, in our advertising columns. They are personally acquainted with the members of this firm and know them to be gentlemen of sterling worth and integrity. Their sales of goods, for variety and extent, we have scarcely seen equalled.
From the "Mirror of Fashion," March 1, 1865.
Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, etc., opened on the 13th ult., and we venture to say that no finer display of goods was ever exhibited by any establishment in this city. The ladies thronged their bazaar almost to suffocation, although the street was represented as nearly impassable by the melted snow and slush. We predict for them a wonderful success.
From the "Ledger," February 28, 1865.
Our lady friends should visit the extensive establishment of Messrs. Devaugh & Co., No. 15 Maiden Lane, if they wish to indulge themselves with a sight which they will long remember.—Such a profusion of elegant Watches, Chains, Rings, Earrings, and, in short, of Jewelry of every name, kind and description, we never before witnessed. Their silver and plated ware is superb, and almost casts into the shade the other splendid establishments which have long been the boast of our city. It is estimated that their stock is worth not less than one million dollars.

How You Can Get a Prize.
Send Twenty-five Cents to us, and as soon as we receive it we will mail you a Certificate showing what you are entitled to. If the article or articles please you, send back the Certificate and One Dollar and we will forward you the article, no matter how costly it may be. If the article is not what you wish, state, when you send the Certificate and Dollar, what other article of the same value you prefer, and we will send it. If you wish more than one Certificate send us $1 and we will send them for $2, eleven; for $5, thirty; for $10, sixty; for $15, one hundred.
Agents are wanted in the Army and in every place.
We have an immense stock of goods to dispose of, and need a large force of Agents. Our terms to Agents are very liberal and some even of our lady Agents are making from $5 to $20 a day. We give Agents 50 per cent. on all Certificates they sell provided they remit not less than $1 for eight.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to make a gallon of good ink for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before them for public use but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with:
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have used Ink for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of 1 Aloppo Nut, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid once and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-fourth faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without. I remain yours, GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powders you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but it does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had a quantity of it. It worked well and ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would discerningly recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 18, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FRENCH.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all who have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moore's Manuscript, Noyes', D. J. Roberts', and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

TUESDAY, MAY 30, 1865.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—A Sunday dispatch from Perley says:

It is not thought in Washington that the indictment against Jeff. Davis was framed with the knowledge or consent of the Government. If this is the case, and it is merely a flourish made by prosecuting Attorney Carrington, we shall not probably see Jeff. Davis in the prisoner's dock of our Criminal Court. There are rumors, however, that evidence has been found clearly implicating Jeff. Davis with the diabolical yellow fever plot. If this is so, we may see the arch traitor before a military commission before many days.

The elections held in Virginia Saturday, for members of the State Legislature, un-Governor Pierpont's proclamation, resulted in such places as have been heard from, in the choice of the old pro-slavery politicians. Of course the loyal colored men were not permitted to approach the polls.

The provost guard Saturday arrested and sent to camp thousands of straggling soldiers in Washington. Officers absent without leave are required to report themselves at the proper quarters under arrest.

During the past five days no less than 600 soldiers have been lodged in the central guard house, charged with being drunk, having no passes, &c. Nearly all the trouble has been produced by unprincipled persons, who sell them drugged or poisonous drinks that a better opportunity may be offered to rob them of their money and valuables. Owing to continued scenes of disorder among the soldiers, the military authorities have closed all places where liquor is sold. [It would not be bad to have some military authority do the same thing elsewhere; and keep them closed.]

The Boston Herald's dispatch says the trial of Jeff. Davis will commence when that of the conspirators is over. It will be before a civil Court.

IN THE CONSPIRATORS' TRIAL at Washington on Saturday, a number of witnesses were called for the defence, and their testimony was somewhat interesting, especially as some of them were blockade runners, rebel mail carriers, &c., between Maryland and Virginia. This testimony, under cross-examination, left the case rather worse than before.

The rebel General Edward Johnson, who was captured at Nashville in December last, will appear as a witness for the defence. It is said several officers of his staff have also been summoned.

John S. Ford, the proprietor, and his two brothers, the managers of Ford's Theatre, have been all released. J. S. Clarke, the comedian, and Junius Brutus Booth, are still in prison.

☞ The Tribune's Washington despatch says Secretary Stanton desires to leave the cabinet as soon as the military trials are finished and the army reduced to a permanent standard. President Johnson will then send him as minister to Berlin.

The 19th Maine, 14th Connecticut, 108th New York, 8th New York, heavy artillery and the 12th New York, will leave for their homes on Thursday. They will be paid on reaching home.

The Herald's despatch says the Twenty-fifth corps, under Gen. Weitzel, commenced embarking for Texas Monday. Gen. G. A. Smith has command of a division of colored troops.

The Transcript Washington correspondence says:

The next term of the United States Court will be held in June, when the government expects to be ready to try Jeff. Davis. The indictment is very strong and covers every point.

The published statements in regard to rivetting manacles upon Davis are mere fictions.

President Johnson's amnesty Proclamation still hangs fire.

The question of negro suffrage is under consideration in the Cabinet.

☞ Perley telegraphs from Washington, Saturday, a report that Jeff. D. has shown such plantation manners in his cell, as to make it needful to manacle him, lest he hurt himself or the guard who share his cell; and that he was so angry at a good plate of bean soup for dinner, as to dash it on the floor, saying he wasn't accustomed to such living, and wouldn't put up with it. It is said, also, that he kicked and threatened vengeance on the four soldiers who put him in irons, and rather than submit to it wished the guard to shoot him: of course they did not gratify his wishes, but quietly put on the fetters. No knives nor forks are allowed in the cell—nothing more destructive than a spoon. He has the army ration, as our soldiers fare; good enough for anybody; too good for the felon who starved our soldiers, and for the traitor who aimed to destroy our government and erect a slave empire on its ruins.

DESERTERS.—The total number of deserters arrested from the time of the establishment of the Provost Marshal's Bureau, viz: May 1st, 1863, to September 30th, 1864, was 60,760,—being an average of 3,574 per month—from which it may be inferred that not many who remain in the country escape arrest.

THE SURRENDER of Kirby Smith's rebel army, in Texas, may be understood as a finality. No considerable rebel force now exists anywhere,—yet at Washington it is believed th that a considerable force of troops will be sent to Texas, notwithstanding the surrender of Kirby Smith, in order protect the Mexican frontier and preserve order throughout the State.

Gen. Sheridan arrived at St. Louis, on his way to Texas, where he can have an army of 60,000 men, if he needs them. Perley telegraphs from Washington, Sunday, that "the 1st New Hampshire Cavalry and the 5th Massachusetts Cavalry will probably be sent at once to Texas."—Nevertheless, we think it doubtful now.

GEORGIA.—Savannah correspondence says the removal of trade restrictions has given an impetus to business. Steamers run regularly up the river-towns. Cotton is arriving and new stores are being opened. It is expected that General Gilmore will soon issue an order removing all restrictions on trade throughout the department of the South. Gen. Howard, Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, has issued an order to prohibit the dispossessing of freedmen of the land they are cultivating, abandoned by disloyal former owners.

TERRIBLE CALAMITY AT MOBILE.—The Chicago Tribune's New Orleans dispatches of the 26th state that the ordnance depot and magazine at Mobile exploded on the 25th. The shock was terrific. Eight squares of buildings were destroyed. 500 persons were buried in the ruins. Loss $8,000,000. Cause of explosion unknown.

☞ Jackson (Miss.) advices state that the rebel Legislature met on the 20th and directed Governor Clark to appoint Judges Sharkey, Fisher and Gorgas commissioners to go to Washington and confer with President Johnson on the subject of calling a Convention with a view to the restoration of Mississippi to the Union.

Delegations representing Alabama, Georgia and South Carolina have called on the President to know what terms of reconstruction could be had in their cases.

☞ The following important statement is made by the New York Citizen, edited by Col. Halpine, pretty good authority in such matters: "We state on authority which we regard as conclusive, that Secretary Stanton has never received and has never seen the dispatches which Gen. Sherman condemns him for suppressing. We state on the same authority that no dispatches of the kind are on file in the War Department. The simple truth of the case is this:—That dispatches in the regular routine were forwarded to Gen. Grant, for transmission to the Secretary of War; and the Lieutenant General, exercising his prerogative, and as a friend to Gen. Sherman, refused to forward them. This is the whole case in a nutshell."

☞ The late order of the War Department, that in all cases of sentences by military tribunals of imprisonment during the war—that the sentences are to be remitted and the prisoners discharged—applies in part to a number of deserters who have been sent to the Dry Tortugas as a punishment for their crime. This act of clemency was by direction of the President.

☞ On Friday afternoon, in South Dedham, Mass., a great Furniture Manufactory was burnt, by sparks from a chimney falling on the roof. The building was made of wood, 300 feet long, and there were four other large buildings, containing lumber, &c., destroyed. All belonged to Everett & Co. Loss $160,000. Insured $120,000.

☞ The corner stone of the monument at the Soldiers' National Cemetery at Gettysburg, Pa., will be laid on the 4th of July next with military and civic ceremonies. The oration on the occasion will be delivered by Major General O. O. Howard, late commander of the army of Tennessee.—This General, it will be recollected, bore a conspicuous part in the battle of Gettysburg.

— Advices from Brazos, Texas, state that our troops, after whipping the rebels at Boro Del Chico Pass, and when retreating, were fired upon by some parties across the Rio Grande, when some of our skirmishers crept up the river bank and shot two dead. Three Swiss soldiers of Maximilian's army crossed the river on their way to Brazos, being deserters.

FROM THE SOUTHWEST.—A Cairo, Ill., dispatch of May 28, says:

General Wilson has ordered all the Confederate States' mules, horses, harness, wagons and leather, not required for the use of his cavalry corps, to be turned over to Colonel Foster, Quartermaster General, to be distributed amongst the poor people as a loan from the United States, but returnable whenever called for by the proper authority.

— We could never see, and do not see now, why a criminal, guilty of a capital crime, should be so preserved from suicide, by the same power that intends to take his life. If Jeff. had shuffled off this mortal coil four days ago, or four years ago, the world might have gone on without him.

— General Logan has refused a Brigadiership in the regular army, and will retire to private life.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— John C. Briggs, Esq., of Concord, died Friday morning at Saratoga, N. Y., after a lingering illness. Mr. Briggs was about 41 years of age, and a civil engineer of extensive scientific acquirements. He was Chief Engineer at Fort Constitution, when compelled to relinquish labor. His remains will be brought to Concord for interment in the new Cemetery, which he planned and laid out.

—— Eighty-seven men belonging to Co. A, Veteran Reserve Corps, under command of Lieut. Provost, arrived in Concord Friday morning, from Point Lookout, Md., where they have been doing guard duty. During the grand review of troops in Washington, on Tuesday and Wednesday, they performed guard duty to the conspirators, who are on trial in that city. They marched immediately to Camp Gilmore, where they will be stationed for the present.

—— The Concord Monitor says, Yale's mammoth tent has been secured for a dinner for the New Hampshire militia and discharged veteran soldiers on the First. The Portsmouth High School Cadets are to come to Concord on that day. The Union Drum Corps of Lowell (13 pieces) is to furnish music for the Amoskeag Veterans.

—— The Monitor does not favor the plan of refunding the money paid for substitutes, to the men who paid it.

—— Deputy Marshal Prescott and officer Howard of Manchester, arrested in that city on Saturday, an individual named John Martin who is charged with passing counterfeit $50 greenbacks in Boston.

—The annual drive of logs from the headwaters of the Pemigewassett has passed down the Merrimack by Manchester. The logs measure 9,000,000 feet of lumber.

☞ Last June, the N. H. Legislature passed resolutions of loyal nature, 1, to prosecute the war for the integrity of the Union; — 2, approving the employment of negro soldiers; 3, approving the abolition amendment. But the minority of the committee brought in a copperhead report—one item of which was:

That more than three years of civil war accompanied by * * * alternating success and no essential results, prove that the war was not and is not the proper remedy for our national troubles. * * * And that therefore we advise, invite and urge negotiations, proposals and efforts for a settlement of our national difficulties upon the basis of a restored Union, under the constitution; and if that cannot be affected, then upon some other basis which will give peace to our distracted country on terms alike honorable to every section.

This meant peace at any price, and at least as much honor to a rebel as a patriot—probably more! But how craven, treasonable, and contemptible it looks, as we read it now.

THE DISGUISE.—Col. Pritchard, of the 4th Michigan Cavalry, who commanded the party which captured Jeff. Davis, has brought to Washington the genuine disguise in which the chivalric Jeff. was endeavoring to sneak off to get a pail of water. It is a lady's large tweed cloak, with sleeves, ties to fasten it around the waist, and a fine black shawl with a scroll border, which was pulled over the head and around the face of the fugitive, concealing his whiskers. The disguise was taken to Gardner's photographic gallery, where it was arranged on a man of the same size as the rebel leader, and a photograph taken. Mrs. Davis wore the water poof cloak during the voyage, and was loth to part with it when Col. Pritchard demanded it.

CURIOUS CASE.—A trial has been going on for some time in New York, the result of which exhibits the law in a somewhat novel light. A person named Trust, who had lived with a woman who was recognized as his wife, from 1839 up to three years ago, deserted her and her four children. She brought an action for divorce, and on the trial Trust pleaded that he never had been married to the plaintiff, and produced a woman to whom he had been married in London in 1827, as also a certificate of that marriage, in order to show that the action for divorce could not be sustained. This testimony of previous marriage was ruled out, and the Judge, in charging the jury, said that there was sufficient evidence of marriage in the co-habitation and reputation of defendant and plaintiff as man and wife; that marriage in New York State was a civil contract, to be dissolved by criminality only, and the jury brought in a verdict for the plaintiff, legally recognizing her claim to be divorced from the defendant as his wife, although the parties were never legally married.

The decision and verdict are RIGHT, being founded in justice and equity; all "legal" quibbles to the contrary notwithstanding. No man should be allowed to take advantage of his own wrong doing.

— Gen. Sherman has handed his account of the Johnston surrender to the Committee on the War. It covers 60 pages of foolscap.

GOLD, in New York, Monday, 136 1-2. In Boston only a small amount was sold.

— The U. S. government is said to be in possession of information that Sanders and Thompson were not only accessories to the murder of the President, but to the plot to spread the yellow fever and introduce it into the White House.

A FEW REASONS WHY THE
AMERICAN WATCH
IS THE BEST.
It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who cover "kept vances," "lepines," and "swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.
THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.
Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—
1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.
We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one-half the price.
OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.
OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH (named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.
OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.
OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.
THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.
OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

RETURN OF THE SONS.—Messrs. Editors:—What are we waiting for, and what are our City Fathers about? The Sons of Portsmouth are coming home, sure, on the Fourth; and it is time we were up and doing, if we don't wish to be taken by surprise. Let a few influential citizens sign a call for a mass meeting, to impress on the minds of the authorities their intention of having a big time on the Fourth. Let that meeting be held this week, and our people attend generally, express their feelings, and then go to work and make it a complete success. It is about time those arches for Market street were being commenced. A little more velocity to that ball which "Mrs. Partington" & Co. have started, and then the people will realize the fact that there are but 29 working days before the 4th of July! A "SON."

MECHANICS ASSOCIATION. — An adjourned Meeting will be held this (Tuesday) evening, in the Hall in Gray's Block, Congress St., at 8 o'clock, to hear the Report of the Committee on the subject of the Association furnishing a Reading Room for the use of Members and others.

POLICE COURT, May 29.—It is no pleasing duty for us to be compelled to record the fact that James Davidson assaulted a watchman on the night of the 13th inst., and on the morning of the 29th, just 16 days thereafter, he was arraigned before the tribunal of justice and fined $10 and costs $4.80.

☞ Our public spirited local correspondent B. rejoices that Mr. Shores "has had the good sense to set nut trees in front of his residence on Middle Street," instead of the mere barren shade trees so commonly preferred. He goes on to argue or state at some length, that fruit trees in place of all our shade trees, would grow crop enough to pay our City expenses. Perhaps so,—but we fear the corporation would hardly derive so much benefit as that from it. However, fruit trees would be an improvement over others in very many places, beyond question, and we are glad to see them set.

☞ The Funeral Oration, by Prof. Patterson, at Concord, June 1st, will be pronounced from a stand in front of the State House. The procession will undoubtedly be the finest and most extensive ever seen in the State, and all the arrangements are proceeding on a grand scale. The Portsmouth High School Cadets are down on the bill, and we hope they will go, and take the Cornet Band with them. Discharged officers of N. H. regiments, who intend to participate, are requested to report, on their arrival, to the Adjt. General's Headquarters.

☞ Another of our former Schoolmasters in Portsmouth, John P. Payson, Esq., is now on a brief visit here, in his Vacation from the great school in Chelsea, of which he is Principal. The school consists of about 800 boys, under the immediate tuition of 14 female teachers, and the whole under the general superintendence of the principal.

Mr. Johnson has been invited to become the pastor of the new church, and will probably accept.

☞ The Boston Herald says Corporal James F. Garrity, of the 3d Mass. Cavalry, one of the disciples of Faust, arrived home on Tuesday, and exchanged the sword for the composing stick after three years' faithful service of his country. He left a slender, delicate looking man, but comes back a stout, robust "bold dragoon" of a fellow, whom few of his old acquaintaces could readily recognize, and fortunately without a scar, although he had participated in twenty-six engagements.

— A Washington dispatch of Monday suggests that if the U. S. War Department had surrendered Jeff. Davis to be tried by the Criminal Court of the District, he would have come before Judge Wylie, a reconstructed Virginian!—but it is not probable he will be the judge on that trial.

FESTIVAL.—The Ladies of the Unitarian Soldiers' Aid Society, of Portsmouth, announce a Festival for the benefit of the Soldiers, at the Temple, Mondsy and Tuesday, June 12th and 13th prox. A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m29dawlm

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the bile the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " " $3000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

The properties of this Company consist of 643 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing interests of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable oil lands the Company possess. Three engines have already arrived at the wells. Our Agent at Titusville writes us that the well on the McElhany farm has commenced flowing, which proves this Company beyond a doubt of success. SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, to the Patent Office, on reasonable terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into any matter of Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting Ten Dollars. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials here given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE best PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full records of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved to inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can employ no person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all the most of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN ARGUMENTS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in six days, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will have from 30 to 60 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. E. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to some of the gentlemen promoters in attaching this company, as one of the ablest, honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum regions, and was solicited to aid in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel E. Lancaster, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Alleghany river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Joe Curtin says in his Message, fifty six million of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Harris, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and J. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make farther examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The lay of the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a large undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which immensurable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 1000 barrels per day—the Fountain 250—the Parker 150—and many of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this farm are success. A few of the wells will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel will sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judge that every rod of the seventy five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the Flatbelow Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $12 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune in itself. It is epidemical coal, burning freely as Cannel.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $6000 to sink a well to the depth of 700 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $25 per day to work it after it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more full and perfect character than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting oil territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors MAYNARD and SHEPARD, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Shepard of Yale College, of St. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is ample room on this farm for 15 wells, and on this farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation of the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as they are expected, if they only yield the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and your income from this farm alone is over one million of dollars. This Company do not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek. They have lately sunk a well right opposite this farm and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Phillips Oil Farm, now producing 60 barrels daily, the Jersey that flows 200, the Maple Shade and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with its sucker rod in, and its pipe seven-eighths full of machinery, it has flowed 250 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 2,300 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another fine well has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In sight of the spouting wells, and between the Frazer and the one which has raised so high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod it for a well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $600,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On West Pit Hole, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly."

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

See what the most popular and widely circulated periodicals say of our Establishment:

From the "Dispatch" of January 3, 1865.

We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the announcement of Messrs. Devaugh & Co's Great Sale of Jewelry, Silver Ware, and Fancy Goods, in our advertising columns. We are personally acquainted with the members of this firm and know them to be gentlemen of sterling worth and integrity. Their stock of goods, for variety and extent, we have scarcely seen paralleled.

From the "Mirror of Fashion," March 1, 1865.

Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, etc., opened on the 15th ult., and we venture to say that no finer display of goods was ever exhibited by any establishment in this city. The ladies thronged their bazaar almost to suffocation, although the streets were rendered nearly impassable by the melted snow and slush. We predict for them a wonderful success.

From the "Ledger," February 28, 1865.

Our lady friends should visit the extensive establishment of Messrs. Devaugh & Co., No. 15 Maiden Lane, if they wish to indulge themselves with a sight which they will long remember.—The display of jewelry, gold and silver Watches, Chains, Rings, Earrings, and, in short, of Jewelry of every name, kind and description, we never before witnessed. Their silver and plated ware is superb, and almost casts into the shade the other splendid establishments which have long been the boast of our city. It is estimated that their stock is worth not less than one million dollars.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.

A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!

INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.

THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.

Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.

FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.

An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.

It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.

A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.

The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:

1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.

2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.

3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.

4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.

5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.

Testimonials.

MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.

To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cheared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.

MELROSE, MASS., Feb. 1, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppo Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have not had the satisfaction of having supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my composition is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up last cold weather it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write twice as much faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.

Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.

To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used I would not be without. I remain, yours,

GEO. H. HOLMES.

Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.

Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is but feeble, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.

I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had a quantity of it, it would not a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servt.

GEO. W. PARKER.

Deering, March 1, 1865.

To the American Ink Company—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powders a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,

ALMON M. COREY.

Nashua, N. H., March 1, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.

Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.

Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moor's Maynard & Noyes', D. J. Ridout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.

Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 31, 1865.

☞ The President's Proclamation of Amnesty is judicious, and will be satisfactory to all loyal and right-minded men.—His other proclamation, of re construction in North Carolina, does not satisfy all loyal men, and in practice will be found, we think, not only defective, but troublesome. If her constitution is to be altered at all, as it must be,—it should have been by a convention whose members should by the suffrage of all loyal citizens of legal age, especially loyal soldiers of the republic. It is possible that the convention proposed may extend the suffrage to the freedmen,—but we deem it not very probable.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The Committee on the Conduct of the war has information from Richmond announcing the arrest of General R. E. Lee.

The Sunday school scholars of nearly all denominations had a parade Monday morning, with music and banners. They passed in review before the President, who made them a neat speech.

The conspirators' trial was largely attended. The evidence of the yellow fever plot caused considerable surprise, inasmuch as an attempt was made by rebel agents here to spread it in Washington city. The remainder of the testimony only related to the prisoner Dr. Mudd, and was of some consequence in his defence.

The disbanding of Sherman's army commenced Monday, by the mustering out of service of some of the Ohio regiments.

The Times' dispatch says Sec. Stanton is not going to Berlin. He intends to resign, however.

It will take $60,000,000 to pay off the army, and the money is ready.

It is believed that Breckinridge has reached Texas.

The Tribune's dispatch says the letter of condolence from the Empress Eugenie to Mrs. Lincoln, although received some time since by the French Minister, is detained by him, evincing ill feeling on his part.

Frederick Seward is improving again.

The Herald's dispatch says the Generals of the regular army have been been assigned as follows: Gen. Halleck takes command of the Pacific States, Gen. Sherman the military division of Tennessee and probably Louisiana, Gen. Meade the Atlantic States, Gen. Sheridan the Trans-Mississippi, and Gen. Thomas North Carolina and perhaps other Southern States.

Gen. Warren has resigned his commission of Major General of Volunteers.

Gen. Logan has received orders to transfer the Army of the Tennessee to Louisville.

RECONSTRUCTION has been commenced. Pres. Johnson has issued a proclamation appointing Wm. W. Holden provisional governor of North Carolina,—setting forth the guarantee of the U. S. Constitution that every State shall have a republican form of government—and the fact that the now crushed Rebellion has in its revolutionary progress deprived the people of the State of North Carolina of all civil government; and making it the duty of Gov. H. to call a Convention of Delegates, to be chosen by loyal men and no others, to restore that State to its constitutional relations to the Federal Government. "Provided, that in any election that may be held for choosing delegates to any State Convention aforesaid, no person shall be qualified as an elector or shall be eligible as a member of such Convention, unless he shall have previously taken or subscribed the oath of amnesty as set forth in the President's proclamation of May 29th, 1865, and is a voter qualified, as prescribed by the Constitution and laws of the State of North Carolina in force before the 20th day of May, A. D., 1861, the date of the so-called ordinance of secession. And the said Convention, when convened, or the legislature that may be thereafter assembled, will prescribe the qualifications of electors and the elegibility of persons to hold office under the Constitution and laws of the State; a power the people of the several States comprising the Federal Union have rightfully exercised from the origin of the Government to the present time."

U. S. Revenue Laws, Confiscation Laws, U. S. Courts, Post Offices, &c., are to be put in operation as soon as may be.

This is presumed to be the President's programme for reconstruction in all the rebel States.

SLAVE TRADE.—In the U. S. Circuit Court, Boston, on Saturday, Antone Thomas was arraigned upon three indictments,—charges that Thomas aided Zeno Kelley in fitting out ship Tahmaroo, to go on a slave voyage; with having enticed witnesses to go beyond the jurisdiction of the Court: and pleaded guilty, and was ordered by the Court to recognize in the sum of $2500 for his appearance.

GOLD, Tuesday, 138 1 2 to 137 1-2.—General markets dull.

AMNESTY PROCLAMATION.

On the 29th of May, Pres. Johnson issued his Proclamation of Amnesty, countersigned by Sec. Seward, (being the first use he has made of his right hand since his injuries. The Proclamation, after a proper preamble, proceeds as follows:

I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do proclaim and declare that I hereby grant to all persons who have directly or indirectly participated in the existing rebellion, except as hereinafter excepted, amnesty and pardon, with restoration of all rights and property, except to slaves, and except in cases where legal proceedings under the laws of the United States providing for the confiscation of property of persons engaged in rebellion have been instituted, but on the condition, nevertheless, that every such person shall take and subscribe to the following oath or affirmation, and thenceforward keep and maintain said oath inviolate, and which oath shall be preserved for permanent preservation, and shall be of the tenor and effect following, to wit:

"I, ——————, do solemnly swear or affirm, in presence of Almighty God, that I will henceforth faithfully support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the union of the States thereunder, and that I will in like manner abide by and faithfully support all laws and proclamations which have been made during the existing rebellion with reference to the emancipation of slaves, so help me God."

The following classes of persons are excepted from the benefits of this proclamation:

1st. All pretended civil or diplomatic officers, or foreign agents of the Confederate Government.

2d. All who left judicial stations under the United States to aid the rebellion.

3d. Military or naval officers of the said pretended Confederate government above the rank of Colonel in the army or Lieutenant in the navy.

4th. All who left seats in the Congress of the United States to aid the rebellion.

5th. All who resigned or tendered resignations of their commissions in the army or navy of the United States, to evade duty in resisting the rebellion.

6th. All who have engaged in any way in treating otherwise than lawfully as prisoners of war, persons found in the United States service, as officers, soldiers, seamen, or in other capacities.

7th. Absentees from the United States for the purpose of aiding the rebellion.

8th. Military and naval officers in the rebel service, who were educated by the government in the academy at West Point, or the United States Naval Academy.

9th. All who held the pretended office of Governors of States in insurrection against the United States.

10th. All who left homes within the jurisdiction of the United States, and passed beyond the Federal military lines into the so-called Confederate States, for the purpose of aiding the rebellion.

11th. All who have been engaged in the destruction of the commerce of the United States upon the high seas, and all who have made raids into the United States from Canada, or been engaged in destroying the commerce of the United States upon the lakes and rivers that separate the British Provinces from the United States.

12th. All who at the time when they seek to obtain the benefits hereof by taking the oath herein prescribed, are in military, naval, or civil confinement, or custody, or under bonds of the civil, military or naval authorities or agents of the United States as prisoners of war or persons detained for offences of any kind either before or after conviction.

13th. All who have voluntarily participated in said rebellion and the estimated value of whose taxable property is over twenty thousand dollars.

14th. All who have taken the oath of amnesty as prescribed in the President's proclamation of Dec. 8th, A. D. 1863, or an oath of allegiance to the Government of the United States, since the date of said proclamation and have not kept and maintained the same inviolate; provided that special application may be made to the President for pardon by any person belonging to the excepted classes; and such clemency will be liberally extended as may be consistent with the facts of the case and the peace and dignity of the United States.

The Secretary of State will establish rules and regulations for administering and recording said amnesty oath, so as to insure its benefit to the people and guard the Government against fraud.

THE CAROLINAS.— Letters from Raleigh, from persons conversant with the sentiments of the slaveholders in North and South Carolina, state that the negroes in those States are being driven away from their old homes by those who were their former masters, who refuse to hire them as free laborers. The consequence is the blacks are in a pitiable condition. The feeling of the slaveholder against the negroes is much intensified by the fact that the success of our arms in those States was promoted by the loyalty of the blacks.

— Col. Reagan, late rebel Postmaster General, now awaiting the Government's order at Fortress Monroe, is said to have been the man to whom Jeff. Davis gave orders to "hang Andrew Johnson if he ever caught him."

— One of the most beautiful and poetic suggestions which we have noted since the death of our lamented President, is that "memorial trees" commemorative of that event, should be planted in all parts of the country. Hundreds and thousands of monuments would thus be erected to him all over the land, growing stronger, taller and dearer each succeeding year, typical of the love of all good people for the memory of that great and good man.

THE SECESSIONISTS carried most of the counties in Virginia, where an election was held, last week, for members of the Legislature. The Transcript thinks this is ample indication that the white population of that State are not yet fit to be received back again into the Union. They have not been sufficiently humbled to perceive that the national authorities, sustained by the people of the North, will never consent that the re-organization of the different State Governments of the South shall be effected by men who have done their utmost to blot the United States from the roll of nations. The loyal people of the South, white and black, can alone be safely intrusted with the duty of restoring the insurgent sections to their proper relation to the Union. There is much discussion, at present, about investing the colored man with the right of suffrage in the seceded States. It will not, however, require many exhibitions of the unsubdued temper of the rebels, to convince those who mean to crush the Rebellion forever, that the loyalty of the dark-skinned Southern population must inevitably be called into requisition to save the country.

A MOST INTERESTING VOLUME is soon to be published by Messrs. Scranton & Burr, Hartford, Conn., from the pen of A. D. Richardson, giving his experience for twenty months in rebel prisons. Mr. Richardson was in the secret service of the Tribune before the war broke out, and continued its correspondent for two years after, and the forthcoming book will give thrilling details of events he witnessed. It is to be illustrated by engravings, some fifteen in number, and if we can judge of the general character of the work by the extracts we have seen from advanced sheets, it will be well worthy of a place in every family. It is to be sold only by subscription, and a smart man is wanted to secure the agency for this place, and we doubt not our citizens will give him ample encouragement.—See advertisement.

☞ During the war the Society of Friends in East Tennessee, Virginia and North Carolina numbered thirty-seven congregations, including about 3500 persons. The discipline of the Society, prohibiting the owning or hiring of slaves, not only remained inviolate, but the members bore an open and firm testimony against slavery and war, and were loyal to the United States government. This subjected them to some persecution, but the Society, nevertheless, received an accession of over 500 members. Immediately upon the surrender of Johnston's army their brethren of the North and West raised over $20,000 to replace their losses by the war and to assist them in re-establishing schools.

BEAUTY.—Once upon a time a lady attended a ball; but as no beauty is without some defect, so this lady was haughty, full of conceit and without intellect. With her ridiculous conversation she victimized a poor youth, upon whose arm she leaned, and cured him of the simplicity of thinking that a ball was an occasion for enjoyment and recreation. What do you think of beauty? said the lady; Is it only a trick, a deception? Beauty, the youth gravely answered, is like the zero; of itself it is nought, but it augments the qualities with which it is joined.

— The late rebel Gen. Beauregard and staff have arrived at New Orleans.

—— Most papers in the State, disapprove of allowing towns to refund the money paid for substitutes by individuals; and the scheme will be strongly opposed in the Legislature. The Manchester Union favors it, which will not help it much.

A FEW REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "ancres," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH (named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD, THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE.

By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
Tribune Correspondent.

The above work will embrace Mr. Richardson's unparallelled experience for four years: traveling through the South in the secret service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the War; with our armies and fleets on the East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture while running the batteries on the Mississippi River at Vicksburg, where more than half his companions were either killed or wounded; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers of North Carolina and Tennessee through the enemy's country to our lines.

This work presents a rare opening for both men and women, who desire lucrative employment.—For particulars address

THE CONCERT TO-NIGHT, by Master Coker, we hardly need say will be a superior entertainment. A sweet singer of Israel, indeed, is this lad; and the programme for to-night includes some of the most famous pieces he or anybody else sings. We believe he is to have the same artists, vocal and instrumental, who so ably assisted on the former occasion here; and all who heard him and them on that occasion will need no urging to attend. To any who have not heard Master Coker and his troupe, we shall simply say, if you love music of the very highest order, don't fail to improve this rare opportunity at the Temple to-night.

☞ We are requested to state that Tickets for the Excursion Train to Concord to-morrow (Thursday) may be had to-day at N. P. THACHER's, and this (Wednesday) evening at the C. & P. Ticket office; from 8 to 9 o'clock. All are desired to supply themselves to-day. Fare up and back only $1,90.

ON THURSDAY, JUNE 1st, in accordance with the President's Proclamation, there will be religious services at the following churches in Portsmouth:—

Unitarian, with Christian and Universalist congregations united.
St. Mary's, Catholic.
Exercises at the usual hour of morning service.

☞ The satirical and humorous Ballad of Jefferson D., by Edward P. Nowell, is just published in a neat pamphlet, with apt illustrations, and is for sale at the book and music stores. It was first published in the Journal, and the editor says "it reminds us of the famous race of "John Gilpin," not only in its metre, but in its spirit—although the writer had no thought of it when writing." It contains many good hits, and is "embellished" (we had almost said illuminated) with two most unique illustrations of J. D. 'neath the sour apple tree, and the last ditch, which is evidently the river Styx. The poem will make no little fun among the friends of the author and others.

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.
Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,
$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the bile the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the
7.30 LOAN.
These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into
U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.
GOLD-BEARING BONDS.
These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.
The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to
One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " " $5000 "
Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.
The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7.3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.
The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.
The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.
The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is
The Only Loan in Market
Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the
Great Popular Loan of the People.
Less than $200,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.
In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

Arrandale & Co., Manufacturers' Agents, 167 BROADWAY, NEW YORK,

Announce that all the above list of goods will be sold for One Dollar each.

In consequence of the great stagnation of trade in the Manufacturing districts of England, thro' the war having cut off the supply of cotton, a large quantity of Valuable Jewelry, originally intended for the English Market, has been sent out for sale in this country, AND MUST BE SOLD AT ANY SACRIFICE! Under these circumstances, ARRANDALE & Co., acting as agents for the principal European manufacturers, have received upon a GREAT GIFT DISTRIBUTION, subject to the following regulations:

Certificates of the various articles are first put into envelopes, sealed up and mixed; and when ordered, are taken out without regard to choice, and sent by mail, thus giving all a fair chance—On receipt of the certificate, you will see what you can get for your money, and if you prefer to send the dollar and take the article or not. Purchasers may thus obtain a Gold Watch, Diamond Ring, or any set of Jewelry on our list for ONE DOLLAR.

Send 25 Cents for a Certificate.

In all transactions by mail, we shall charge for forwarding the Certificate, paying postage and doing the business, 25 cents each, which must be enclosed when the Certificate is sent for. Five Certificates will be sent for $1, eleven for $2, thirty for $5, sixty-five for $10, and a hundred for $15.

AGENTS.—We want agents in every regiment, and in every town and County in the country, and those acting as such will be allowed 10 cents on every Certificate they sell, and can, over and above all remittance amounts to one dollar.—Agents will collect 25 cents for every Certificate, and remit 15 cents to us, or use the money in postage stamps. ARRANDALE & CO.,

mh7Diaw&Wlm 167 Broadway, N. Y.

What the "Press" say of us.

GREAT GIFT DISTRIBUTION.—A rare opportunity is offered for obtaining watches, chains, diamond rings, silverware, and jewelry, by Arrandale & Co, at No. 167 Broadway. They have an immense stock of articles, varying in value, and all are offered at one dollar each. The distribution is very fairly done—you agree to take a certificate of a certain article, enclosed in an envelope, and are not required to pay your dollar, unless you are satisfied with the article, which will certainly be worth more than that amount, and may be worth a hundred times as much. Safe in investing a dollar.—Sunday Times, N. Y. City, Feb. 19, '65.

Messrs. Arrandale & Co. have long been personally known to our readers, and recommend to be every way worthy of public confidence.—N. Y. Scottish American Journal, June 11, 1864.

We have inspected, at the office of Arrandale & Co's. Agency for Eastern Manufacturing Jewellers, a large assortment of fashionable and valuable jewelry of the newest patterns. We also examined a large quantity of silver plate, and understand that the whole of these newly imported articles are to be disposed of on a novel principle, combining great advantage to buyers, and affording extensive employment to agents. We know the firm in question to be very respectable and thoroughly worthy of public confidence and recommend our friends to read their advertisement.—N. Y. Albion, Sept. 3, 1864.

By Messrs. Arrandale & Co's arrangement, the advantages must be on the customer, for he has everything to gain, and nothing comparatively to lose. He knows what he will get for his dollar beforehand, and he need not send it if he is not satisfied.—N. Y. Weekly News, Aug. 6, 1864.

EMPLOYMENT FOR LADIES.—The most eligible and profitable employment we have heard of for ladies is the sale of certificates for the "Great Gift Distribution" of Arrandale & Co. A lady of our acquaintance has been very successful in this way, not only in filling her own purse, but also in doing a good turn to those to whom she sold the Certificates, as will be seen from our advertising columns. Gentlemen can also be thus engaged.—N. Y. Sunday Mercury, Aug. 14, 1864.

In our columns, the reader will find an advertisement of Arrandale & Co's Great Gift Distribution watches, Jewelry, and silver-ware. In payment of that advertisement we received several sets of the jewelry advertised, and we are warranted in saying that, both in finish and quality, they quite exceeded our expectations. They turned out to be just what they had been represented.—True Democrat, [Louisiana,] Aug. 17, 1864.

The British Whig of Kingston, C. W, says, Nov. 26, 1864, one of our lady subscribers became an agent for Arrandale & Co., and received as her share, some twenty articles, sent as prizes for her agency, to this office for inspection, and without hesitation we can state that each and all of the articles were worth treble the amount of cost to the recipients, and some of them six times.

We have seen some very pretty specimens of Table and Tea Spoons, Gold Watches, Ladies' Chains, Pins, Bracelets, etc., which have been sent by Arrandale & Co., to this place for $1 each.—Angelica Reporter, N. Y. State, Feb. 15, 1865.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR AND PATENT AGENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, since the Act of 1837.

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries; also, Reissues, Extensions, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Examine made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL IN THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as BUSINESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, full accompaniments, are now unsurpassably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL IN THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as BUSINESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part, I have no hesitation in advising those to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications for Patents, and in Six, REVERSED on which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes —of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a positive foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to control a large portion of the gentlemen in starting this company as a man strictly honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum region, and was selected to aid in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Page, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel E. Lancaster, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, Pithole Oil Creek, and Cherry Creek, a not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty-six million of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Harris, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a well-known man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are Blue Ribbon.

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The lay of the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste land.

The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which innumerable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well proved 1000 barrels per day.—the Fountain 200—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 50 barrels daily. Go one out of every three you bore, and the flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel will sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is needed for one Oil Well is equal to the Barter low Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $13 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, burning freely as Cannel.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little more than $200 to sink a well to the depth of 700 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $20 per day to work it after it is ready. Of the 60,000 shares of the New Hampshire Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more full and perfect character than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last two months in examining and selecting Oil Territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors MAYNARD and SHEPHERD, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands located throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Bell, of Mr. Bates, it will be only small wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if at any distance south of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is abundant room on each acre for 18 wells, and I have found for over three years the best computation of the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as they have been, would be only the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and your income from this Farm alone is equal to a million of dollars. Conclusions are not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Caldwell Creek empties into it. Parties have lately sunk a well right opposite this farm and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to buy back the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Coquet Well that flows 700 barrels daily, the Jersey that flows 80, the Hogin Shaw and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right angle. There is no better location, Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with its sucker rod in, and its pipe connected with a pumping derrick, it has flowed 230 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 3,200 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another Boston Company has sunk, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. It might well flow single, and between the Frazer and the one which has raised so high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and sunk rod it for a well. It is probably located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of 800,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On West Pit Hole, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with a excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 150 feet; at 160 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil will be found in sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they see fit, to make the Farm a fortune.

Circulars, prospectuses, &c., containing every information, will be furnished on application at the office of the Company, or sent by mail to parties wishing to subscribe. Apply to, or address

The properties of this Company consist of 648 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located and on near the great producing interests of the Company, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this Oil creek. This Company offer inducements not met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable oil lands the Company possess. There are three engines already at the wells. Our Agent at Titusville writes us that the well on the McElhany farm has commenced flowing, which places him beyond the reach of doubt of success. The Officers of this Company, in placing this property before the New England public, have full confidence that the inducements yet offered are superior, or any out of which larger and more certain dividends may at once be expected. See what the most popular and widely circulated periodicals say of our Establishment:

From the "Dispatch" of February 25, 1865.

We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the announcement of Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, Silver Ware, and Fancy Goods, in our advertising columns. We are personally acquainted with the members of this firm and know them to be gentlemen of staring worth and integrity. Their stock of goods, for variety and extent, we have scarcely seen paralleled.

From the "Mirror of Fashion," March 1, 1865.

Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, etc., opened on the 16th ult., and we venture to say that the fine display of goods made on exhibited by our establishment in toto city. The ladies thronged their bazaar almost to suffocation, although the streets were rendered nearly impassable by the melted snow and slush. We predict for them a wonderful success.

From the "Mirror of Fashion," February 28, 1865.

Our lady friends should visit the extensive establishment of Messrs. Devaugh & Co., No. 15 Maiden Lane, Boston, and make themselves acquainted with the splendid variety of goods, which they will long remember.—Such a profusion of elegant Watches, Chains, Rings, Brooches, Ear Drops, and a thousand other articles of every name, kind and description, we never before witnessed. Their silver and plated ware is surpassed almost equal to the goods made the other splendid establishments which have long been the boast of our city. It is estimated that their stock is worth not less than one million dollars.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it to a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.

Testimonials.

MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.

To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleaned my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.

MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink Powder you have given to the public. I have made Ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppo Galls, Sulphate of Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it, and have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation prevents my done now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it flow down freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.

Yours truly,
J. W. POLAND.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.

To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the brightest writing fluid I ever used I would not be without. I remain yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.

Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have twice tried to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.

I have introduced it into my school in this place, and I get a quantity of it, it works freely and a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
GEO. W. PARKER.

Deering, March 1, 1865.

To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.

Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: The Ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is on most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.

Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.

Ag. A. Wood, Brookline, N. H., March 6, 1865.

American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used a Moore's Mammoth Noyes', D. J. Ridout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.

Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 1865.

THE NATIONAL MOURNING DAY, as appointed by the President, will, in its religious exercises to-day, partake of sorrow at the loss of a good man and honest ruler, and also of joy at the close of that dreadful rebellion of which he was almost the last victim. The miserable mixture of slave oligarchy, state supremacy, and sham chivalry, which undertook to destroy our Union and crush Liberty,—has fallen to pieces, and must pass away.

At Concord, the State of New Hampshire will make its Memorial of Pres. Lincoln :—at Dover and Manchester, special services will take place under City auspices: and here, as in many other places, christian services of less pomp, but still of much interest, will be performed.

RECONSTRUCTION.—If the Constitution of North Carolina is to be altered at all, as it must be,—it should have been by a convention whose members should be chosen by the suffrage of all loyal citizens of full age, especially loyal soldiers of the republic. It is possible that the convention proposed may extend the suffrage to the freedmen,—but we deem it not very probable.

If North Carolina is to be reconstructed, by giving the elective franchise in choosing members of the Convention, to those persons only, who might vote under her constitution before the rebellion ; then South Carolina also we suppose can go on in the same way, on her old base, only leaving out slavery.—Of course, her representation in Congress must be hereafter apportioned on her whole population, all being now free. But her State Constitution not only shuts out black men from voting, but all white men except those who own certain property.

It is not to be expected, that the Aristocracy there, will vote in Convention to let the White Democracy vote at elections,—nor that they will admit the Black Democracy to be voters. If so, the result must be that a handful of men will send to Congress a full representation of members after their own heart; while a large majority of the loyal men of that State have no voice in its councils, and are not represented any where. This is not republican—certainly not Democratic!

We deem it probable, nevertheless, that the loyal native soldiers who have fought for the Union, will be ultimately made voters, as they ought to be, somehow and at some time :—but we think the easiest way, would be, to begin at the foundation, and let them vote for members of the conventions,—and the easiest time would be now. We have great confidence in the honesty and ability of the President and Cabinet, and do not for a moment distrust their good intentions in this matter. We confide also in the loyal people of the South, and loyal men in Congress. But above all, we regard the Absolute Right, and the Divine Law, and confide in the Supreme Lawgiver for a favorable issue out of every evil and error. It is always safe to do right. U. T.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—It now appears that after the conspirators' trial is ended, Jeff. Davis will be turned over to the Circuit Court of the District for trial for treason on the indictment already found against him. There is no truth in the rumor that the Government has refused to recognize the proceedings of the Court in this case? It is understood that they approve of it, as it is the only civil process by which Davis can be tried in Washington.

There have been objections to General Halleck's rule in Richmond, which the Washington Chronicle declares has been mostly in favor of the rebels, and therefore, General Halleck has been superseded by General Thomas. General Halleck is to be transferred to General McDowell's present command on the Pacific coast. The latter officer will probably come East.

Secretary Seward has fully resumed his official duties at the State Department. Fred. Seward is slowly but surely improving.

A Washington despatch reports the volunteer batteries are to be mustered out at once ; but it will probably be next week before any of the New England troops start for their respective homes.

☞ Perley telegraphs, from Washington, Wednesday,—that Sherman's troops have begun to move West, and all sales of liquor on their route are prohibited. The President is preparing a proclamation of peace, and cessation of military trials. Gen. Howard asks the aid of Societies to co-operate with the Freedmen's Bureau.

GOLD, Wednesday, 136 1-2 ; — Steamer Cuba, from New York, took $900,000 for Liverpool.

— A horrible bachelor asks if ladies in corsets mean staid women.

— New Orleans correspondents says Gen. Canby is making arrangements for the opening of the military lines to trade.

JEFF. DAVIS SAYING WELL DONE.—On Tuesday, at the Conspirator's Trial, Lewis F. Bates testified that he had resided in Charlotte, N. C., for the last four years. Jeff. Davis stopped at his house on the 19th of April and made an address from the steps. Davis received and read to the crowd a telegram from Gen. Breckinridge, dated Greensboro, April 19th, as follows:

"President Lincoln was assassinated in the Theatre on the night of the 14th. Secretary Seward's house was entered the same night and he was repeatedly stabbed and is probably mortally wounded."

Witness said that after reading the despatch to the crowd, Davis stated that "If it was to be done, it were better it were well done." The day after Breckinridge and Davis conversed in the house of witness on the subject of the assassination. Breckinridge remarked to Davis that he regretted it very much. It was unfortunate for the people of the South at that time. The regret seemed to be because of sympathy for the South and not because of the criminality of the act. Davis replied "Well General, I don't know; if it were to be done at all, it were better it were well done, and if the same were done to Andy Johnson, the beast, and Secretary Stanton, the job would then be complete."

J. C. Courtney, a telegraph operator, testified that the telegram in question passed over the wires.

— When Jeff. Davis made his triumphant entry into Montgomery, he threatened that the Yankees should feel Southern steel, but really, they didn't expect to find it in a hoop-skirt, says Prentice. Well, didn't Jeff. mean "steal," after all, for after stealing from the people and government all he could lay hands to, he tried to steal off himself, you know.

— A little girl, daughter of the proprietor of a baker shop in Biddeford, Me., was in the baking room last Saturday, playing with the machine for manufacturing crackers, when her hand got caught in it, and it was almost instantly severed from the arm at the wrist.

— The relief committee's registry books in Charleston contain the names of about fifteen thousand persons who have been regularly drawing weekly rations of rice since the occupation of that city by the national forces.

— A Pelham man named Rhodes was treated to a free ride on a rail at Enfield a few days ago, for insulting a contraband because he had joined a military company. He finally got down on his knees and asked the negro's forgiveness.

— Gloucester has put a very large number of men into the army and navy of the United States, during this terribly bloody war ; yet while there have been 286 lives lost in the fishing business from that place, during the past four years, the record of those who have been killed or died in the service is less than half that number. It thus appears that the town has suffered more from the perils of the ocean, than the ravages of war—a fact which would hardly be credited did not the statistics prove it.

—The Boston Transcript mentions a new and dangerous counterfeit of U. S. legal tenders. A most carefully executed counterfeit of the U. S. legal tender $100 greenback note has made its appearance, and is likely to disturb the circulation of the whole of that denomination of legal tenders on account of the perfection of its workmanship. It is hardly recognizable except by an expert, or on the closest examination, and passed thro' several Banks.

— The City Government of Boston has ordered all liquor shops to be closed to-day, from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. We wish they would them closed till Christmas, and then till Easter.

— The rebels Malory and Howell Cobb are under arrest.

— Recruiting for the U. S. army is going on so briskly among the slaves in Kentucky, that it bids fair to root out the institution there, before the abolition amendment reaches it.

— General Dodge, now in command at St. Louis, recently received a dispatch from General Sanborn, at Springfield, Illinois, announcing the capture of one Brownlow, an escaped rebel under sentence of death, and asking the disposition to be made of him. General Dodge at once telegraphed back the answer, "Shoot him immediately," and he was shot accordingly.

— It is a suggestive fact that out of 35,000 returned Union prisoners of war paid off during the last three months, not 1,000 were of the number of those taken prisoners in 1863, and at least 500 of those were paid in hospitals. It is known that, owing to the suspension of exchanges during 1864, a large number of prisoners were held by the rebels captured during the previous year. The evidence elicited on the present trial of the assassination conspirators explains where they are. Starvation and other diabolical outrages had placed them beyond the reach of exchange.

— Ancient chivalry wore a coat of mail ; modern chivalry a coat of fe-male.

☞ The Tribune says President Johnson's new Proclamation of Amnesty, will probably enable about half those who have been Rebels, but nowise conspicuous in the Rebellion, to take the prescribed oath of amnesty and become again recognized citizens of the United States, entitled to vote in all future elections. The other half, including all who have been Generals in the Armies or Embassadors, Congressmen, Judges, Governors, &c., &c., under the Rebel sway, must stand back awhile and give the lead to the masses; by which, we presume, loyal State Governments are to be organized ; but the magnates will generally be allowed also to take the oath and return to citizenship on special application, where no reason appears for refusing. This is but a step, and is taken with evident caution; we doubt not that other steps will soon follow if this works to the President's satisfaction.

MEXICO.—The advices from Matamoras state that Marshal Bazine will probably come speedily to the frontier, and most of the French troops remaining in Mexico will be ordered to the northern departments. Two divisions left for Nuevo Leon about the middle of April, and others had been ordered in that direction. The German and Belgian troops will be retained in the interior.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The City Council of Concord last Saturday evening, resolved "That the City Marshal be and hereby is instructed and required to enforce the laws relating to the sale of intoxicating liquors."—The city marshal has given notice to all interested, or supposed to be, that he shall do it. The Monitor says of it—"The sale even of ale and cider is interdicted, and all establishments are treated alike. It is a question of serious moment how long this unusual vigor in enforcing the laws is to be manifested." We think the Monitor is in error about cider, as the law allows the sale of it. The movement will be likely to prevent much drunkenness in Concord to-day.

REIMBURSEMENT.—A correspondent of the Monitor sends the following communication, which we copy for its good humor

I notice petitions in circulation asking the Legislature to reimburse the money paid by those individuals who availed themselves of the very lenient offer of the Government to escape service in the army. Now I am one of those individuals, who, in consequence of business and a natural dislike to be shot, availed myself of the very liberal terms of the Government, and procured a substitute, paying $300 out of my pocket, and considered it a good investment.

I hope, Mr. Editor, you will publish a list of the signers of these petitions, and that the Legislature will make an appropriation for their publication—in book form—for gratuitous circulation. It would make an excellent text book for the use of our veterans, should any of the petitioners become aspirants for office hereafter.

Respectfully yours, $300 OUT.

GEN. SHERMAN'S DISPATCHES.—The Washington Republican states that it is authoritively denied that any of the dispatches of General Sherman have ever been suppressed by the War Department; and it is also positively asserted that the particular dispatches publicly referred to recently, have never reached the War Office. The Secretary of War, in the action he took relative to Gen. Sherman's famous memorandum, has been unanimously sustained by the President and Cabinet in Cabinet meeting.

— A few days since a returned soldier purchased a new pair of boots at a store in Buffalo, and left his old ones, but some time after returned and called for them. When they were brought to him he ripped open the lining and took from beneath $1,550 in greenbacks, in denominations of $50, $500, and $1,000, which he had placed there and forgotten.

— Judge Bond of the Criminal Court of Maryland has decided that the Orphan's Courts have no right to apprentice negro children, on the ground that apprenticeship is nothing but slavery, which the constitution has abolished.

— The sentence of the two Albany bounty-jumpers ordered by military court-martial to be shot, has been commuted by General Dix to imprisonment for three years. They would have been shot if the war had not terminated.

— The cotton mills of Woonsocket, R. I., and of all the surrounding villages, are starting up. Their operations are impeded by the scarcity of operatives. Weavers especially are in great demand. During the stoppage of the mills caused by the war, men, girls and women have returned to the farms, got married, or gone into other business. The scarcity of "help" is the greatest obstacle the manufacturers have to contend with.

— Sheridan was at the Cincinnati Opera House Thursday evening, and was received with great enthusiasm. T. B. Read was called upon to read his poem, "Sheridan's Ride," and the modest but heroic rider was compelled at last to respond to the calls of the audience, and say a few words himself — Don't fail to read the advertisements, always. There is something in them of interest to every family. They will tell you where you can buy cheapest, for the man who advertises largely has large sales and can afford to sell cheaper than his neighbors.

A FEW REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "anores," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Elery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH (named P. S Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD, THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE.

By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
Tribune Correspondent.

The above work will embrace Mr. Richardson's unparallelled experience for four years: travelling through the South in the surest service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the War; with our armies and fleets both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture while running the batteries on the Mississippi River at Vicksburg, where more than half the companions were either killed or wounded; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers of North Carolina and Tennessee through the enemy's country to our lines.

This work presents a rare opening for both men and women, who desire lucrative employment.—For particulars address

☞ Ship J. Montgomery, Hamilton, arrived at Melbourne March 1st. We copy the following from a Melbourne paper to show what a narrow escape she had from the pirate Shenandoah:

Considerable excitement was manifested yesterday morning in Collins street, and till about noon it was supposed by many that the Shenandoah had made her first capture in Australian waters. The ship James Montgomery, with tobacco, kerosene, and lumber, from Boston—one of the American ships expected for some time past—was reported at five o'clock on the previous evening as being off Cape Otway, with a fair wind for the Heads. It was expected she would reach the entrance of the Bay at daylight, but as nothing was heard of her from Queenscliff at a late hour in the forenoon, the suspicion became strong that she had been pounced upon by the Confederate cruiser. This conjecture was supported by the fact that the owner of the James Montgomery is believed to be so thoroughly Federal in his principles that his ship would sail under the stars and stripes, and no other flag. Shortly before noon, however, anxiety was set at rest by the arrival of the ship, unseen and unmolested by the enemy. It was stated in town yesterday that the Shenandoah is at anchor in a bay on the Tasmanian coast, where she is having a double deck laid down, and being made stronger and more formidable as a fighting ship.

—In Washington Wednesday, the Police detectives of Baltimore, acting for the Post-Office Department, arrested Charles W. Spencer, clerk in the Post-Office in Washington, on the charge of having abstracted from the Department about $160,000 worth of U. S. Bonds and about $5000 worth of postage stamps. Spencer was taken before a Justice, and S. J. Bowen, the city Post-Master, appeared and made a statement in effect that the above-mentioned amounts have already been ascertained to be missing. In default of $100,000 in bail the prisoner was committed to jail for a further hearing. The detectives also arrested in Baltimore Wm. B. Cudlipp of Washington, charged with being an accomplice.

This was determined-ly resented and quiet was restored.

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,
$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the bile the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

Arrandale & Co., Manufacturers' Agents, 167 BROADWAY, NEW YORK,

Announce that all the above list of goods will be sold for One Dollar each.

In consequence of the great stagnation of trade in the Manufacturing districts of England, thro' the war having cut off the supply of cotton, a large quantity of Valuable Jewelry, originally intended for the English Market, has been sent off for sale in this country, AND MUST BE SOLD AT ANY SACRIFICE! Under these circumstances, ARRANDALE & CO., acting as agents for the principal European manufacturers, have resolved upon a GREAT GIFT DISTRIBUTION, subject to the following regulations:

Certificates of the various articles are first put into envelopes, sealed up and mixed; and when ordered, are taken out without regard to choice, and sent by mail, thus giving all a fair chance. On receipt of the certificate, you will see what you are to have, and then it is at your option to send the article and take its chance, or purchasers may thus obtain a Gold Watch, Diamond Ring, or any set of Jewelry on our list for ONE DOLLAR.

Send 25 Cents for a Certificate.

In all transactions by mail, we shall charge for forwarding the Certificates, paying postage and doing the business, 25 cents each, which must be inclosed when the Certificate is sent for. Five Certificates will be sent for $1, eleven for $2, thirty for $5 sixty-five for $10, and a hundred for $15.

AGENTS.—We want agents in every regiment, and in every town and County in the country, and to those acting, as such we will forward 25 cents on every Certificate ordered by them, provided their remittance amounts to one dollar.—Agents will collect 25 cents for every Certificate, and remit 15 cents to us, either in cash or in postage stamps. ARRANDALE & CO.,

mh7Dlaw&Wsm 167 Broadway, N. Y.

What the "Press" say of us.

GREAT GIFT DISTRIBUTION.—A rare opportunity is offered for obtaining watches, chains, diamond rings, silverware, etc., by Messrs Arrandale & Co., at No. 167 Broadway. They have an immense stock of articles, varying in value and all are offered at one dollar each. The distribution is very fairly done—you agree to take a certificate for certain articles, enclose it in an envelope, and are not required to pay your dollar unless you are satisfied with the article, which will certainly be worth more than a dollar, and it may be $50 or $100. An excellent mode this of investing a dollar.—Sunday Times, N. Y. City, Feb. 16, '65.

Messrs. Arrandale & Co. have long been personally known to us, and we believe them to be every way worthy of public confidence. — N. Y. Sporting Gazette, Journal, Feb. 18, '65.

We have inspected, at the office of Arrandale & Co's Agency for European Manufacturing Jewelers, a large assortment of fashionable and valuable jewelry of the latest patterns. We also noticed a large quantity of silver plate, and understand that the whole of these newly imported articles are to be disposed of on a novel principle, giving great advantages to buyers, and affording extensive employment to agents. We know the firm in question to be very respectable and thoroughly worthy of public confidence and recommend our friends to read their advertisement.—N. Y. Albion, Sept. 3, 1864.

By Messrs. Arrandale & Co.'s arrangement, the advantages must be on the customer, for he has everything to gain, and nothing comparatively to lose. He knows what he will get for his dollar beforehand, and he need not send it if he is not satisfied.—N. Y. Weekly News, Aug. 6, 1864.

EMPLOYMENT FOR LADIES.—The most eligible and profitable employment we have heard of for ladies is the sale of certificates for the "Great Gift Distribution" of Arrandale & Co. A lady of our acquaintance has been very successful in this way, not only in filling her own purse, but also in doing a good turn to those to whom she sold the Certificates, as will be seen from our advertising columns. Gentlemen can also be thus engaged.—N. Y. Sunday Mercury, Aug. 14, 1864.

In our columns, the reader will find an advertisement of Arrandale & Co's Gift Distribution watches, jewelry, and silver-ware. In payment of that advertisement we received several sets of the jewelry advertised, and we can warrant in saying that, both in finish and quality, they quite exceeded our expectations. They turned out to be just what they had been represented.—True Democrat, (Lewistown,) Aug. 17, 1864.

The British Whig of Kingston, C. W., says, Nov. 26, 1864, one of our subscribers became an agent for Arrandale & Co., and by persuasion, got some twenty articles, sent as prizes for her agency, to this office for inspection, and without hesitation we can state that each and all of the articles were worth treble the amount of cost to the recipients, and some of them six times.

We have seen some very pretty specimens of Table and Tea Spoons, Gold Watches, Ladies' Chains, Pins, Bracelets, etc., which have been sent by Arrandale & Co., to this place for 25 cents.—Angelina Reporter, N. Y. State, Feb 15, 1865.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a great deal of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full account of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, or more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents,

Mr. R. B. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, so no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes —of the—

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fine or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Nise, and others.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their mind a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, has been known to our leading capitalists interested in starting this company as a man strictly honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum business, and we solicited his aid in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. F. Page, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel E. Lancaster, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, Cornplanter Oil Creek, and Allegany river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the limits and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty six millions of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Harris, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, J. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The lay of the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, there Creek running quietly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells on account of its level lay.

The oil boils run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which innumerable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 600 barrels per day—the Fountain 200—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well sell for a million.

It is believed by good judge that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the Blackstone Tinker Farm. On that section is worth $13 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, burning free of sulphur.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $6.00 to sink a well to the depth of 100 feet, and two to four days time. It costs $20 per day to work it after it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Petroleum Company, says of the Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and comprising golden veins, instead of a more full and perfect character than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting Oil Territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors HAYES and SHEPERD, geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells on Cornplanter Oil Belt, and your income from this Farm alone is over one million of dollars. The Company do not intend to sink a single well on this farm, the facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the mouth of Cornplanter Creek, on East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek. They have had only sunk a few shallow wells here and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great sums, depending upon the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. Its about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Coquet Well that flows 700 barrels daily, the Jersey that flows 300, the Maple Shade and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on Pit Hole Creek, and it is expected they will be flowed about the middle of January, and with its sucker rod in, and its pipe seven-eighths full of machine-oil, it will flow 200 barrels per day ever since. They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 3,200 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another fine well has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, that does not flow low enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther north the same company, the United States, in putting down a well that looks strongly better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In sight of the spouting wells, and between the Frazer and the United States, there are no high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod fit for a well. It is splendidly located, and abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find in it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet Well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On West Pit Hole, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

Circulars, prospectuses, &c., containing every information, will be furnished on application at the office of the Company, or sent by mail to parties wishing to subscribe. Apply or to address

The properties of this Company consist of 643 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Pa., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing interests of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable oil lands the Company possesses. Three engines are already at the wells. Our Agent at Titusville writes us that the well on the McElhany farm is now commencing, and pronounced by all who have seen it, to be a glossy, unfading, durable metallic coat, protecting wood from decay, and iron or other metals from rust or corrosion.

See what the most popular and widely circulated periodicals say of our Establishment:
From the "Dispatch" of Saturday, 25, 1863.
We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the announcement of Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, Silver Ware, and Fancy Goods, in our advertising columns. We are personally acquainted with the members of this firm and know them to be gentlemen of sterling worth and integrity. Their stock of goods, for variety and extent, we have scarcely seen parralled.
From the "Mirror of Fashion," March 1, 1865.
Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, etc., opened on the 15th ult., and we venture to say that no finer display of goods was ever exhibited by any establishment in this city. The ladies thronged their bazaar almost to suffocation, although the streets were rendered nearly impassable by the melted snow and slush. We predict for them a wonderful success.
From the "Ledger," February 28, 1865.
Our lady friends should visit the extensive establishment of Messrs. Devaugh & Co., No. 15 Malden Lane, if they would be delighted beyond with a sight which they will long remember.—Such a profusion of elegant Watches, Chains, Rings, Earrings, and in short, of Jewelry of every name, kind and description, we never before witnessed. Their silver and plated ware is superb, and almost casts into the shade the other splendid establishments which have long been the boast of our city. It is estimated that their stock is worth not less than one million dollars.

How You Can Get a Prize.
Send Twenty-five Cents to us, and as soon as we receive it we will send you a Certificate showing what you are entitled to. Agents are wanted in the Army and in every place.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.

Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleaned my inkstands for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppo galls, double iron and gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. We have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my customers say it is gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid once and it broke the bottle freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write much faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. FOLSOM.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used I would not be without. I remain yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had a quantity of it, it would fill a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a priority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of Ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 12, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moor's Mount Ararat Noyes', D. J. Sidcout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

SATURDAY, JUNE 3, 1865.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—It is said to be decided to surrender Jeff. Davis into the hands of the civil authorities.

Brown, late Rebel Governor of Georgia, has been released on parole.

Congressman Benjamin G. Harris was sentenced to three years imprisonment and a forfeiture of all political rights. The President has approved the finding of the court, but remitted the sentence. Mr. Harris has been released.

It is confidently stated that Secretary Stanton would have retired from the Cabinet but for the Sherman imbroglio.

THE SURRENDER OF KIRBY SMITH saves the government from a Texas campaign. General Grant was confident of the surrender from the first, and was very much surprised at the obstinacy of Smith. Preparations for an overwhelming campaign have been making for the last two or three weeks, and the surrender saves the government, to say the least, $100,000,000. A larger and more rapid reduction of military and naval forces may be made than was contemplated, and expenditures of the government will also be brought down to a peace establishment. It is probable that the army will soon be reduced to a hundred thousand men, instead of a hundred and sixty thousand. This army would be adequate to the duty of frontier and border defence, and also of protecting the loyal efforts, in the southern States, for the restoration of the Union, and of holding in subjection the rebel elements that may there still exist.

— Widow Hannah Cooper of Hamden, Conn., over 70 years old and entirely blind, has knit during the last three years eighty-eight pairs of stockings for our soldiers, which she has given without any compensation whatever. She can only knit by counting each stitch as it is taken, and if she loses her count, she has to ask some one to tell her where she is before she continues her work.

☞ Of the Fast Day Mourning Celebration in Boston we have hardly time to say more than that it was, in the street an immense display; and in the churches, devotional exercises of the most interesting and appropriate character.

— In Marblehead, on Monday night last, Mr. Thomas Nicholson committed suicide by stretching himself out upon his face in a stream of water six inches deep which runs beneath the flooring of the cellar of his house.

— The Connecticut Senate has passed a bill exacting a fine of $100, and 30 days' imprisonment, in the cases of persons convicted of defacing bridges, rocks, &c., with advertisements of quack nostrums and the like.

— Mr. Howard, the proprietor of the City Hotel in Portland, who was recently arrested on the charge of uttering treasonable language, has been acquitted after examination.

— The Lewiston Journal says the fines assessed on the gentlemen who made Nason of Greene walk under the flag, were paid by a contribution of the by-standers present in court.

— A young child of Mr. Brooks, living on Main Street, Saco, fell out of a window, a distance of 15 feet to the sidewalk. It was picked up considerably frightened, and but little hurt.

☞ The United States Service Magazine for June 1865, is published by Charles B. Richardson, New York. The next number will begin vol. 4.

— Rev. Mr. Chickering, of Portland, has been called to be pastor of the 2d Congregational Church in Exeter.

— The caterpillars and canker-worms are making sad work with the apple trees all about.

— President Johnson has decided to permit the soldiers to retain their arms and deposit them in the several State arsenals.

— Judge Catron, Associate Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, died at Nashville, Tenn., Tuesday evening.

There is no safer protection against burglars than to feed your baby before going to bed with green apples.

At one of our bookstores a lady customer inquired for second hand children's school-books. She was probably a stepmother.

A cotemporary calls Jeff. Davis the shero of the Confederacy.

What was done to Jeff? He was "yanked" out of his wife's clothes.

Never go to see dogs fight; but if you do, kick the biggest dog.

Never go fishing on Sunday; but if you do, be sure and bring home the fish.

A calico bawl—Jeff. Davis' last cry for quarters.

— About 200,000 men are to be mustered out of the U. S. army this month.

GOLD, Friday, 138 1-2 to 137 1-2.

☞ The public services at Concord, in honor of the memory of President Lincoln, on Thursday, formed one of the grandest pageants in the history of the Old Granite State; and proved that our people stand firm as the hills in defence of liberty and good government. The extensive and comprehensive arrangements were carried out in the best manner; and the complete success of the whole affair reflects the highest credit on the retiring Executive of the State, and his most efficient and devoted assistant, Adjt. Gen'l Head.

The Procession was very extensive and imposing, but we can give no details this morning. Suffice it to say, now, that all was carried out according to the design announced; and the thousands of strangers from all parts of the State, who thronged the capital on that lovely day, enjoyed the sadly-glorious occasion in a most appropriate manner.

After the march of the Procession, the exercises at the stand commenced with a dirge by Hall's Boston Band; after which the 90th Psalm was chanted by the children of the Public Schools, under the direction of Profs. Davis & Morey, accompanied by the Band. Prayer was offered by President Smith, of Dartmouth College. The Requiem written by Albert Laighton was sung by the children. After which, Hon. James W. Patterson, M. C., the Orator of the Day, delivered in his usual finished and impressive manner, a most scholarly, eloquent, and intensely thrilling oration. The familiar hymn "America" was then sung by the vast assembly, after which a benediction was pronounced by Rev. Dr. Burroughs.

CURIOUS ITEMS.—The Boston Herald's Business Record of Wednesday says:

There is nothing of interest in financial matters to-day. The gold market is slightly lower, but not enough to frighten the hoarders or bring buyers into market. The market for Government securities is firm, but the demand is injured by the fear of capitalists that the debt will be paid off by voluntary subscription.

The Herald adds:

The stock market is dull. Both "bulls" and "bears" are quiet. The principal talk on 'Change is the magnanimity of the newspapers in coming down so early—a trick for which there is no parallel.

The trick may be unparalleled—but there is no magnanimity in the matter. The coming down was begun by the Courier, which was so hated by many persons, and so despised by many more, on account of its copperhead editorials, that its sale was reduced very low, and its advertising had well nigh died out. A "change of base" was indispensable: the editor-in-chief left; the News of the Day stood forward; the copperhead items were made less prominent and put in smaller type; and to get up some circulation the price was put down. And several of the other Boston Dailies, who depend mainly on the miserable, despicable policy of sales for a circulation, have (we think very foolishly) followed suit, and put down their prices also; tho' the Post in doing so, suggested that there was no good reason for the step, as all expenses remained about the same.

☞ "Our Martyred President" is the title of a new Poem by Mrs. P. A. Hanaford, to which is added other Poems by the same talented Poetess. The work is got up in the best style, by the Riverside press; illustrated by a fine steel engraving of Mr. Lincoln, which Portrait itself is worth the price of the book. It is one of the neatest and most charming little books of the kind called forth by the death of our lamented President. 24 pages octavo. Price 25c. B. B. Russell & Co., Publishers, No. 55 Cornhill, Boston.

— Dr. J. A Davis of Chicago, a prominent physician, states that a Rebel surgeon, who had for four years occupied the position of Assistant Medical Director of the Army of Northern Virginia, told him that Union prisoners in the Rebel hospitals had been vaccinated with venereal matter, and that this accounted for the frightful sores on the bodies of so many of them.

— The Secretary of War has directed that all returned Union prisoners who have endured the hardship of incarceration at Andersonville, or any of the barbarous dungeons of the South, be immediately discharged the service, and that they receive three months' extra pay.

— The U. S. Adjutant General has informed Gen. Meade that those regiments which have continued their organizations by recruiting, after their original term of service had expired, are to be retained as veteran regiments. It is understood that all the volunteers from the Free States will be discharged from the service, except the veterans.

— Benjamin Lee Guinness, a brewer of Dublin, has just restored the Episcopal cathedral of St. Patrick in that city, at the expense of $750,000, all defrayed from his own private purse.

— Why is a thief your only true philosopher? Because he regards everything from an abstract point of view, is opposed to all notions of protection, and is open to Conviction!

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by UNCLE TOBY.

Tea-Tax opposed in Portsmouth.—Tea Re-shipped.

At a Town Meeting in Portsmouth April 12th, 1774, the town instructed their representatives to use their influence in the General Assembly, to join with the other colonies in every constitutional method to oppose the claim of Parliament to tax us without our consent, and to keep up a continual correspondence with them for that purpose; to abolish the Court of Appeals, and also to employ their efforts, that the Justices of the courts of law should hold their offices during good behaviour, and not at the will of the crown; that adequate salaries should be granted to the Justices of the Superior Court; that they strenuously oppose any salary being granted to either of the Justices of the courts of law independent of this government; that they should take the opinion of the Judges and some lawyers as to the operation of any law of consequence, which they are about to pass; that good roads be made to the interior part of the province; that laws be passed to prohibit the importation of slaves; that secure places be provided for the records of the several offices; that the fees in all public offices be established by law; that enquiry be made concerning the application of all money granted for the use of the government, especially the powder money; that the representatives be chosen annually, and that their doors should be open to all who choose to hear their debates.

On the 25th of June, 1774, twenty-seven chests of tea, subject to the duty, were landed and stored in the custom-house, before the inhabitants had knowledge of it. A town-meeting was held on the 27th, which appointed a guard to keep the tea secure, and to prevent insults being offered to any individual on account of it. Upon consultation with Edward Parry, Esq., the consignee, it was agreed that he should reship the tea, and a committee was chosen to see this agreement executed. The tea having been entered, the consignee paid the duty upon it openly, which was necessary before it could be reshipped. The Governor used every precaution to preserve the peace of the town, and every thing remained quiet. The tea was reshipped and sent to Halifax.

A committee of inspection was appointed to examine and find out if any tea should be imported, and upon the discovery of any, to give the earliest notice thereof to the town.

Seven deputies were chosen the 15th of July, 1774, "to meet the deputies from the other towns in the province, to elect a delegate to the General Congress, which is to meet at Philadelphia the 1st of September next."

The inhabitants entered into an agreement in writing, which was generally signed, by which they pledged their faith and honour, "that they will not import, sell, purchase, or consume any kinds of East India teas, nor suffer the same to be used or consumed in their respective families, until the present duties be taken off."

September 8th, 1774, the ship Fox, commanded by Captain Zachariah Norman, arrived here, having on board thirty chests of tea, consigned to Edward Parry, Esq., which caused some disturbance in the town, the populace broke the windows of the consignee, and he applied to the Governor for protection. The Governor convened the Council, and required the aid of the magistrates and other civil officers to suppress the riot, which was soon effected.

The town assembled the next day, and Edward Parry, Esq., being present, publicly declared that he would not accept the consignment of said tea, nor have any thing to do with it; and Captain Norman promised, that he would at his own expense reship said tea, and send it to Halifax. A committee was appointed to guard the tea, and see it sent off; who reported that it was shipped on board another vessel; and that they saw the vessel with the tea on board outside of Fort Point.

On the 10th of October, 1774, the town "voted to give two hundred pounds for the relief of the industrious poor of Boston and Charlestown, under the oppression that they now suffer, from the port of Boston being blocked up by an act of the British Parliament."

A very numerous committee was chosen to keep up the good order and quiet of the town, and to examine into every matter, that may appear unfriendly to the interest of the community.

☞ We are glad to see that our old friend Place, of the Rochester (N. H.) Courier, has been appointed Postmaster of that lively town—a position he richly merits, is well qualified for, and will fill to general acceptance.

An old gentleman accused his servant of having stolen his stick. The man protested perfect innocence. "Why, you know," rejoined his master, "that the stick could never have walked off with itself." "Certainly not, sir, unless it was a walking-stick."

A FEW REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "anchres," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Elliory) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH (named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD, THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE.

By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

Tribune Correspondent.

The above work will embrace Mr. Richardson's unparallelled experience for four years: travelling through the South in the secret service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the War; with our armies and fleets both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture while running the batteries on the Mississippi River at Vicksburg, where more than half his companions were either killed or wounded; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers of North Carolina and Tennessee through the enemy's country to our lines.

This work presents a rare opening for both men and women, who desire lucrative employment.—For particulars address

Local.

☞ The Concord train from this city, Fast morning, took out a large number of passengers—military from the Forts, the High School Cadets, Masons, Odd Fellows, and citizens in crowds; and they gathered them in at every station—at the Junction taking in several hundreds from Dover, &c. At Manchester of course there was a large accession; and the doubled-up train took about 3000 people into Concord. Conductor Wm. H. Alexander put the great train through in good style, to Manchester; whence Conductor Jim Jones was jointly in charge, and of course things had to go.

☞ The long and crowded train from this city for Concord, Thursday morning, with two engines, ran over a cow near Raymond; all the train passing over her, but fortunately doing no damage to the precious freight.

☞ The Portsmouth Cornet Band, C. H. Tompson leader, were employed by the City of Boston on Fast Day; and were given the position of honor too, being placed in the division of City Officials, &c. The Odd Fellows of this city applied too late, for them to go to Concord with them.

SINGING SCHOOL.—Mr. E. A. Joy's Summer Term of Juvenile Classes in Singing will commence This (Saturday) Afternoon, June 3d, at Mercantile Hall,—the beginners at 2, and the older scholars at 3 o'clock. Mr. Joy's School has now become a necessity, and is one of the most valuable institutions for children and young misses in the city.

POLICE COURT, May 31.—Joseph Varney, alias John Jones, arraigned for breaking and entering a dwelling-house, was bound over in the sum of $400.

Wm. Fanning next appeared to answer to a charge of shop-lifting, and as the matter now stands, it looks very much as tho' William might be furnished with a boarding-place for some time to come, at the expense of the State. It is said that he is an old practitioner at the business. He gave the officers of the law some trouble after his arrest, by escaping from police officer Parks, who pursued him through a number of streets, when the runaway was espied by Mr. Samuel Twombly, at his work shingling on the roof of a house near the Portsmouth Steam Mill, who chased him over fences, across gardens and through streets, until he caught him. Officers Johnson, Fredson and Abbott found in the house which Fanning occupied a large box of clothing, together with many articles of dry goods, the result of his efforts for the last few weeks. He has two or three accomplices, one of which is his sister. He was bound over in the sum of $600 to await his trial at the October Court.

Fannie Fanning, for larceny, was also bound over in the same amount, and in default of bail both were committed to jail. Great credit is due the police in ferreting out the above, and bringing them to justice.

Robert Davidson, for being drunk, was fined $3, and costs $3.86. Committed.

George Parks, (not the policeman) for the privilege of making a brawl and tumult, was fined $3, and $3.86 costs. Being in funds, he paid up.

Michael Long, who had long been drunk, was fined $3, and costs $3.86. His finances being in an unhealthy condition, he was unable to meet this sudden claim, and so a mittimus was issued in his behalf.

James McClellan, for getting drunk, was fined $3.00 and cost $3 86.

Three sturdy sons of Ireland—James Foley, Eugene Coffee and Patrick Haley—were arrested for brawl and tumult on the evening of the National Fast, and as night succeeds the day and darkness the light, so a night of sorrow followed a day of (to them) unspeakable bliss, and when the morning dawned and all around seemed blithe and gay, our Celtic friends by contrasting their condition with that of the birds, dogs, cats, rats, men, women, and other animals, were compelled to cry out like one of old, "it is too rough, it is too rough." At the appointed hour, they were led forth toward the Police Court, Foley folding his arms, Coffee coughing by the way and Haley bailing every person he met until they confronted Judge Odell, who after hearing the merits of the case, fined them $3.00 and $2.44 costs each.

☞ The sale of the Sparhawk place at Kittery Point, to-day, will be well worth the attention of those seeking a most beautiful and convenient residence. The Kittery Point Omnibus leaves Market Square at 10 3-4 o'clock.

☞ We don't know what that drum was "parading round, and round, and round," for, yesterday, unless it was because our old friend D. G. Waldron, of the Alleghanians, has arrived home.

It is a very strong, clear picture; and is pronounced by those who knew Mr. Lincoln well, to be an accurate and excellent likeness of that great and good man.

—— A note from the War Department, directed to Gov. Gilmore, dated June 30, says: "An order has been issued directing all volunteer artillery in the Armies of the Potomac, Tennessee and Georgia to be immediately mustered out and discharged the service of the United States."

"We are the spoiled children of Europe," said a clever Frenchman. "Every nation learns our language, so that we do not trouble ourselves to learn theirs." The French regard other modern tongues pretty much as the ancient Romans did those of the conquered barbarians. "Those unlucky English!" continued the Frenchman, "they eat half their words, and they have no orthography and no grammar."

— On Wednesday night the large Balmoral Skirt Factory of Jedidiah Wilcox & Co., in Meriden, Ct., was entirely destroyed by fire. Loss $300,000; insurance $250,000.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. THE NATIONAL FAST.

The quiet observance of the day dedicated to the memory of the departed Lincoln, in this city, was more in accordance with the spirit of the proclamation, than the enthusiastic displays which were made in many other places. We fully accord in the protest made in one of our pulpits on that day, against making the day one of public display and rejoicing—such as the celebration of the return of Peace might naturally call forth, and such as will everywhere be seen on the approaching anniversary of our National Independence.

The day was appropriately observed by services in the Episcopal and Catholic churches. In the Unitarian church, an admirable discourse was delivered by Rev. Mr. DeNormandie on the personal character of President Lincoln, the cause of the rebellion, its history, and our duty in victory.

In the Middle Street Baptist church, Rev. Mr. Lane selected as text, "The memory of the just is blessed." We can hardly do him justice in an imperfect sketch from recollection.

POTATOES FIVE YEARS OLD.—Not exactly, for they renew themselves annually. In 1830, on the farm of Samuel Langdon, Esq., in putting out some grape vines, one was stuck into a long red potato to aid its rooting. The potato of course grew, whether the grape did or not. It was in a warm locality, a covering of leaves protected it from frost, and the roots were not disturbed for five years. This spring they were dug. The potatoes were changed to the round form, and there was but little appearance of the original red. They resembled the Riley. They came to the table very mealy, and of excellent quality. This shows that potatoes buried below the frost can be kept in better order than in cellars.

TO SMOKERS.—We have been shown this week a patent pipe, which those who indulge in the weed will appreciate. The bowl is so arranged as to catch and retain all the droppings, condensed vapor, &c. which commonly run directly into the tube and then to the mouth; and at the same time the very simple arrangement serves to cool the smoke before it is inhaled. A very nice arrangement. Nevertheless, we think that an invention to do smoking altogether by machinery would be better. Mr. C. Dwight Hanscom is agent for their sale. He is an "Old Soldier" himself, wounded in the service.

NEW PUBLICATION.

Read what the Boston Advertiser of the 27th inst., says of that splendid work entitled, "Four Years in Secessia, or Adventures within and beyond the Union Lines."

"ADVENTURES WITHIN AND BEYOND THE UNION LINES is the title of a narrative written by Junius Henri Browne, one of the Tribune correspondents, who has spent four years with our armies in gathering details of camp life and field experience, and who was captured while running the rebel batteries at Vicksburg. His daring, enterprising spirit and his forcible and graphic style in writing, will without doubt render it a book valued by every household."

This intensely interesting record of one of the most reliable correspondents of the leading papers of the Union—"The New York Tribune," will be sold by subscription only, and cannot be bought at the Bookstores. C. Dwight Hanscom, a disabled soldier, is sole Agent for the sale in Portsmouth.

We know him well, and published a series of letters from him while he was in active service, which were perused with intense interest by his many friends; he is well known and worthy, and we recommend all who want a book of facts, about the late war, to subscribe for the book at once.

DARTMOUTH COLLEGE, May 27, 1865.

Messrs. Editors.—Since last we penned a line to your worthy paper, many have been the changes and joyful the news that have come to us. We would not waive the consideration of the cheering prospects in relation to our country, so many and so gladdening. Nature, even, as tho' conscious that "swords are to be beaten into ploughshares," seems to have arrayed herself in beautiful attire, to charm the returning veteran and to yield the bountiful fruits of peace. As students, we rejoice with those that rejoice; and especially do we rejoice in the labors and their results of our very worthy President.

The Gymnasium, heretofore a "castle in the air," is about to descend and be located upon terra firma at Dartmouth. Through the munificence of George H. Bissell, Esq., of the city of New York, a magnificent edifice of granite, at an expense of $15,000, is immediately to be erected. Mr. Bissell was a graduate of the class of 1846. It is proposed in the stipulation, that the building be elegant, and thoroughly finished with all the latest improvements. Horatio N. Twombly, Esq., an alumnus of the class of 1854, and Warren D. Cookin, Esq., of 1830, have recently given each a scholarship of $1,000. Thus improves our fiscal condition as the change rattles in our coffers.

JUNIOR.

ABOLISHMENT OF IMPRISONMENT FOR DEBT.—This law which stands upon our statute book, is barbarous, and ruinous in execution both to debtor and creditor. It certainly is at variance with our liberal institutions.—It is highly discreditable for the creditor to imprison a debtor who is unable to pay, thereby taking the debtor's means of support of an innocent family.

As we understand the law, it is only a punishment for fraud, and can only be used on a person who has the means, but will not pay a just debt. Any man who is arrested for debt has the privilege of going before a justice before he is committed, and on taking oath that he has not the means to pay the demand, will be released. If he cannot take the oath and is committed, the creditor is chargeable with his board so long as he is kept in imprisonment. Imprisonment for debt is now of so rare occurrence that the law is of very little injury to any one. No honest man can be imprisoned by it—its existence may sometimes be a check to fraudulent transactions.

COOL.—What more refreshing in a warm day than a glass of good Soda, such as flows from the beautiful fountain at Mr. PARSON'S. There is something truly refreshing in the looks of that cool marble,—and those tubes in front seem to become musical when the tune of "frix—frix—frix," is heard in the goblet. There is some mistake in grammarians not making "frix" the preterit of "froze."

DR. OLIVER and lady, passengers in the China, have arrived home from their European visit. The Doctor may be found at his former residence at the Rockingham House.

Arrandale & Co. Manufacturers' Agents, 167 BROADWAY, NEW YORK,

Announce that all the above list of goods will be sold for One Dollar each.

In consequence of the great stagnation of trade in the Manufacturing districts of England, and throughout the war having cut off the supply of cotton, a large quantity of Valuable Jewelry, originally intended for the English Market, has been sent off for sale in this country, AND MUST BE SOLD AT ANY SACRIFICE! Under these circumstances, ARRANDALE & CO. have been enabled to secure, at a great saving, the choice, and send by mail, thus giving all a fair chance. On receipt of the certificate, you will see what you are to have, and then it is at your option to send the dollar and take the article or not. Purchasers may thus obtain a Gold Watch, Diamond Ring, or any set of Jewelry on our list for ONE DOLLAR.

Send 25 Cents for a Certificate.

In all transactions by mail, we shall charge for forwarding the Certificate, 25 cents, postage and doing the business, 25 cents each, which must be inclosed when the Certificate is sent for. Five Certificates will be sent for $1, twenty for $4, thirty for $5 sixty-five for $10, and a hundred for $15.

AGENTS.—We want agents in every regiment, and in every town and village in the country, and those acting as such will be allowed 10 cents on every Certificate ordered by them, provided their remittance is for one dollar.—Agents will collect 25 cents for every Certificate, and remit 15 cents to us, either in cash or in postage stamps. What the "Press" say of us.

GREAT GIFT DISTRIBUTION.—A rare opportunity is offered for obtaining watches, chains, diamond rings, silverware, etc., by Messrs. Arrandale & Co., at No. 167 Broadway, N. Y. They have an immense stock of articles, varying in value, and all are offered at one dollar each. The distribution is very fairly done—you have to take a certificate of a certain article, enclosed in an envelope, and are not required to pay your dollar unless you are satisfied that the article which will certainly be worth more than that amount, and may be $50 or $100. An excellent mode this of investing a dollar.—Sunday Times, N. Y. City, Feb. 19, '65.

Messrs. Arrandale & Co. have long been personally known to us, and we believe them to be every way worthy of public confidence.—N. Y. Scottish American Journal, June 11, 1864.

We have inspected, at the office of Arrandale & Co.'s Agency for Enroe's Manufacturing Jewellery, a large number of valuable and valuable jewelry of the newest patterns. We also noticed a large quantity of silver plate, and understand that the sale of these newly imported articles are to be disposed of on a novel principle, giving great advantages to buyers, and affording extensive facilities to agents. We know the firm in question to be very respectable and thoroughly worthy of public confidence and recommend our friends to call at their advertisement.—N. Y. Albion, Sept. 3, 1864.

By Messrs. Arrandale & Co.'s arrangement, the advantages must be on the customer, for he has everything to gain, and nothing comparatively to lose. He knows what he will get for his dollar beforehand, and he need not send it if he is not satisfied.—N. Y. Weekly News, Aug. 6, 1864.

EMPLOYMENT FOR LADIES.—The most eligible and profitable employment we have heard of for ladies is the sale of certificates for the "Great Gift Distribution" of Arrandale & Co. A lady of our acquaintance has been very successful in this way, not only in filling her own purse, but also in doing a great turn to those to whom she sold the Certificates, as will be seen from our advertising columns. Gentlemen can also be thus engaged.—N. Y. Sunday Mercury, Aug. 14, 1864.

In our columns, the reader will find an advertisement of Arrandale & Co.'s Gift Distribution watches, jewelry, and silver-ware. In payment of that advertisement we received several sets of the jewelry advertised, and we are warranted in saying that, both in finish and quality, they quite exceeded our expectations. They turned out to be just what they had been represented.—True Democrat, (Lewistown,) Aug. 17, 1864.

The British Week of Kingston, C. W., says, Nov. 26, 1864, one of our subscribers informs us, an agent for Arrandale & Co., and by request brought some twenty articles, sent as prizes for her agency, to this office for inspection, and without hesitation we can state that each and all of the articles were worth treble the amount of cost to the recipients, and some of them six times.

We have seen some very pretty specimens of Table and Tea Spoons, Gold Watches, Ladies' Chains, Pins, Bracelets, etc., which have been sent by Arrandale & Co., to this office for $1 each.—Angelica Reporter, N. Y. State, Feb. 15, 1865.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.

76 State street, opposite Kilby street, Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE TEST OF THE ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary of a Journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN application, on all but one of which Patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all persons to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, AND OF THE THREE, ENTIRE, which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings

to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as the purity of air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some the ablest business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful in the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to some of the gentlemen prominent in starting this company as a man strictly honest, conscious, and experienced in the Petroleum regions, and was solicited to aid in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col B. F. Martin, Hon. Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 3 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel E. Sickles, Esq., 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Alleghany river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, a Governor Curtin says in his Message, fifty six million of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Harris, Esq., a well-to-do man who has been elected Clerk of District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make farther examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, that the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The lay of the land is beautiful for Oil. High lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and such undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which immensurable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 1000 barrels per day—the Fountain 200—the Parker 250—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, and that is not good for coal, is equal to the Flats below Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $13 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune itself. It is spleen, did coal, burning freely as Cannel.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the wells, and the average yield 60 barrels. It costs a little less than $6000 to sink a well to the depth of 700 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $50 per day to work it after it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of the Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more full and perfect character than those which I have examined in Pennsylvania. I spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting Oil Territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors MAYNARD and SHEPARD, Geologists of eminence, are of the opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Mr. Bates, Professor Wale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There are wells pumping on Oil Creek for 13 wells, and on this farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation of the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as they are expected, if they only yield the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and your income from this farm and the pumping wells, is of millions of dollars. This Company do not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek, and about two miles from the place where the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek. They have lately sunk a well right opposite this farm and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Coquet Well that flows 150 barrels daily, and has a timber 500 feet in Maple Shade and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement at Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with its sucker rod in, and its pipe not quite full of water, yesterday, it has flowed 230 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 3,200 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another fine well has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In other words, the Creek flows between the Frazer and the one which has raised so high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod is good, or as well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we can find oil. It is strongly superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $60,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On WEST PIT HOLE, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close by. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly."

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil will yet be found on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

The properties of this Company consist of 842 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing interests of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable oil lands, the Company possesses. Three engines are already at the wells. Our Agent at Titusville writes us that the well on the McElhany farm has commenced flowing, which places this Company beyond a doubt of success. The Officers of this Company, in placing the property before the public and general public, have full confidence that no properties yet offered are superior, or any out of which larger and more certain dividends may at once be expected. See what the most popular and widely circulated periodicals say of our Establishment:
From the "Daughter of Fashion," March 25, 1865.
We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the announcement of Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, Silver Ware, and Fancy Goods, in our advertising columns. We are personally acquainted with the members of this firm and know them to be gentlemen of sterling worth and integrity. Their stock of goods, for variety and extent, we have scarcely seen paralleled.
From the "Mirror of Fashion," March 1, 1865.
Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, etc., opens on the 15th ult., and we need only to say that no finer display of goods was ever exhibited by any establishment in telectity. The limited time of their business enables them to offer, although the streets were rendered nearly impassable by the melted snow and slush. We predict for them a wonderful success.
From the "Ledger," February 28, 1865.
Our daily friends should visit the extensive establishment of Messrs. Devaugh & Co., No. 15 Maiden Lane, if they wish to indulge themselves with a sight which they will long remember.—Such a profusion of elegant Watches, Chains, Rings, Earrings, and, in short, of Jewelry of every name, kind and description, we never before witnessed. Their silver and plated ware is superb, and almost casts into the shade the other splendid establishments which have long been the boast of our city. It is estimated that their stock is worth not less than one million dollars.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to make a family for a year.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the fame of GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS, the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely; does not mind up chicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppo Galls, Sulphate Iron, and Gum Arabic,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years. I have been trying your Ink Powder, and it froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows as readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. FOLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without. I remain yours,
GEO. H. ROLLINS.
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had I a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient serv't,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of the sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, THOMAS W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moor's Maynard & Noyes', D. J. Baldwin's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

Governor Brown of Georgia has been entirely released from arrest, but upon what condition is not known.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch says Col. Taylor, Lee's Adjutant General, Surgoon Moore, and about 50 rebel soldiers have been summoned to testify against Lee on the charge of treason.

The Herald's dispatch says the arrival of Jeff. Davis in the Potomac was prematurely announced, as the boat grounded. He is, however, now in the torpedo boat Chico, and quarters have been prepared for him in the Old Capitol Prison.

The World's dispatch says Chas. O'Connor has applied to the War Department for permission to tender Jeff. Davis his professional services, and the President has directed the application to be granted.

The Times' dispatch says the trial of Jeff. Davis will take place on or about the 19th. The trial cannot occupy more than three or four days in the impanelling of the jury and the presentation of evidence.

A special dispatch to the Tribune says: A most horrible outrage is reported as having been committed near Washington by three drunken officers, involving the death of the victim, a young lady. The offenders were captured and tried before a drumhead court and sentenced to be shot.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—At the Conspiracy trial, Friday, a large number of witnesses were heard whose evidence was not very important. The defence rather damaged the case of Spangler, and failed to substantiate the plea of insanity in the case of Payne. The evidence will not be concluded before Wednesday next. Mrs. Surratt's daughter was allowed to sit by her in court on Friday.

President Johnson at his interview with the Alabama delegation, told them in a decided manner that he should not consent to the return of any rebel legislature, but intimated that the course pursued in North Carolina would be adopted with all the Southern States.

Large numbers of troops moved homeward on Friday, from Washington.

The report appears to be confirmed that Jeff. Davis was put in irons at Fortress Monroe, and that he expressed his dissent by knocking down two of the guards before he was secured.

The Post's special Washington dispatch says the trial of Jeff. Davis will take place before a full bench, consisting of Judge Carter of Ohio, Judge Olin of New York, and Judge Wylie of Virginia.

By Telegraph—Sunday noon.

Washington, June 3d.—The court room of the conspiracy trial was crowded to excess to-day—the evidence related to Mudd, Payne, John Surratt and O'Laughlin. It is now believed that the testimony will be concluded by Tuesday, and the arguments by one week from to-day.—Gen. Grant will leave Washington on Monday to attend the annual session of the military examining board at West Point, which commences next week; from there he will go to Chicago to attend the great fair.—Sec. Seward again visited the State Department to-day.

New York, June 3d.—The steamer Weybossett brings Savannah dates to the 31st ult. Mrs. J. Davis, Mrs. C. C. Clay and party had reached Savannah.

Gold closed at 136.

The editor of the Universalist having been censured by a correspondent for intimating that Jeff. Davis should be hung, retorts as follows: "After the excitement has passed, and Jefferson Davis is hung, we may be sorry! But in all soberness let us say, if Jefferson Davis is not hung, the hand that in this land ever after signs a death warrant, should drop from its socket. If he is pardoned, let every prison door open."

We suppose the editor of the Universalist is, like Horace Greeley, of the Tribune, an advocate of the abolition of capital punishment. But both of them would say, if any criminal is to be hung, as the law stands, by all means hang the chiefest and worst. And if he is not to be hung, never hang anybody hereafter.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S GIFT.—The people of the United States have reason to rejoice that the President has imitated another Jacksonian trait,* in refusing to receive a present from New York citizens. This custom of belittling our leading men with presents has become objectionable, not only from its erroneousness, but its frequency; its influence is derogatory to good government, and ought to be indignantly frowned upon by every American citizen. Thanks to President Johnson for his good example. Com. Bulletin.

Note.*—We don't think it is Jacksonian, at all. We do not remember that President Jackson declined receiving any present: but we do remember that he received a famous pair of boots, and wrote a letter of acknowledgement, in which he said, "I shall hang them up as a mirror, to stimulate me in the performance of my duty"—and we remember also that some wag in the newspapers made merry with the figures of speech used, in hanging up boots, as a mirror, to stimulate!—We have also a faint recollection of a big cheese from an admirer, accepted by the General. If he declined any present, we will thank any one to tell us what it was. We think Gen. Jackson's cheese came from a Mr. Zeland, who had also given a cheese to President Jefferson.—The refusal of presents, so much praised, is JOHN-sonian, not JACKsonian. U. T.

RESUMPTION OF SPECIE PAYMENTS.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Herald says Secretary McCullock, in conversation with a prominent politician a few days since, stated that the government was now ready to resume specie payments; that its finances were in a condition to enable it to adopt that course. The only thing that prevented immediate adoption of the plan was the injury it would do the business interests of the country. The indications are that a return to specie payments would be made before many months. The idea of the country returning to a specie basis in less than one year after the close of a rebellion like that which we have just gone through, seems a wild and preposterous idea. But after what we have done, there is nothing impossible. Secretary McCulloch is not a man who talks at random, especially on financial questions, and his statement is worthy of attention.

☞ The London Times highly extols a speech recently made at Wexford, Ireland, by Mr. T. D. M'Gee, a commissioner from Canada to the Dublin Exhibition, and well known in this country. Mr. M'Gee, being on the high road to preferment in Canada, has renounced democracy and turned monarchist. He therefore expresses a genuine contempt for every Irishman who is not a monarchist, and declares that the four hundred thousand Irish who dwell in Canada have more worth, talent and influence than the millions of Irish in the United States. That will do for Teddy, (says the Boston Herald) and it is well for the London Times to make the most it can of him before he is spoilt by contamination with his democratic fellow countrymen, who are daily leaving Ireland by the thousands for better homes in this country.

THE STONEWALL.—A letter from Havana dated May 27th, has the following reference to this rebel craft.

"The Confederate steamer Stonewall has been delivered up to the Spanish Government, on account of whom it may concern; part of the crew having deserted and the rest being paid off. The officers have left for Mexico, and the vessel, awaiting the decision of the home government, will probably be restored to the original owner, who has a mortgage on her for $200,000."

Another guesser says she will probably be given up to the United States.—The reader can take his choice of the guesses; he knows just as much about it as the writers.

A FIT CHANGE.—The notorious John Mitchell, who poured out his pro-slavery ribaldry through the columns of the Richmond Enquirer till the concern went up with the rebellion, has now trasferred his services to the New York Daily News, the ultra Democratic organ. The change was natural, for Mitchell was under no necessity of leaving behind any of his Richmond principles. But it seems a little curious that a man who is cut off from the ventilation of his rebel malice at Richmond, can go right to New York, the metropolis of the loyal country, and resume operations.—Exchange.

All right, except ultra-Democratic, which is certainly a misnomer. It is ultra copperhead, pro-rebel, pro-slavery,—the very opposite of democratic, though one of the leading powers of the party which is falsely called by that name.

— It is stated that Vallandigham has written a letter to the Young Men's Democratic Association of Lancaster, Pa., in which he acknowledges his errors as to the rebellion, rejoices that slavery is destroyed and the Union saved, sees no reason why the Democrats should not give a cordial support to President Johnson, and declares that with freedom, the South will become more populous, prosperous and powerful than any other section.

— Robert P. Dick, Esq., a staunch Union man of North Carolina, who came to Washington with Gov. Holden's party, has been appointed Judge of the district court which includes Raleigh.

A CONTRAST.—Gen. Sherman's account of himself, as given to the Committee on the Conduct of the War, has got into the papers,—and with the letters annexed, makes a formidable document, of very considerable interest. No one, on a candid and careful reading, will fail to see the General's loyal strength and soldierly obedience on the one hand, and on the other, his amiable weakness, in placing too great faith in the honor and good conduct of the rebel chiefs and politicians! Uncle Toby remarked, as he took off his glasses at the close of it,—No man stands before Gen. Sherman as a Soldier,—and very few men stand behind him as a Negotiator.

REBEL SUBMISSION IN NORTHERN ALABAMA.—At a reconstruction meeting held in Guntersville, Alabama, recently, Major A. C. Baird, of the rebel army, spoke as follows:

"We have met to bury the tomahawk; to smoke the calumet of peace. All of us ought to reverence that government which we could not destroy, and to which we have been compelled to submit. I shall do it cheerfully."

He was succeeded by Col. A. L. Sheffield, of the 48th Alabama, who said:

"I have done all I could to establish the Southern Confederacy. I carried a musket for three years! I am whipped. I have been whipped for twelve months. The Southern Confederacy does not exist. I stand to-day like an erring child who has been whipped by his father."

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Two young men, Alvin O. Houghton, aged 24, and Geo. A. Houghton, aged 21, were drowned in Stevens' Pond, near Manchester, on Wednesday evening. They were fishing; one probably fell overboard, and the other was drawn under while trying to save him.

—— Two highwaymen, on Fast Day within a mile and a half of Manchester, stopped Mr. Thomas G. Holbrook and wife, of Bedford, who were returning home, an hour or more before sunset; one person taking the horse by the head, and the other demanding his money. Mr. Holbrook thought they were joking and hesitated, and the man who held the horse said to the other with an oath: "You hold the horse and I will make him fork over." The change was made, a pistol presented, and Mr. Holbrook gave up the little he had with him, six dollars. It was a bold thing in broad day, on a common highway, and within fifty rods of a house.

—— Rev. David Root, formerly a well known minister in Dover, now of Cheshire, Conn., has offered his place, worth $6000, for a female seminary, to educate at a limited expense young ladies for teachers at the South, provided the town will give $6000 to endow the institution, and $30,000 be raised elsewhere.

THE DUTCH GAP CANAL.—It seems that this undertaking was not altogether a failure, for the Richmond Whig of Saturday says that Gen. Mulford arrived there from Fortress Monroe the previous day, having passed through Butler's Dutch Gap Canal on the steamer Clyde. This is the first steamer that has passed through.

— It is stated on trustworthy authority, that the value of the money and goods received by the Christian Commission during the four years of the war has exceeded four million dollars, while its receipts for the past year alone have exceeded two millions. The receipts of the Sanitary Commission have far exceeded those of the Christian Commission.

— The position of President Johnson on the Negro Suffrage Question has been considered doubtful, but it is known that he counseled a committee of negroes who recently called upon him, to petition the next Congress to grant them the right of franchise in this District, as preliminary to its concession elsewhere. This they will do in force; and it is believed that the President, while he leaves to the several States the decision of the question within their limits, will give his whole moral influence to the extension of the right of franchise to the colored people.—Tribune Cor.

☞ The Boston Bulletin, speaking of mercy for Jeff. D., says, let the same mercy that he showed to the poor desolate prisoners of war, crying for help, freezing, sickening, starving and dying from systematic cruelty and neglect almost under his very gaze, be accorded to him in the execution of the strict demands of justice.

A Philadelphia paper reports that by orders from Secretary Wells, the monitors and ironclad vessels are to lie at the Navy Yard in that city as soon as they can be taken out of commission. It is said that the reason of the selection of this location for the purpose, is, that salt water injures these vessels by corrosion, and that Philadelphia is the most available fresh-water port.

— The London Morning Star says that while the Russian serfs, before emancipation, were calculated to have consumed about eighteen shillings' worth of cotton goods per head, that amount has already risen to one pound seven shillings per head over the 22,000,000 of emancipated peasantry.

— Contributions of one dollar for the family of the late President are being made by the department clerks.

— The Texas expedition, composed of two divisions of colored troops, has sailed from Fortress Monroe. Ten steamers, none of which were crowded, sailed on Tuesday. Other steamers were to follow. Among the general officers were Gen. Paine, of Boston, commanding a division, and Gen. Draper, of Lynn, in command of a brigade.

— In Washington city, the police have taken possession of Seaton Hall, with the jewelry implements of the New York Manufacturing Jewelers' Association, and arrested the principal and his assistants, on the charge of swindling. Evidence was produced to show that the gift concert partook of the character of a gambling institution. The parties were held to bail before the Criminal Court.

A FEW REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "anchors," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

RESIGNED.—Horace Kent, late U. S. Assistant Provost Marshal of this District, has resigned his position and accepted a clerkship at the Navy Yard. Mr. Kent was appointed to his position in the Provost Marshal's office by Capt. Godfrey, and has remained under Capts. Wiggin, Ripley and Hall—each of whom we have heard speak of his official and social qualifications in the highest terms. He has many warm friends in the 1st Congressional District, as throughout the State; and we, with them, are pleased to know that he is to remain in the State.

Mr. K. was one of two hundred men of the 43d Mass. Regiment, who, after their term of service had expired, and they were on their way home, at Baltimore, volunteered their services to Gen. Schenck, and went to the front at Gettysburg,—while the balance of the regiment came home to Massachusetts.

We give an extract from an unsolicited letter to Mr. Kent, upon the acceptance of his resignation:

OFFICE A. A. P. M. GEN'L,
Concord, May 31st.

J. HORACE KENT, Esq., U. S. Special Agent, 1st Congressional District:

Sir:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt, through Capt. Hall, Provost Marshal 1st Dist., of your letter tendering your resignation of the office of United States Special Agent for the 1st District.

It gives me pleasure to acknowledge the valuable services rendered by you, and the fidelity and zeal with which all the business entrusted to you has been undertaken and accomplished.

That your future career may be as useful to others and as honorable to yourself as has been your connection with this Department, is my earnest desire. I am, Sir,
Very Resp'fy Your Obed't Serv't,
W. SILVEY,
Capt. 1st U. S. Art'y, Bvt. Major U. S. A., A. A. P. M. Gen'l.

POLICE COURT, June 3.—John Reagan, for obstructing sidewalk at Thacher's, corner of Congress and Vaughan streets, was fined $3 and costs $4.80. Good.

Charles E. Smith, drunkenness, fined $3 and costs $3.86.

☞ The Stars and Bars don't seem to have much "profited by the example" it was made, by the outraged populace; for it is at its old business again, of defending and upholding traitors,—Jeff. Davis & Co.; and denouncing and deriding the People's Government, as administered by that eminent patriot and loyal statesman, Secretary Stanton, and the rest.

☞ The U. S. screw steamer Winona arrived at the Navy Yard on Friday, from the blockading squadron off Charleston. We understand that she is to be repaired.

☞ An instance of heroism and gallantry worthy of record is embraced in the following incident which took place in this vicinity on the evening of National Fast day. A young gentleman accompanied by the idol of his heart—in the person of a fair maiden of "sweet sixteen" more or loss—visited Pierce's Island in the latter part of the day by crossing the flats between the point of land at the end of Newcastle Bridge and the Island itself, which is easily and safely done at dead low water. Love is not only blind, but insensible to all terrestrial surroundings; and so, ere our young friends were aware of it, the unrelenting tide had commenced its upward flow, submerging the footpath and caused them when they reached the island shore to stand aghast at the sight, and tremble at the prospect of remaining thus isolated for twelve gloomy hours. * * * * * *

On the opposite shore near the bridge, sat, in pensive thoughtfulness, a young man—distinguished no less for his clerical merit than for his self-sacrificing devotion to the interests of others,—gazing upon the scenery around. Hearing a faint moan, his ready ear traced the sound to the opposite shore, and looking across saw the affrighted pair above alluded to, in the situation we have described. The kind hearted thinker immediately arose, rolled up his pants above the knees to a respectable height, and wading across took the anxious damsel in his arms and brought her in safety to the shore,—where amid blushes and "thank you's," he modestly left them and hastened home. REP.

☞ The Boston Post, the largest Daily in the city, is now sold for only 3 cents per copy—as also is the Traveller, Journal, Advertiser, Transcript and Courier—and the Herald and the Voice at two cents. A good thing for the people,—so they think; but bad for the printers. Newspapers are the cheapest articles in the world. We may make some reduction in the price of the Chronicle, on the 1st of July, though our expenses have lessened scarcely at all as yet.

— Harper's Weekly recommends that the copperhead sympathizers with Jefferson Davis should, in respect for the circumstances connected with his capture, wear petticoats for 30 days.

— The U. S. government has abolished the passport system; and removed all restrictions on the export of anthracite coal.

— Gen. Sherman is in New York, and has been serenaded by military bands.

— Dr. Tumblerty, arrested in St. Louis some weeks ago, and brought to Washington as a confederate of Blackburn in the yellow fever plot, was released by the War Department, Wednesday, without examination or trial. The impression prevails that Tumblety is not a criminal; that he is merely a humbug.

— The National Association of Wool Manufacturers have chosen John L. Hayes, Esq., as their Secretary. The association are fortunate in securing so able an officer. Mr. Hayes has for the past four years occupied the position of chief clerk in the U. S. Patent Office, and was highly commended for his fidelity and efficiency.

— Hon. John C. Bradley, Col. Nicholas Davis and Judge Parsons, of Alabama, are on their way to Washington to confer with President Johnson in relation to the re-organization of the civil government of Alabama.

—George D. Prentice says that he heard rebel leaders say unreservedly in Richmond last December, when Jeff. Davis' health was very bad, that, if he should die, assassination would be resorted to as a means of preventing Stephens from being President.

— At Marseilles the number of rats is so great that the municipal council has voted a credit of 5,000 francs to be expended in attempts to exterminate the myriads of these destructive animals.

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m29dawlm

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,
$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.
GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. to the value of the bond, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to
One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

Arrandale & Co., Manufacturers' Agents,
167 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

Announce that all the above list of goods will be sold for One Dollar each.

In consequence of the great stagnation of trade in the Manufacturing districts of England, they the w' having cut off the supply of cotton, a large quantity of Valuable Jewelry, originally intended for the English Market, has been sent off for sale in this country, AND WILL BE SOLD AT ANY SACRIFICE! Under these circumstances, ARRANDALE & CO., acting as agents for the principal European manufacturers, have resolved upon a GREAT GIFT DISTRIBUTION, subject to the following regulations:

Certificates of the various articles are first put into envelopes, sealed up and mixed; and when ordered, are taken out without regard to choice, and sent by mail, free of charge, to any address. On receipt of the certificate, you will see what you are to have, and then it is at your option to send the dollar and take the article or not. Purchasers may thus obtain a Gold Watch, Diamond Ring, or any set of Jewelry on our list for ONE DOLLAR.

Send 25 Cents for a Certificate.

In all transactions by mail, we shall charge for forwarding the Certificates, paying postage and doing the business. A 25 cent stamp must be inclosed when the Certificate is sent for. Five Certificates will be sent for $1, eleven for $2, thirty for $5, sixty-five for $10, and a hundred for $15.

AGENTS.—We want agents in every regiment, and in every town and village in the country, and those acting as such will be allowed 10 cents on every Certificate ordered by them, provided their remittance amounts to one dollar. Agents will collect 25 cents for every Certificate, and remit 15 cents to us, either in cash or in postage stamps. ARRANDALE & CO.,

What the "Press" say of us.

GREAT GIFT DISTRIBUTION.—A rare opportunity is offered for obtaining watches, chains, diamond rings, silverware, etc., by Messrs Arrandale & Co., at No. 167 Broadway. The idea is immense, the stock of articles, varying in value, and all are offered at one dollar each. The distribution is very fairly done, a certificate being sent to purchasers of a certain article, enclosed in an envelope, and are not required to pay your dollar unless you are satisfied with that article, which will certainly be worth more than that amount, and may be $50 or $100. An excellent mode this of investing a dollar.—Sunday Times, N. Y. City, Feb. 19, 1865.

Messrs. Arrandale & Co. have long been personally known to us, and we believe them to be every way worthy of public confidence.—N. Y. Sunday American Journal, June 11, 1864.

We have inspected, at the office of Arrandale & Co.'s Agency for Euro'an Manufacturing Jewellers, a large assortment of gold watches, valuable jewelry of the newest patterns. We also noticed a large quantity of silver plate, and understand that the whole of these fine imported articles are to be disposed of on a novel principle, giving great advantages to buyers, and affording extensive employment to agents. We know the firm in question to be very respectable and thoroughly worthy of public confidence and recommend our friends to patronize their advertisement.—N. Y. Albion, Sept. 3, 1864.

By Messrs. Arrandale & Co.'s arrangements, the advantages must be on the customer, for he has everything to gain, and nothing comparatively to lose. He knows what he will get for his dollar beforehand, and he need not send it if he is not satisfied.—N. Y. Weekly News, Aug. 6, 1864.

EMPLOYMENT FOR LADIES.—The most eligible and profitable employment we have heard of for ladies is the sale of certificates for the "Great Gift Distribution" of Arrandale & Co. A lady of our acquaintance has been very successful in this way, not only in filling her own purse, but also in doing a good turn to those to whom she sold the Certificates, as will be seen from our advertising columns. Gentlemen can also be thus engaged.—N. Y. Sunday Mercury, Aug. 14, 1864.

In our columns, the reader will find an advertisement of Arrandale & Co.'s Gift Distribution watches, jewelry, and silver-ware. In payment of that advertisement we received several sets of the jewelry advertised, and we are warranted in saying that, both in finish and quality, they quite exceeded our expectations. They turned out to be just what they had been represented.—True Democrat, (Lewistown,) Aug. 17, 1864.

The British Wasp of Kingston, C. W., says, Nov. 26, 1864, one of our ladies readers became an agent for Arrandale & Co., and by request lets "some seventy articles, sent as prizes for her agency, to this office for inspection, and without hesitation we can state that each and all of the articles were worth treble the amount of cost to the recipients, and some of them six times.

We have seen some very pretty specimens of Table and Tea Spoons, Gold Watches, Ladies' Chains, Pins, Bracelets, etc., which have been sent by Arrandale & Co., to this place for $1 each.—Angelica Reporter, N. Y. State, Feb. 15, 1865.

American and Foreign Patents.
E. B. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed. It is immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL. AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANCED AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full access to all patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay therefore here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and can safely rely upon their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. B. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend the inventor to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in six times, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, has been employed to select, with sufficient in starting this company as a man strictly honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum business, and we have confidence in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Kogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel S. Lancaster, 49 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Allegheny river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the great Belt of the most free flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty six millions of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Harris, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a leading business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the title of the lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The lay of the land is beautiful for Oil; high banks on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and it is all used for it. The oil bells run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which immeasurable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 1000 barrels per day for over a year, 200—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells sunk on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel will sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for a well, is equal to the First Rockefeller Oil Farm that comes up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, of the Company's wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if we take a average out of Titusville, would be of inestimable value. There is abundant room on each acre for 18 wells, and on this farm for more than one, just make the computation of the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as we have expected if they only yield the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and your income from this Farm alone is over one hundred THOUSAND DOLLARS. We do not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Great Well Company expected they would have lately sunk a well, right opposite this farm and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to roll on from the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Coquet Well that flows 700 barrels daily, the Jerry that flows 300, and scores more of free and pumping wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on the Byles Farm, and well it may be. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with its sucker rod in, and its pipe connected with its tubes and tanks, it has flowed 520 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. At the tanks they now have will hold 2,300 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another fine well has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther north the same company, the Pennsylvania, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In sight of the spouting well, and between the mouth of the one which has raised so high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod fit for a well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in the best rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in the location. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On West Pit Hole, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it promises, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 115 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in as a nuisance. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

Circulars, prospectuses, &c., containing every information, will be furnished on application at the office of the Company, or sent by mail to parties wishing to subscribe. Apply to

The properties of this Company consist of 643 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing interests of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable oil lands the Company possesses. Three engines are already at the wells. Our Agent at Titusville writes us that the well on the McKilhany farm has commenced flowing, which places this Company beyond a doubt of success. The Officers of this Company, in placing this property before the New England public, have full confidence that no properties yet offered are superior, or even out of which larger and more certain dividends may at once be expected. The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to the frontier, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.

To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. ALFRED D. PARK.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given me. As the public, I have made ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppa Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good ink, but my occupation is at an end. Now your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands have gone with me several months, and flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. TOLAND.

To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without. I remain yours,

Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 8, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and thaw would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I gave it fair chance to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and find it is quantity of it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servt.,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever saw. I have tried it in my office, Sewell's & Noyes', D. J. Ridout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

TUESDAY, JUNE 6, 1865.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The conspirator Payne, it is said, has authorized his counsel to say that his father is Rev. Geo. W. Powell, now living in Florida. Whether the prisoner was brought up in Florida does not appear.

By the publication of hitherto suppressed testimony, it now appears plain that the assassinations at Washington, and the fires at New York, were known to the rebel Confederacy at Richmond, and approved by it.

Maj. Gen. Warren, late commander of the Fifth Army Corps, has resigned his commission in the volunteer forces, and now ranks as Lt. Colonel in the regular army.

Duff. Green, at one time a noted politician and Congressmen, is in Washington to give Pres. Johnson his views on reconstruction, &c.

The corporation of the National Military and Naval Asylum for disabled soldiers and seamen, meet at Washington Wednesday, to organize for work.

Governor Brown is permitted to return home on his pledge to use his best efforts to restore Georgia to her allegiance and reorganize the government.

The Times' dispatch says the President suggests an early assembling of Congress, about the 1st of October, one of the reasons being the failure of the Civil Appropriation bill last season.

Southern rebels have $10,000,000 deposted in banks in Montreal.

More evidence has just come to light, showing that some of the conspirators had gone to Newbern to assassinate Sherman and other Generals.

The President has notified the delegation of South Carolinians that nothing can be done at present towards putting their State government in operation.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—A Charleston correspondent reports the arrest of Governor Magrath at Columbia on the 27th ult., for high treason. He was taken to Hilton Head, and would soon be sent North for trial. He surrendered himself quietly to Lieutenant Beck, who was sent to arrest him. Wade Hampton escaped, and his whereabouts are unknown. Before the arrest of Magrath he issued a proclamation suspending his own functions as the Executive officer of the State, stating that the war was over, and it was the duty of the people to forbear opposition, which is hopeless, and to reconcile themselves to that submission which the Government of the United States can impose and which they cannot resist. He urges them to resume peaceful pursuits and says he is ready to meet charges against him at any time and place.

Columbia is garrisoned by the 25th Ohio regiment. Citizens are taking the oath of allegiance in crowds. Other towns in the interior of the State are properly garrisoned.

NORTH CAROLINA.—Newbern people are greatly indignant at the rebel crew in Canada and elsewhere, who sent the yellow fever into their city last summer, of which about 2000 persons died. Trade is reviving at W. The universal suffrage question is exciting interest there—the people being divided as to the time when the negroes shall vote.

TEXAS.—New Orleans papers contain details of the surrender of Kirby Smith's forces. The capitulation was completed the 25th of May.

General Canby has issued an order instructing military commanders reporting to him to extend their commands to all parts of the country east of the Mississippi within his jurisdiction, and see the paramount authority of the United States recognized, and the recent order of Pres. Johnson restoring unrestricted trade accepted in good faith.

The benefits by the President's orders, are declared contingent on the disposition of the people, and their ability to preserve the public peace. Assistance of the army will be given to aid in the maintenance of order; but wherever evil doers are harbored or countenanced, trade will be stopped, and the community so offending will be forced to maintain troops sent to subdue marauders.

The Union prisoners from Camp Ford, Texas, arrived at New Orleans on the 8th. They represent Texas in a very confused state, and that there is a general desire for the Union forces to occupy that State.

Some of the rebel Generals requested permission of General Canby to take 20,000 of their troops across the Rio Grande to Juarez, and were anxious to obtain permission to sell cotton enough to pay their troops, but the scheme fell through.

Gen. Bailey's expedition from Mobile had arrived at Baton Rouge. They were well received by the people along the whole line of their march. No armed bodies were seen except a few guerrillas, who dashed into our lines at Eaton, Mississippi, shot one of our men, and escaped.

— Yellow fever exists at Demerara.

THE NEW OCEAN HOUSE.—Rye, May 27. Mr. Editor "Ballot":—The travelling public will be gratified to hear that the new "Ocean House" at Rye Beach is nearly completed, and will probably be opened for guests by the first week in July. The centre house is 95 feet long and 48 feet wide, four stories high; the two wings 78 by 38, and 68 by 38, each three stories high, making an entry way of 195 feet.

Some idea of the size of the house may be had from the amount of material used in its construction. Of timber and rough boards there have been used half a million feet; 190,000 shingles, 20,000 clapboards, 600 casks of lime, and over four tons of nails. The piazza, which does not extend entirely around the house, is ten feet wide and 450 feet long. An examination of the house in it present condition will dissipate the idea that it is built in a "shammy" manner. It is one of the strongest and best planned wooded houses in New England.

The reception room in the centre is octagonal in form and 48 feet across. The main dining room is 50 by 38 feet, with three smaller ones each 15 feet square. All the rooms of the "Ocean House" are built with an eye to comfort rather than stowage capacity, and are therefore very much larger and more convenient than those usually found at the seaside. The elegant stairways are built of chesnut and black walnut, and cost $725. The finishings, of which there are 69,000 running feet, are of butternut.

The patent "Enunciator," with its hundreds of bells and miles of bell wire, is now being put up, and will cost some over $600. The house is to be furnished throughout with black walnut furniture, and two hundred and fifty of Putnam's patent spring beds. The cookery is a separate house, 50 by 33 feet, and two stories high, with furnaces, ranges, boilers, and all the necessary appurtenances of such an establishment. Connected with this is the laundry and servants' apartments.

Mr. Jenness has superintended the construction of the house himself, and has spared neither time nor money to make it one of the best of seaside hotels. We learn that applications for rooms are constantly being received, and we have no doubt it will be filled as soon as it can be made ready for visitors.

In the meantime, notwithstanding the immense amount of care and labor attendant upon the erection of such a structure, Mr. Jenness and Son have entirely refitted the Webster House, Boston, during the past winter, and are doing a thriving business in that lively city. That house is under the immediate management of Mr. Rienzi Jenness, who can "keep a hotel" as well as "any other man." Success to the "Ocean" and "Webster" say we.

The Atlantic House has been leased by George G. Lougee Esq., of Exeter, and will be under his management the present season. Mr. Lougee has achieved great popularity as clerk of the Atlantic for the past three years, and we have no doubt of his complete success in his new occupation of landlord. Yours, BUGGINS.

☞ The Ballot states that Mr. John H. Kimball regained possession of the horse, harness and wagon stolen from his barn in Exeter on the night of the 15th ult. They were left by an unknown young man at Tuttle's stable in Newmarket, where they remained about a week before Mr. Kimball obtained information of the fact.

☞ Hiram Smart, Jr., our gentlemanly Register of Deeds for Rockingham County, the Ballot says has tendered his resignation of that office to accept a clerkship under Hon. Amos Tuck, Naval Officer at Boston, with a better salary, of which he is quite deserving. It is believed that W. H. Belknap, Esq., will be appointed to the place made vacant by Mr. Smart's resignation, than whom no one is better qualified for the discharge of the duties of the office.

GOLD, Monday, 135 1-2 to 136 1-2,—a decline of 1 per cent. from Saturday.

CANOVER, a witness who gave important testimony against the conspirators, is missing, supposed to be murdered by some of their crew.

THE TURF.—At the trot on the N. Y. Fashion Course, on the 2d inst., the race between Dexter and Gen. Butler was won by the former in three straight heats. Time—2:26 3-4, 2:26 1-4, 2:34 1-4. Flora Temple and Lady Emma did not appear.

— Gen. Grant has made a congratulatory address to the U. S. armies, on their complete victory in putting down the rebellion.

— Washington specials state that Gen. Thomas will not take command of the Department of Virginia. President Johnson, in view of his thorough knowledge of the people of the Southwest, has determined to assign him to the work of reorganization there. His headquarters will be at Nashville.

— A petition is in circulation in Mobile, to Pres. Johnson, for measures to bring Alabama again into the Union.

— The Mexican town of Poldras was captured by the Liberals on the 24th.

Local.

☞ Are the Sons of Portsmouth to be invited home on the Fourth? If they are, it is high time somebody was making the arrangements. We give, elsewhere, what is said about the matter in Boston.

BUCKLEY'S SERENADERS at the Temple to-night. Fun alive, and the best of music too. There are no better singers than the Buckleys—and all who love Minstrelsy will not fail to be there.

☞ An adjourned meeting of the Mechanic Association will be held this evening at 8 o'clock, in the Hall in Gray's Block, to consider the Reading Room question.

☞ Rehearsal of the Philharmonic Society this evening, and the Director desires all members to be present.

☞ Persons having Fancy Articles designed for the Soldiers' Festival, next week, are requested to send them to Mrs. Haley, No. 9 Richards Avenue, or Mrs. Miller, 17 High Street, immediately.

POLICE COURT, June 5.—John Carroll, John Rook and Ellen O'Donnell were arraigned for fornication. Not denying this grave charge but pleading guilty, they were each required to give bonds in the sum of $100 for their appearance at the Supreme Court in October next.

Hannah Cusick was also complained of for similar misbehavior. She pleads not guilty, but it was the opinion of the Court that Hannah was mistaken, and was accordingly fined the same as her partners in crime. Hannah should remember the destiny of all liars.

☞ The Celestial Troupe—said to be the largest and most attractive organization of its kind in the world, comprising eighteen star actors,—will give one of their rich and varied entertainments at the Temple, Thursday evening. See the advertisement in another column.

☞ We are informed that the reason why that Street Sprinkler has not yet been put on the course, to keep down the dust, is because people won't come "down with their dust" in sufficient showers to start the concern, and have a daily shower. Shame on somebody, as well as dust on everybody, then.

☞ A citizen who "keeps" on that street, suggests that the name of Pleasant Street, (which while it is no misnomer, is yet not particularly significant,) be changed to Lincoln Street, in memory of our late lamented President. Oftentimes the alteration of a street's name works evil only; but in this case, if nobody else objects, we shan't.

☞ On Sunday morning last, a little son of Hon. N. G. Marshall of York, Me., fell from a scaffold in a barn a distance of sixteen feet, striking upon his head and breaking his neck. He was an interesting little fellow of seven years, and his sudden death is a severeblow to his parents.

DEPARTMENTS AT WASHINGTON.—The Tribune's Washington dispatch says it is reported on good authority that Secretary Stanton has resigned, though it is not positively confirmed. It is known that he leaves the Cabinet very soon.

Mr. Harrington, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, has peremptorily resigned, and will go as minister resident at Berne.

Judge Otto, Assistant Secretary, leaves the Department of the Interior, and will be succeeded by John Wilson, Third Auditor.

HAVANA dates to May 30 give news from GALVESTON to May 28: Confusion reigned at G.; the people robbed the blockade runner Lark of her cargo which she carried there, and she returned to Havana in ballast. The blockade runner Owl also returned to Havana, to avoid being robbed at Galveston. The rebel Gen. Magruder tried to make a speech to his soldiers, but was hissed and silenced, and he left. The soldiers and people wished to surrender. Seven U. S. ships of war have arrived at Havana, causing a great sensation.

— A Cairo dispatch of June 4, says:

The steamer Silver Moon from Memphis for Cincinnati passed up last night with 398 bales of cotton. Cotton declined; Middling 28a29c; strict do. 31a32c; good 34c.

Judge Yarger, Judge Sharkey and Hon. Jonas Hamilton arrived here last night, en route to confer with the President on the subject of the reorganization of the civil government of the State of Mississipi. Senator elect Hahn of Lousiana arrived here this morning. It is understood that he will make an extended tour through the Northern States.

The land slide at Columbia proves to be less extensive than at first reported. There were no lives lost.

— The blockade runner Denbigh, in trying to run into Galveston with a valuable cargo, went ashore, and was destroyed by the U. S. steamer Seminole.

— A thunder storm, with high wind, on Sunday afternoon, did damage in the country near Portland, by blowing down trees, fences, and buildings.

— A Mobile letter of the 25th gives some details of the explosion. The buildings from St. Louis street, including Water, Commerce and Front streets, are nearly all demolished. Water street, for a considerable distance, shared the same fate.

A FEW REASONS WHY THE
AMERICAN WATCH
IS THE BEST.
It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, by hand. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "acres," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in process of repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.
THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.
Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—
1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.
We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.
OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Riley) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.
OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.
OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.
OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.
THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.
OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

From the Boston Com. Bulletin, May 27th.

THE SONS OF PORTSMOUTH.—We see the proposition, started by our neighbor of the Evening Gazette, is being widely agitated through the press, for a reunion of the Sons of Portsmouth, N. H., on the 4th of July proximo. The last occasion of this kind occurred, if we recollect right, in 1853, and was one of lively interest to all concerned. The idea is a good one, and should be made to take the shape of a permanent arrangement for at least a decennial mustering of the errant knights of "Strawberry Bank" who have gone forth to make their mark upon the age.

The "Sons" are not only numerous, but pretty widely distributed. They have generally an active, enterprising temperament, and in their goings forth in quest of adventure, have regarded neither political limits nor geographical lines. We do not assert on our own responsibility, though travelled authorities affirm, that no nook or corner of the civilized world is without its Portsmouth representative, illustrating some one of the liberal arts or professions, and firm in the primitive faith that New Hampshire is the greatest State in or out of the Union—"to emigrate from." If all, or even one half of these cosmopolitans can be gathered together, "as a hen gathereth her chickens" under the maternal wing, next Fourth of July, the quiet old town of their early efforts, and endeared to them by a thousand pleasant associations, will see such a holiday as she has not seen for many a year, and will doubtless be astonished at the extent of her resources.

If the affair is properly arranged, and put into efficient hands for execution, Boston will unquestionably send a strong delegation, whether numbers, quantity or quality is considered. But we would respectfully hint to the committee of arrangements, whoever they may be, that if they would have the thing go off with credit to themselves and satisfaction to all concerned, they must avoid all cliques, coteries and humbug; make their welcome as broad as the land, and not pervert it into a painfully select "mutual admiration concern" after the style of "The Poets of Portsmouth."

From the Boston Sat. Eve. Gazette, June 3d.

THE SONS OF PORTSMOUTH.—We do not know whether the "Sons" in Boston are going home on the 4th or not. No general action has yet been had; and though considerable individual interest is manifest, the matter will be likely to drop for want of some central action. The time is very short,—and movement, if any is to be made, should be commenced at once. The people of Portsmouth are eager to again welcome the wanderers, and are so expressing themselves, through the papers and otherwise; and if it is not done this year, it will be likely to fail the next, because the brave lads are coming home from the field by the 4th, and everything can be made to honor them, while a grand social reunion is enjoyed by all. Leaving it till next year, therefore, one grand feature of its interest will be wanting. The young men should take the matter in hand, and leave the old ones to follow, if they will; and all will be very sure to do so, who recall the delightful occasion enjoyed twelve years ago.

☞ Commodore Nutt, the dwarf, it is said has been married to the beautiful little Miss Warren, the "dwarfess." Well, the Commodore is a nut, sure; and having got Fairy Minnie for his own, there must be a pair of Nutts there, mun't there? The gallant little Commodore was for years a member of the Manchester Veterans, and wore their uniform; and when the Veterans dined with the Horse Guards, in Concord, the year before the little nut left his home at Manchester, the Guards adopted him for a member, and voted him a uniform and pony. We think, now, they had better send him a wedding present—and would suggest a Cinderilla cradle.

☞ The Monitor says the gathering at Concord on Fast Day was estimated at 20,000 people or more; and that the Procession numbered at least 3000. The only trouble was that the Railroads underestimated the crowds they were to bring; and so, from all quarters trains were crammed, and hundreds and thousands left behind after all. It was a glorious gathering—so say all who were there.

CONCORD DAILY MONITOR, for the Session.—The Monitor will be published regularly every evening during the approaching Session of the Legislature. In addition to full reports of the proceedings in the Senate, the House and the Lobby, it will give the usual summary of morning news, brief and pointed editorials, and the latest telegraphic intelligence. Terms, single copy for the session, 50 cents. Five copies, to one address, $2. Address all orders "Daily Monitor, Concord, N. H." tf

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7-30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7.3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

Arrandale & Co., Manufacturers' Agents, 167 BROADWAY, NEW YORK,

Announce that all the above list of goods will be sold for One Dollar each.

In consequence of the great stagnation of trade in the Manufacturing districts of England, thro' the war having cut off the supply of cotton, a large quantity of Valuable Jewelry, originally intended for the English Market, has been sent off for sale in this country, ARE ALL TO BE SOLD AT ANY SACRIFICE! Under these circumstances, ARRANDALE & CO., acting as agents for the principal European manufacturers, have resolved upon a GREAT GIFT DISTRIBUTION, subject to the following regulations:

Certificates of the various articles are first put into envelopes, sealed up and mixed; and when ordered, are taken out without regard to choice, and sent by mail, thus giving all an equal chance. On receipt of the certificate, you will see what you are to have, and then it is at your option to send the dollar and take the article or not. Purchasers may thus obtain a gold Watch, Diamond Ring, or any set of Jewelry on our list for ONE DOLLAR.

Send 25 Cents for a Certificate.

In all transactions by mail, we shall charge for forwarding the Certificates, paying postage and doing the business. 25 cents each must be inclosed when the Certificate is sent for. Five Certificates will be sent for $1, eleven for $2, thirty for $5, sixty-five for $10, and a hundred for $15.

AGENTS.—We want agents in every regiment, and in every town and County in the country, and those acting as such will be allowed 25 cents on every Certificate ordered by them, provided their remittance amounts to one Dollar.—Agents will collect 25 cents for each Certificate, and remit 15 cents to us, either in cash or in postage stamps. ARRANDALE & CO.,

mh7Diaw&W8m 167 Broadway, N. Y.

What the "Press" say of us.

GREAT GIFT DISTRIBUTION.—A rare opportunity is offered for obtaining watches, chains, diamond rings, silverware, etc., by Messrs Arrandale & Co., at No. 167 Broadway. They have an immense stock of articles, varying in value, and all are offered at one dollar each. The distribution is very fairly done—you agree to take a certificate of a certain article, enclosed in an envelope, and not required to pay the dollar unless you are satisfied with the article, which will certainly be worth more than that amount, and may be $20 or $100. A good chance for lucky of investing a dollar.—Sunday Times, N. Y. City, Feb. 19, '65.

Messrs. Arrandale & Co. have long been personally known to us, and we can vouch for them as every way worthy of public confidence. — N. Y. Scottish American Journal, June 11, 1864.

We have inspected, at the office of Arrandale & Co.'s Agency for Eastern Manufacturing Jewellers, a large assortment of fashionable and valuable jewelry of the newest patterns. We also noticed a large quantity of silver ware, and understand that the whole of these newly imported articles are to be disposed of on a novel principle, giving great satisfaction to buyers, and affording extensive employment to agents. We know the firm in question to be very respectable and thoroughly worthy of public patronage and recommend our friends to read their advertisement.—N. Y. Albion, Sept. 3, 1864.

By Messrs Arrandale & Co's arrangements, the advantages must be with the customer, for he has everything to gain, and nothing comparatively to lose. He knows what he will get for his dollar beforehand, and he need not send it if he is not satisfied.—N. Y. Weekly News, Aug. 6, 1864.

EMPLOYMENT FOR LADIES.—The most eligible and profitable employment we have heard of for ladies is the sale of certificates for the "Great Gift Distribution" of Arrandale & Co. A lady of our acquaintance has been very successful in this way, not only in filling her own purse, but also in doing a good turn to those to whom she sold the Certificates, as will be seen from our advertising column. Gentlemen can also be thus engaged.—N. Y. Sunday Mercury, Aug. 14, 1864.

In our columns, the reader will find an advertisement of Arrandale & Co's Gift Distribution watches, jewelry, and silverware. In payment of that advertisement we received several sets of the jewelry advertised, and we are warranted in saying that, both in finish and quality, they quite exceeded our expectations. They turned out to be just what they had been represented.—True Democrat, Louisiana, Aug. 17, 1864.

The British Whig of Kingston, C. W., says, Nov. 26, 1864. one of our lady subscribers became an agent for Arrandale & Co., and by canvassing her friends' twenty articles, sent as prizes for her agency, to this office for inspection, and without hesitation we can state that each and all of the articles were worth treeble the amount of cost to the recipients, and some of them six times.

We have seen some very pretty specimens of Table and Tea Spoons, Gold Watches, Ladies' Chains, Pins, Bracelets, etc., which have been sent by Arrandale & Co., to this place for $1 each.—Angelica Reporter, N. Y. State, Feb. 15, 1865.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to procure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Models for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by transmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL IN THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense advantage of the subscriber's twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted the United States and Europe, place him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All models, or a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeble proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him in preference to any other, that they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to some of the gentlemen prominent in starting this company as a man strictly honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum region, and was requested to aid in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, J. Schlosser, J. S. Gogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel E. Lancaster, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed committees to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek and Allegheny River, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil field of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his message, fifty-six millions of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Harris, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The bay in the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running through it by lightning, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it. The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which innumerable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 1000 barrels per day—the Fuller 1000—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every nine wells bored on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well sell for half a million.

It is the belief of good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the Flat below Titusville. Oil in that section is worth $18 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, burning freely and long.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $6000 to sink a well to the depth of 1000 feet, and a little more than that. It costs $20 per day to work it after it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of the Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and preceeding geological features of a more old and perfect character than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting Oil Territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors MAYNARD and SHEPPERD, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If the Farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells enough, flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be valuable wells, for the state is abundant room on each acre for 18 wells, and on this farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation of the value of 900 wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as they are expected, if they only yield ten barrels daily, and flowing wells on Oil Belt, and your income from this Farm alone is over one million of dollars. This Company do not expect any such results, but near the state facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the centre of the Oil Basin, between East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek. They have lately sunk a well on this Farm large and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the balance for great profit. Referring to about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Titusville, directly south of the Coquet Well that flows 700 barrels daily, the Jersey that flows 800, the Maple Shade and other noted flowing wells, and adjoining the celebrated Pit Hole. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Frazer Well is 4 miles from East Oil Creek and at the middle of January, and with its sucker rod in, and its pipe seven-eighths full of machinery, it has flowed 220 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 8,200 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another fine well has been struck, and above it is a spouting well which, when it has flowed enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In sight of the spouting wells, and between the Frazer and the one which has raised so high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod fit for a well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. The Farm is very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find oil in flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On West Pit Hole, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on it, and will be found on application at a bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the R. R. a fortune.

Circulars, prospectuses, &c., containing every information, will be furnished on application at the office of the Company, or sent by mail to parties wishing to subscribe. Apply to or address

LEGAL HOLIDAYS IN NEW YORK. The Legislature of New York has established the following holidays—the law to take effect August 1: Any day recommended by the Governor or by the President as a day of fasting or thanksgiving; the 4th of July; the 25th day of December; the 1st day of January; the 22d of February. In case any of these days fall on Sunday, the Monday ensuing must be the holiday.

— Bishop Porter (Protestant Episcopal) of the Diocese of New York, has published a pastoral address to his clergy, urging some of them, who have been fraternizing with ministers of other religious denominations, to abstain from such a course, as it is contrary to the laws of the church to which they belong. Reference is had to the permission granted by some of the Episcopal clergymen to Presbyterians to preach, and by others to the Greek Church to hold services in Episcopal churches.

— Miss Dalia Webster, who was in jail in Kentucky twenty years ago on a charge of harboring escaped slaves, and has since been the subject of repeated persecutions from Kentucky judges, has offered to give some 100 acres of land, situated on the Ohio river, opposite Madisonville, Indiana, for the establishment of "Lincoln College." Bostonians are in favor of it and are taking measures to ensure the success of the plan.

☞ A letter from an eminent German banker dated May 12th, says: "I predict, and you will see, that United States paper will be at a premium before long, as it ought to be for its usefulness and convenience. The sensible merchant will soon learn to appreciate it, and when peace is fully restored on your side, there will spring up such speculation as the world has never seen."

— Elihu Burritt ascribes much of the poverty of English laborers to the inordinate quantity of beer they drink. He proves by figures that three years' beer money of an English farm laborer would pay for five acres of rich prairie land on the Illinois Central Railroad, his fare by sea and land to them, and leave £3 in his pocket to begin their cultivation with.

— Jay Cooke & Co. report that the issues of the new notes of the third series of seven-thirty loans will be ready for delivery on Wednesday. The interruption to prompt delivery has been the cause of the falling off in subscriptions.

KILL THE CATERPILLARS.—Their time will expire in about 15 days; but it is better to kill them now, than to wait until they eat up the leaves and spoil the trees. Kerosene will kill all that it touches: and a new kind of brush, made for the purpose, will bring down the nests and pests.

— Nine clerks in the Department of the Interior, who have by their speeches favored the Southern cause during the rebellion, have been notified that their resignations will be accepted. Two of these held positions worth $2000.

— A Richmond letter says: "A member of the English Parliament has offered Gen. Lee a splendid residence in London, and a sum of money, the interest of which would support himself and family for life.

— President Johnson's amnesty proclamation has made the rebel citizens of Richmond feel very sorely. Gen. Heth has voluntarily taken the oath of allegiance.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most satisfactory testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIRROR LAMP, AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have shared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, MASS., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful ink which you have given to the public. I have used the ink for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppo Galls, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up cold twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without. I remain yours, GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. A. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powders safe, and I am glad to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, yours, &c.
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It is a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 15, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of Ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Lt. Colonel, 12th N. H. March 15, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have occasion to use the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moor's Maynard & Noyes', D. J. Ridout's, and many others, but yours is the best I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6, 1865.

THE SUPPRESSED TESTIMONY in the conspiracy trials, now made public, fully justifies President Johnson in offering a reward for Jefferson Davis, Jacob Thompson, George N. Saunders and others of this band, as concerned in the plot to murder President Lincoln and the principal officers of the General Government. Mrs. Surratt's son was the bearer of dispatches from Jeff. Davis to the Canadian outlaws, giving the official Confederate sanction to the scheme of assassination; Saunders, Thompson and Cleary had consultations in relation to the murderous plot: a letter was read, giving Davis's approval to the proposition to assassinate President Lincoln, and stating that he would not recognize as friends those who quietly submitted to Lincoln, either in Canada or the States.

The visits of Booth to Canada, to confer with Saunders, Thompson and Cleary, occurred while all three of the Canadian representatives of Jeff. Davis were engaged with the men they had employed to strike down the President and his chief official supporters. It cannot be forgotten that these rebel procurers of the assassination denied acquaintance with J. Wilkes Booth, and published their hypocritical horror at the killing of Mr. Lincoln. Davis, on hearing that the President had been shot, made use of a quotation that indicated his satisfaction at the partial accomplishment of a project of which he had been previously cognizant.

The testimony likewise revealed the source from which the burning enterprises originated, while it disclosed a design of Dr. Blackburn and Jacob Thompson, to poison the water of one of our largest cities. Poison and murder were their chosen agencies in advancing the Confederate cause. The character of these revelations shows the good judgment of the national authorities in refusing to give their developments to the public until the present time.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—President Johnson and other Government officials have been receiving anonymous letters containing violent threats.

It is believed that all the rebel Governors will be released on parole within a few days.

An order for the release of all rebel officers under the rank of Major will soon be issued. Commissioned officers will be required to give bonds for the faithful observance of the oath.

Secretary Seward was at the State Department four hours on Monday, attending to his dispatches for the foreign mails. Fred'k W. Seward is daily improving in health.

The Secretary of the Navy has issued a circular directing that, in the employment of mechanics and others in Navy Yards, all naval stations, or elsewhere in the service of the Navy Department, preference be given to such as have been honorably discharged from the Navy and the marine corps, and especially to those who have been wounded or disabled, provided they are capable of performing satisfactorily the duties required of them.

NORTH CAROLINA.—A large meeting of loyal citizens was held at Salisbury, N. C., on the 18th ult., and another at Lexington on the 20th. The speeches and resolutions were of a most loyal character. The Salisbury meeting recommended a State convention at Raleigh, June 20th, and elected delegates to it. North Carolinians evince it is said great eagerness to re-establish a loyal government.

THE GULF STATES, &c.—New Orleans dispatches of June 5 say,—Chief Justice Chase has arrived from Mobile. Gen. Sheridan has assumed command of the Division of the Southwest, embracing the country west of Mississippi river and south of Arkansas river. Gen. Sheridan and Canby have issued orders permitting cotton to be brought to market without military interference. Gen. Canby has divided the Department of the Gulf into four divisions.

Gen. Hood and staff surrendered to Gen. Davidson on May 31st.

THE JEFF DAVIS TRIAL.—A Washington dispatch says that a Congressman reminded President Johnson on Saturday, of the desire of some people that Jeff. Davis be tried by court martial, on the assassination counts, to vindicate his proclamation offering a reward for his arrest; to which the President responded that it seemed desirable that he be tried before a civil court for high treason, as a perpetual reminder that treason is the highest crime known to our laws; and he was willing to spread before the world the secret testimony in the assassination case, and trust to their verdict as to the complicity of Davis.

— In London, May 25, U. S. 5-20s were 67 1-4.

GOLD, in New York, Tuesday, 136 1-2.

— It is reported that the rebel Gen. Kirby Smith has started for France via Mexico.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Tuesday evening, last week, the store of Charles Smith, Newmarket, and most of the goods were burnt. Mr. S. was insured for $1700.

—— Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Harrington has been appointed Minister Resident at Berne, Switzerland, in place of Mr. Geo. G. Fogg, of Concord. We believe Mr. Fogg was the only foreign minister from New Hampshire, a State that has not often pressed its claims for appointments abroad. His successor is from New York.

—— The 1st N. H. Battery boys have returned home. The 9th and 11th Regts. are on the way.

—— A committee was chosen a few days ago to take steps toward procuring a charter from the Legislature for the purpose of building a new Universalist church in Nashua.

—— The dwelling house of John Hobart, of Orange, with many of the contents, was consumed by fire on the morning of the 27th, from a defect in the chimney: no insurance. Mrs. Hobart, in attempting to save some articles from the house, was badly burned.

—— The 3d New Hampshire have carried with them as a pet through all their campaigns, a magnificent eagle—his place in battle and on the march being on a cross-bar on the flag-staff; and what is somewhat remarkable, while the color-bearers of many, if not most regiments, have fallen in battle, the color-bearer of the 3d New Hampshire has not been hit, nor has the eagle, though the colors themselves are riddled with bullets. During the grand review at Washington, the eagle was hailed with cheers by the crowd, and his majesty replied by loudly flapping his wings.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—Just as the eight o'clock morning train from Salem started from the station in Chelsea, affrightened horse that had broken loose from a carriage came along the road, which runs at right angles with the track, at full speed, and seeing no better way to get past the obstacle, made directly for an opening between two of the cars, which were going slowly, and with a leap tried to get through, but the space being too narrow he became fast and fell between the cars and astride the coupling. The cars were promptly stopped and the horse released after a little time, without much apparant damage, except a severe squeezing and a skin wound which bled profusely.

☞ The Boston Herald's Washington correspondence says the stories of Cabinet changes and an extra session of Congress are wholly unfounded.

— A company has been started in Richmond, with Gov. Pierpont at its head, to open up Virginia to emigration from the North and to furnish all the information necessary.

— The case of Congressman Harris will be brought before Congress, and it is a question whether he will be allowed to sit in that body.

— Mr. Canover, who was supposed to have met with foul play, reached Washington Monday.

— The person who wrote the threatening letter has been arrested, and proves to be an insane Frenchman, laboring under the idea that the Government owes him $150,000, and threatens to have revenge unless paid by the 15th inst. His threat is not directly against the President, though the tone of the letter indicates as much.

— The horses and carriage the President declined to accept, have been sold at auction in New York. The horses, which cost $2500, brought $1900; and the carriage, which cost $2100, brought $1400. The harness sold at $435; original price, $675.

— The Pottsville, Pa., Miners' Journal says the reports of riots in the coal districts, are falsehoods, probably coined by speculators.

— Perley says that the premature publishers of the suppressed testimony, on the conspiracy cases, have come to grief.

— The Nashville Dispatch says: the Mexican dollars in which Jefferson Davis paid off his body guard, are jingling around the city to quite an extent. They were sold on the streets at one dollar and fifty cents, with any number of purchasers.

— The London Owl says that the case of the Alabama depredations has reached an unpleasant point, Great Britain having refused indemnity, and the American rejoinder alludes to compulsion.

— The story of the dreadful and fatal injury of a young lady near Washington, by three drunken officers, and their sentence by a court martial, turns out to be a lie, coined by secesh villains—who should be shot for lying so.

— Gen. Grant, at the solicitation of Gov. Andrew, has forbidden the sale of liquor along the line upon which returning Northern and New England soldiers march homeward, during their movement.

— Six hundred and thirty Mormons recently arrived at New York, on their way to the New Jerusalem, and more are on the way. One half of them are women. About 100,000 in all have come over from Europe in the last twenty years.

NEW BOOKS.—From Ticknor & Fields, Boston, we get Household Poems, by Henry W. Longfellow, with illustrations by some of the best artists; No. 1 of the new series of Companion Poets for the People.

From Walker, Fuller, & Co. Boston, we have A Youth's History of the Rebellion, by Wm. M. Thayer, in a handsome and valuable volume of 336 pages.—This volume, traces the rebellion from Roanoke to Murfreesboro', and abounds in interesting incidents.

"Home Ballads by our Home Poets," "Infinite riches in a little room"—is a beautiful little collection of verse, from our best authors; being No. 1 of the Cottage Library,—handsomely illustrated,—published by Bunce & Huntington, New York; sold by J. H. Foster, Portsmouth.

THE PRINTER OF THE COPPERPLATE CONFEDERATE TREASURY NOTES, who did that business for a long time in Columbia, N. C., is now in New York city, it is said, in a penniless condition. He had the only establishment in the Confederacy for performing that work, and was compelled to do it, but delayed operations as much as possible, and printed the notes as slowly as he could without exciting the suspicion of the Confederate authorities.

He employed a large number of girls, and on one pretext or another some forty men, thus keeping them out of the rebel army. When Sherman took Columbia he availed himself of the protection of the Federal force, and put all his savings—some $15,000 in gold—into the hands of one of Sherman's Quartermasters. This officer now asserts that he has lost the money, which leaves the rebel printer almost stripped of everything, and he has, in this needy condition, arrived in New York.

☞ On Monday morning, in a Court in Boston, the jury in the case of Hon. Francis O. J. Smith, indicted for subornation of perjury, came in and rendered a verdict of guilty. Several exceptions were taken by the defendants to certain letters and other matter introduced into the evidence, which will go before the Supreme Court for argument. Mr. Smith is widely known as a lawyer, editor, telegraph owner, and politician. The testimony has been published in several papers, and appears conclusive.

☞ Rev. E. W. Jackson, the well known temperance man, says in his Armory Square Hospital Gazette, that "President Lincoln was not a Son of Temperance, but a lifelong teetotaller. We received this intelligence from his own lips." Mr. Jackson also says, that so far as he knows, the said Gazette "is the only paper in the United States devoted exclusively to the interests of the Order of the Sons of Temperance. They will bear in mind that if it is supported at all, it must be by members of the Order."

— U. S. 5-20s advanced about 3 per cent. in London, in the 3 days from May 21 to 24.

— The number of lives lost at Mobile, by the explosion, is estimated at near 300. The first report was 500. The loss of property $5,000,000,—to 10,000,000. Thirty tons of powder exploded, being one third of what was surrendered by Dick Taylor.

— The Springfield Republican says "Rev. Dr. Todd of Pittsfield who declined to read Gov. Andrews' Fast Proclamation because it failed to recognize the divinity of Christ, will perhaps be surprised, if not amused, to learn that the proclamation was written by an Orthodox Congregational clergyman. This is not the only one of the governor's proclamations not written by himself."

A FEW REASONS WHY THE
AMERICAN WATCH
IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "anceres," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

Agents Wanted for
THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE.
By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
Tribune Correspondent.

The above work will embrace Mr. Richardson's unparallelled experience for four years: travelling through the South in the secret service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the War; with our armies and fleets both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture while running the batteries on the Mississippi River at Vicksburg, where more than half his companions were either killed or wounded; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers of North Carolina and Tennessee through the enemy's country to our lines.

This work presents a rare opening for both men and women, who desire lucrative employment.—For particulars address

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. THE BUCKLEYS gave a bang-up Concert last night, we tell you; and they are to give just one more, just like it, only more so, and different too, to-night. They are Bucklers, that's a fact; and no Troupe can give a better Concert than they. Don't lose this last chance to hear 'em.

FOURTH OF JULY.—The City Government of Newburyport have voted to appropriate twelve hundred dollars to celebrate the 4th of July. How much has Portsmouth appropriated? $100, we believe—and we hear that our Cornet Band is already engaged to play in Boston on that day.

A correspondent has a word to say on this subject, this morning—and we think he talks sensibly too. For our part, we wish the Sons and Daughters could all be invited here, to a social Pic-Nic, or something of the sort, in the fields or woods, in some such manner as "A Citizen" proposes,—which we deem far better than any dusty street celebration.

☞ There was no sale at auction of the Sparhawk Estate at Kittery Point on Saturday last; but it has since been taken at $3250, by parties for future sale or occupancy, as the case may be.

Communication.

4th JULY.—An informal invitation having been given to the native Sons of Portsmouth with their wives to again visit their friends and relatives in this city on the ensuing 4th July, it is ardently hoped that our fellow citizens will make preparations to celebrate that day dedicated to Liberty, in an appropriate manner.

We do not mean, by desecrating the day, as in some past years, by idle street shows, mockery, empty pageants, and such like exhibitions, for mere sport, which are a waste of time and money, without any public benefit; but we mean, to celebrate the day by public exercises, reading the Declaration of Independence, an oration, a public dinner, and any amusements suitable to the occasion, according to the usages in other cities and towns, since the memorable period of our National Independence.

The war is ended; our glorious rights and liberties are fixed upon a firmer basis, and under all the circumstances, it seems to be a very fit time properly to commemorate the day when our nation was born, and to reaffirm the political principles upon which our Fathers established our free institutions. A CITIZEN.

For the Chronicle.

CABINET ORGANS.—The cabinet organ is already the accepted rival of the pianoforte for family use, its musical resources being such as will compare favorably with those of the best, and its cost being considerably less than that of the common square piano. The cabinet organ, first introduced in the year 1862, has had to combat a very wide-spread, deep-seated prejudice against reed instruments, the results of popular experiences with those reservoirs of of auricular torture, the melodeon and harmonium. To the educated ear the asthmatic tones of those instruments caused an aggregate amount of incalculable agony, which begat a general vindictive feeling against these offending boxes of almost villainous sound. But Messrs. Mason & Hamlin have changed all this, and by their improvements produced an instrument of the highest order of merit, both as regards the quality of its tones and its capacity for artistic as well as popular effects—an instrument which appears likely, and deserves, to become as popular as the piano-forte.

Besides the advantage of its less cost, this instrument has a popular attraction in that sufficient skill upon it to afford some musical satisfaction is more easily acquired than on the piano-forte.

A. Pearson, is Mason & Hamlin's agent for this city and vicinity.

A NOVEL FEATURE AT WEST POINT. INAUGURATION OF A BABY CUP.—The graduating class at West Point for the present year have developed a singular idea; they have started a baby cup, to be claimed by the first of their number who earns the proud title of father. The design of the goblet is as original as the idea. The bowl of the cup is of silver, polished so as to resemble burnished steel. In shape and size it resembles a twelve pound cannon ball, and will answer the double purpose of a drinking cup or christening bowl. This is poised upon a mortar of silver gilt, which in turn is supported by an upright cannon of the same material.

Round the mortar are four gilt medallions, representing Cupid, Minerva, Venus and Mars. The cannon is surrounded by the emblems of the four branches of the service, the artillery, cavalry, infantry and engineer corps. Under the pick and shovel of the engineers is their motto, "Essayons"—let us try—which, not inappropriately, has been selected as the motto of the cup. The pedestal, like the bowl, is of burnished silver, and the whole is surmounted by an admirably executed figure of a cadet in full uniform, round which are engraved the names of the sixty-nine members of the class.

HARD ON JEFF.

One of Sherman's soldiers found the following preface and poetry in a rebel newspaper, which he picked up on a battlefield near Eden's Station, on the Georgia Central Railroad:

The following lines were taken from the body of a dead Yankee, on the battlefield of Ream's Station, by a Georgia soldier belonging to Young's Brigade:

PRAYER IN BEHALF OF JEFF. DAVIS.

Oh, may that cuss, Jeff. Davis, float
On ojcnn sea, in open boat,
In Iceland cold, without a coat.
Glory Hallelujah!

Without a compass, sail or oar,
A million miles away from shore,
Where mighty waves like mountains roar.
Glory Hallelujah!

May sharks devour him, stem and stern,
A whale engulf him at a turn,
And the devil get the whole concern.
Glory Hallelujah!

Oh, may the cursed traitor dwell
In darker pits of deepest hell,
And gnash his teeth and groan and yell.
Glory Hallelujah!

And 'mid his roars and frantic cries,
Oh make eternal ashes rise,
And blow forever in his eyes.
Glory Hallelujah!

In burning brimstone he may be,
While little devils dance in glee,
Then lock the door and lose the key.
Glory Hallelujah!

A Card.

ELIOT, June 24, 1865.

If WALTER BROWN (who professes to be the Champion of New England as an Oarsman,) wants to row, he can be accommodated any day the present month he will appoint (Sundays excepted,) on the following terms: Mr. BROWN to row his shell boat against the "Sculpin," from three to five miles, for from Five to Ten Dollars a stake, or from Portsmouth Bridge to the Narrows, turning a stake and return, for Two Hundred Dollars ($200) a side. If Mr. BROWN will meet me at the Store of THOS. B. GAMMON, Portsmouth, N. H., on Wednesday evening, June 7th, from 7 to 9 o'clock, to draw up articles and make a deposit, he will oblige F. A. STAPLES.

PORTSMOUTH, June 5th.

Editor Chronicle:—SIR: While looking over the columns of your paper, my attention was directed to an article headed 'A Card," and addressed to Mr. Walter Brown of Portsmouth, wherein he is challenged by one Frank Staples, of Eliot, to row a race of 3 or 5 miles without turning; which in my opinion is a very unfair challenge, for we have never seen a race of this kind on the Piscataqua, that extended farther than from Pray's Wharf to the Beacon, or from the Bridge to the Beacon; and upon all occasions the men were equally matched in numbers. In such a case it was fair to row any distance the parties may prefer; but in this case, where twelve of the best oarsmen picked from Sculpin Point and the vicinity of the Neck, are proposed to be rowed against one man, it is unfair and unmanly to ask such a task of a single oarsman, it matters not what kind of a boat he may select.

Mr. Brown is an enterprising young Mechanic, and with his tools has but few equals, as he has proved in the construction of the boat he proposes to pull against such great odds. Now for the benefit of all Sculpin Pointers and Neckers, I will make three separate Matches: I will back Mr. Brown in his single scull boat called the "Horace Kent," against the 12-oared boat "Sculpin," for a race on the Piscataqua River any time in the rowing season, say the month of June or July,—a distance of one mile straight, without turning, from Pray's Wharf to the Beacon, for $500 a side; or I will match to row the same boat and same crew a distance of two miles and turn two stakes, for the same sum; or I will back him against any one single man in New England in shell boats, no restriction as to style or length of boat, any distance from fifty feet to fifty miles, for $1000 a side,—in two weeks from making the match.

The above Matches can be made when the parties meet at Mr. GAMMON'S Store, on Wednesday night, June 7th inst., or by addressing

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7.3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

THE POTATIONS OF TRAITORS.—Every reader of the reports of the assassination trial, must have been struck with the regularity with which the conspirators and their friends "took a drink." Their bibacity reveals itself on all occasions. In one place it appears that a witness and one of the prisoners occupied themselves while in bed and before daylight, in passing the cup from couch to couch. It begins to look as if another spirit was intimately associated with the peculiar institution in perpetrating the crime of murder and carrying on the rebellion. The verdict is likely to be, Slavery and Whiskey did it.

THE SULTANA SLAUGHTER.—The Indianapolis Journal publishes the testimony of Major Tombs and Sergeant Jolly of that place, relative to the loss of the Sultana and the lives of 1700 soldiers on board her. They state that they heard the transportation quartermaster at Vicksburg boast that he was going to make a "big thing" out of the Sultana's load—he getting $5 each for the soldiers shipped on her, and allowing the boat but $3.15 each, making a net profit to himself of near $3,700. The captain of the Sultana protested against crowding his boat so outrageously and unnecessarily, but was arrogantly threatened by the quartermaster with the seizure and impressment of his boat if he persisted in his expostulations.

☞ A Nevada paper tells how Dr. Ross, of Virginia, being a merciful man, and kind to every living thing, had clipped the ears of a beautiful, blooded, rat-terrier. He procured a dollar's worth of chloroform, and after administering the juvenile canine several doses by means of a sponge, succeeded in producing a most satisfactory state of insensibility. He clipped the pup's ears beautifully, and wired them up in splendid style. So far the operation was a decided success, but when he came to wake up his patient it was no go. The "purp" was dead.

— A magnificent sword, purchased at a cost of $750 by the colored people of Fortress Monroe and Norfolk, is now on the way to be presented to Gen. Butler.

— Dr. Mackay has been appointed Collector of the Customs at Charleston, as an acknowledgment of his steadfast Union course during the rebellion.

— It is stated that some of the French Ministers threaten to resign, unless all the French troops are withdrawn from Mexico.

Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or writings relating to Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The long practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in Great Britain and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary expenses of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure them (as early and favorable considerations at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his ordinary practice, made one hundred applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be consumed day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Hayes, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to some of the gentlemen prominent in starting this company as a man strictly honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum regions, and was solicited to aid in selecting the proper lands for this company. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Brewer, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel E. Lancaster, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the Petroleum region of Pennsylvania, they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Hayes, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The Oil Bath seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Allegheny river, and not twenty miles from any point. Oil City and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Bath and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty six million of dollars. The last of March, Mr. H. Harris, Esq., a well-known lawyer in Boston and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and E. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions the others had and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:
THE MATTISON FARM.
This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The map of the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a little south of Allegheny river on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.
The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great oil flats south of Titusville, from which immense fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 2000 barrels per day—the Fountain 200—the Parker 100—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will cost ten thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well sell for half a million.
It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm is that is not good for coal, is equal to the flat below Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $18 per ton, and the value of coal should the oil well it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, burning freely as Cannel.
The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $16 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $6000 to sink a well to the depth of 700 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $50 per day to work a well if it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Mr. Hayes says:
"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and preventing geological features of a more full and perfect character than any other that I have conducted with, I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting Oil Territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in each of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors MAYNARD and SHEPHERD, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the representations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Hates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is abundant room for coal for 18 wells, and for oil on this farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation of the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit of the whole in a year, if they are as good as they are expected, if they only yield the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and your income from this farm alone will be over one million of dollars. This Company do not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let each reader make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.
THE PARKER FARM
Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Hill Farm, and adjoining the Cherry Creek and where the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek. They have lately sunk a well right opposite this farm and struck oil. A single flow of oil on this Parker farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great sums. The remarks about the portion of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.
THE BYLES FARM,
On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Mattison Farm, and south of the Parker Farm, so very that flows 300, the Maple Shade and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow with great force a few days ago, and with a tucker rod in, and it pips seven-eighths full of machinery, it has flowed 250 barrels per day ever since.—They have not commenced to use the tucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 3,200 barrels. Below this well on the same Creek, another fine well has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. Adjoining the north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In night of the spouting wells, and between the Frazer and the one which has raised so high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod of it is believed to be splendidly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Hates thinks very highly of it, and has no other hold on it but a verbal one. It is superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.
THE DAWSON FARM,
On WEST PIT HOLE, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show of oil. Mr. Hates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.
Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.
Circulars, prospectuses, &c., containing every information, will be furnished on application at the office of the Company, or sent by mail to parties wishing to subscribe. Apply to or address

The Chronicle.

— Senator Clark, in his Manchester oration, tells the following anecdote of President Lincoln, which we do not remember to have seen in print before:

Thus in his great debate with Mr. Douglas, the "little giant" had accused him of tending bar, alluding to his keeping a grocery store. "True," said Mr. Lincoln, "the Judge and I have both tended bar—I on the inside, he on the out." Mr. Douglas never again alluded to this portion of his history.

A ROPE FOR JEFF. DAVIS.—A bangman's rope, made two years ago, of South Carolina hemp, to hang Jeff. Davis with, was forwarded from this city to Washington on Monday. It was made by Mrs. Parmenter, a daughter of Capt. Peter Slater, who will be remembered by our old residents as the builder of the first rope-walk out of Boston ever established in Massachusetts. The maker of the rope wishes to have it speedily used.—Worcester Spy.

— The number of vessels in commission on the Atlantic seaboard, of all descriptions, is ordered to be reduced from six hundred to ninety. The West Gulf Squadron is to be reduced to twenty, and the Mississippi Squadron to fifteen vessels.

THE SHAD FISHING.—Capt. Ruel Cooley, who has fished in this vicinity for forty years, says he never saw such a season for shad as this, and thinks it will hardly be equalled any year in the lifetime of the present generation. The catch at Double Ditch on Monday last numbered 1800, and from 400 to 500 have been taken daily since.—Springfield Republican.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DO'N T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home made, flowing freely, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made Ink, for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppo Galls, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one seems to like it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. It is no fault, some in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. FOLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used. I would not be without. I remain yours,
GEO. H. BOLMER,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had I a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient serv't,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company—This is certainly that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing. It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is no fault, or sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. ELANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that are anything of a judge of the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moor's Maynard & Noyes', D. J. Ridout's, and many others, but yours is the best I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1865.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The Post's special Washington dispatch says the delegation from Alabama left for home to-day. It is understood that they have not succeeded in obtaining permission for the rebel Legislature to re-assemble. A Provisional Governor will be appointed.

The Times' dispatch says the Alabama delegation succeeded in impressing the President with the idea that they have abandoned their treason, and urged the appointment of Judge Parsons, also a traitor until subjugated, for military governor. The officers of the Alabama Union regiment are urging the appointment of another man.

The threatening letter lately received by President Johnson was written by a crazy German, who has been sent to the Insane Asylum.

Some weeks will be required to repair the railroad from Fredericksburg to Richmond. The rails for a distance of ten miles had been taken up by the rebels to repair or make roads in other parts of Virginia.

In accordance with the direction of Lieutenant General Grant, all the wounded rebel soldiers confined in the Old Capitol prison were released upon taking the oath of allegiance.

It is understood the statement that the French Minister omitted promptly to hand in the letter of condolence from the Empress Eugenie to Mrs. Lincoln was incorrect. The letter was delivered at the Department of State as soon as it reached M. De Montholon, and at once sent to the lady to whom it is addressed. [What could be the object of the man who coined a lie so foolish?]

Preparations for the trial of Jeff. Davis on the 19th instant, are going forward among the civil authorities.

Secretary Seward attended a meeting of the Cabinet to-day, but was unable to remain through the sitting.

About 6000 rebel prisoners, who have already taken the oath of allegiance will soon be released.

CONSPIRACY TRIAL.—The Times' Washington dispatch says it is probably that the testimony in the conspiracy case will be closed on Friday.

The Tribune's dispatch says the surreptitious publication of the suppressed testimony has greatly endangered the lives of the witnesses, some of whom are still in Canada. Dr. Merritt, who is a very worthy man, and who was vouched for in the court by Gen. Grant, was warned against going to Canada, but was obliged to go to settle up his affairs, and has not been heard from since he went.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Herald's Columbia (S. C.) correspondence says the chivalry of that State are accommodating themselves to the altered condition of affairs and acknowledging the power of the national government to maintain its authority. The Railroads of the State are being repaired rapidly, and in a few weeks transportation will be as complete as before the war.

It is said that Trenholm, late rebel Secretary of the Treasury, is quietly living with his family at Abbeville, S. C.

DEATHS BY THE WAR.—Official returns in the War office show that the deaths in the army since the war broke out, so far as heard from, with the estimate made for those returns not yet handed in, including starved prisoners, &c., will aggregate about three hundred and twenty-five thousand! If we add the permanently disabled, we see at what a terrible sacrifice of life and limb the nation has preserved its existence against the attack of traitors.

If we were not the most merciful people in the world, the accountability of these criminals would be far more deeply felt. Where else would such an instigator of bloodshed as John Mitchell, be allowed to resume his teachings among the very people whom he had tried his utmost for four years to injure and distress? Where else would the authors of such an awful destruction of life, claim exemption from punishment on the ground that they caused it on such a scale as to make it a war instead of a murderous plot? But we believe that the more our people reflect on the past, the more they will hate the guiltiness of the conspirators, however much they may be averse from vengeance.

GOLD, Wednesday, 137 1-2. Steamer China, from Boston, took $500,000 for Liverpool.

— In Northern Georgia the people are said to be suffering for food—a bitter effect of their foolish and wicked rebellion.

— The rebels, Gen. Dick Taylor and Prof. McCullough, are said to be arrested in Florida, trying to escape to Cuba. They were among the plotters to burn New York.

— The Sec. of the Treasury has divided Mississippi and the Carolinas into districts for the collection of U. S. internal taxes.

SURPRISING CHANGES.—In a very ingenious article on the suffrage question, the Boston Post argues against universal suffrage, on the ground of ignorant unfitness in a large portion of the masses, and at the end comes to the following conclusion:

We repeat the sentiment of the Salem (Mass.) Gazette, and give to it our cordial approbation, namely: "No person should be denied the privilege of suffrage on account of origin or complexion: nor should any person be admitted to it who is not identified in interest with the country, and of presumable intelligence to vote understandingly."

In the previous part of the article, the Post says:—

We must confess that we are somewhat surprised at the recent exhibitions made in relation to allowing all the negroes of the Southern States to vote in the reorganization and establishment of the States late in rebellion. * * * * *

We are the more surprised to see the Hon. Mr. Boutwell announce this as his dogma, and propose that all persons of African descent shall be entitled to vote in the Southern States, whether they are semi savage or civilized; whether they can read or write the ballot they cast, or not, because Mr. B. was formerly for several years the Secretary of the Board of Education in Massachusetts, and always before maintained, we believe, that education was the basis, and the only solid basis upon which society can for a moment rest in a civilized, and especially in a republican state.

All this is very pretty, and much of it is true. We too have been surprised, and very agreeably so, to see how nearly unanimous the loyal people and presses are, in favor of this new step in the nation's progress.

A single example, however, will show how the reading and writing test would operate, if transplanted to the South. The educated men of the State of South Carolina, par excellence, made the rebellion and began the war. That portion of them who would swear themselves into citizens now, would vote adversely to every thing like common schools, or common privileges, and so would age as much as possible of their old aristocracy, of State supremacy, and everything else adverse to the true interest of the Republic, and to democratic principles. The loyal men there are mostly unable to read.

If, however, the late rebel States should be held under military governors of the right sort for two or more years, with government schools, and the reading test then applied, it might work as well there as elsewhere.

But if reconstruction must come speedily, the only safe way is, to let the whole people vote there. We believe, also, that a presidential or congressional edict, which should allow and defend such suffrage there, would be sustained by the People of the Land, as fully as they sustained Jefferson's purchase of Louisiana, Jackson's removal of the deposits, and Lincoln's proclamation of liberty.

U. T.

RICH ITEMS.—The Daily Copperhead, in speaking of the Union, and bringing a State back into it, says: "Just as tho' that is not exactly what we have been fighting for." The WE of the Daily Copperhead has been fighting for Jeff. Davis, slavery, State Supremacy, and the rebels,—and against our government, ever since it had a being. It has aimed to weaken our hands, and strengthen those of the rebels,—and now says: "WE have been fighting!"

In another number the Copperhead says, speaking of negro suffrage:—

Never mind; let them vote. They will vote themselves into slavery again quicker than white men will do it.

Well: we say let them vote. If they vote themselves into slavery, "never mind"—voluntary servitude is not slavery. But the Copperhead editor talks nonsense, and will talk his paper to death.

DISFRANCHISEMENT A PREREQUISITE TO UNION.—One of the prominent political leaders of the Rebellion, now in Washington, and one who is excepted from President Johnson's amnesty, remarked in conversation that if the victorious North intends to impress its ideas of State subordination and free labor on the Southern people, it will have to disfranchise for a term of years all who have taken part with the rebellion; and the longer such a measure is delayed, the further off will be the era of political harmony in this country. This is the conclusion, also, of some of the soundest Union men in Washington, set to thinking anew by the disgraceful attitude of affairs in Virginia.—Corr. Tribune.

— The Columbia (S. C.) Phœnix complains that the State is overrun with robbers and horse thieves, who are preying upon what subsistence and property have been left the unfortunate citizens. Large quantities of cotton and tobacco are being brought to light in Montgomery, Alabama, and a brisk trade is being opened. Steamers are running again between there and Mobile.

— H. S. Foote writes to a Montreal paper, remonstrating against the attachment of the old epithet "Hangman" to his name. He acknowledges that the epithet was justly attached to his name for his threat to hang Senator Hale, of New Hampshire, years ago. He says he was soon ashamed of it, and apologized for it, but it sticks to him still, like the shirt of Nessus.

— There is a newspaper carrier in New Haven, Ct., who has walked thirty miles a day for the last three years.

TRUTH WELL TOLD.—In an article on Reconstruction, the Boston Journal observes "that nearly all the rebel chiefs who have given their views on the subject insist strongly on the importance of conciliating the people of the South, and our own papers have had much to say to the same effect." Well: but are they not under some obligation to conciliate us? Does not the mere fact that they have been defeated in the conflict of arms, into which they have wickedly dragged the government, obliterate all the just indignation which their unprovoked wickedness and their bloody course—fraught with the death and misery of hundreds of thousands of innocent people—is too well calculated to keep alive in every loyal heart?

But the victors should set the first example of magnanimity. So we do. But it is not a good sign when those who have been disarmed in their attempt to destroy the life of the nation, busy themselves more in prescribing the conduct of their victors than in looking to their associates in treason. And it is a very bad sign for their northern allies to be so much more anxious to save the rebel leaders, than they were to save our own government and public men.

LABOR IN VIRGINIA.—The Richmond Republican of Saturday says that on the previous Thursday a meeting of the farmers of seven counties in Virginia was held at Louisa Court House for the purpose of considering the question of the remuneration to be made for negro labor hereafter. After deliberation, it was determined to fix the hire of field hands at five dollars per month—the negro to furnish his clothing and pay his doctor's bills. The sum of one dollar per day for hands during harvest was also fixed upon. This is an important movement, being the first fixing the pay for the negroes in Virginia. These prices will rule throughout the State, and very likely throughout the South.

MILITARY EDUCATION.—If the main question were this—"Is it advisable that military officers should be educated for their vocation?"—it is quite certain that the answer must be affirmative. But is that the question? We say it is not, but this rather, "Ought a monopoly of all the commissions in our army to be secured to the graduates of a single school?"—and on that question we vote No. It is not wise nor well to officer our army exclusively by West Pointers, and thereby crush out all other seminaries for diffusing military knowledge. It is not in accord with the genius of our Government. Nay: we go further and say that, where two boys aspire to a military life, and our Government selects one of them, educates him thoroughly at the cost of our whole people, and then gives him a commission, refusing the other boy any chance to obtain one, no matter how thoroughly qualified, it does violence to the genius of republicanism.—Tribune.

Although fresh meats and provisions generally in Richmond are much cheaper than in Boston, the papers complain that the prices are so enormous that people of moderate means cannot afford to indulge in purchasing.

That's where the shoe pinches: their prices are low, but their industry and their means are lower. This reminds Uncle Toby of some talk with an Irishman long ago, when pistareens were a common currency. The Irishman was a new comer, talkative, proud and witty withal; a number of people were buying meat, and he among the rest. Ah, said he, we could get a dale more mate for a pistareen in Ireland, than we get here. Why didn't you stay there, then? said a bystander. Ah, indade it was because I couldn't get the pistareen. This answer hit the nail on the head, and a hearty laugh closed the conference.

LONDON ITEMS, May 27.—U. S. 5-20s, from 67 1-2 to 68. Consols 91.

Prince Napoleon has resigned. The London Post says the Prince resigned in consequence of the letter of the Emperor.

The Globe says the Prince was censured for his democratic views generally, but more particularly for uttering hostile sentiments on the Emperor's American policy.

The firm of Woodhouse, Kenick & Co., an old Bombay House, has suspended with liabilities of £16,000.

— Ex-Gov. Magoffin, of Kentucky, the toughest of living conservatives, has come out in favor of the abolition of slavery in that State, and the passage of the anti-slavery amendment to the United States constitution. He declares it vitally important to the peace and prosperity of Kentucky to make quick work of it, and intends to take the stump in behalf of abolition at once.

— The Washington Chronicle states, on the authority of Pres. Johnson and Sec. Stanton, that they have had no differing, and that the Secretary does not intend to resign.

— The election in Missouri, on the new State Constitution, which took place on the 6th, passed off quietly. The majority against it in St. Louis may reach 5000.

— The wife of Gen. John C. Breckinridge, the self-exiled traitor, arrived in Cincinnati on Friday, from Washington, by permission of President Johnson, on her way to visit her relatives in Kentucky.

A lady wished for a seat in a crowded hall. A handsome gentleman brought her a chair. "You are a jewel," said she. "Oh, no, I am a jeweler; I have just set the jewel."

A lady asked Jekyll what was the difference between a solicitor and an attorney? "Much the same, ma'am," replied he, "as between a crocodile and an aligator."

What is the difference between a bulldog preparing for a fight, and a farmer awakened by his roosters? The one cocks his ears, and the other ears his cocks!

THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE.
By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
Tribune Correspondent.
The above work will embrace Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years: travelling through the South in the secret service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the War; with our armies and fleets both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture while running the batteries on the Mississippi River at Vicksburg, where more than half his companions were either killed or wounded; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers of North Carolina and Tennessee through the enemy's country to our lines.
This work presents a rare opening for both men and women, who desire lucrative employment.—For particulars address

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.
Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. my29dawlm

AMERICAN WATCH
IS THE BEST.
It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "watch and chain," and "Swiss lever" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.
THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.
Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is as all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—
1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.
We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.
OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.
OUR NEXT HIGHEST QUALITY OF WATCH named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.
OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.
OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.
THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.
OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best watches of the most famous English and Swiss makers.

☞ Shay's great Chinese Troupe open at the Temple to-night. The Newburyport Herald says: "The exhibition by the Quinquplexals at City Hall last evening, delighted the audience. Every thing was up to the promise and exceeded expectations." See their advertisement.

POLICE COURT, June 6.—John Keefe was complained of for drunkenness and fined $3, cost $3.86.

June 7, Bartholomew Sullivan for brawl and tumult was fined $3; cost 3.86.

John Moulton, for brawl and tumult was fined 3, cost $3 86.

John Keefe, for being a common drunkard, was sentenced to House of correction two months, and pay cost $4.80.

☞ We are glad to see that the Boston Advertiser declines to follow the other papers of that city in a reduction of its rates. "The Boston Advertiser, which, (as the Newburyport Herald well says) is one of the best papers in the country, shows its discretion in this, as generally in its action." The circulation of several of the Boston papers, (some living, but more dead) was gotten up by cutting under the fair prices, which were low enough for the reader, and only gave a fair living to the publisher and printers.

The earliest low-priced papers in Boston, viz., the Times, Mail, Herald, Bee, &c., failed or changed hands again and again. Nevertheless, their sharp competitors for the public eye, induced the publishers of larger and better papers to follow in the same course, until most of the of the Dailies in Boston were sold much below the actual cost of printing and paper, being sustained by the advertisments, when those were abundant, and when these became scant, and expenses rose, some barely lived through the pinch, and others failed or changed hands.

Now you may prate as you will, about the making of many books and papers—but we don't believe anybody is any better off, or wiser, for the great increase and cheapening of newspapers, "below cost." Any thing worth having, is worth paying for—and far better were it for the printer and no worse for the reader to pay five cents for one edition of a paper daily, rather than six cents for two.—And we think it would have shown more sense and sensibility in the Boston publishers, to have kept the pay of their hands at the desired point, and their own paper charges as they were, instead of cutting down both. We believe the laborer is worthy of his hire, and don't see that printers are in any danger of making too much money, even under the most favorable circumstances.

☞ The 19th Maine Regt. which passed through this city on their way home, on Saturday, had been in sixteen battles; but nowhere did the Major, who was in command on Saturday, behave better than in Boston, where the regiment stopped three hours. Fearing some trouble from a rum shop near the depot, he asked the proprietor to close his bar, and being refused, he detailed a guard of soldiers, who closed up the place till he got away. That is the kind of fellow that Boston and some other cities need for a City Marshal, with full powers to see the liquor laws enforced.

☞ The Herald says Houses are in great demand in Newburyport, (and they have got no Navy Yard there, either,) but, as in Portsmouth, the pressure "is not sufficient to induce anybody to build or purchase tenements to let; as apart from repairs, insurance, taxes, and cost of collecting the rents, they would not pay more than three or four per cent." True—and yet how constant is the growling about high rents, the world over—when everybody knows, who knows anything about it, that but very little real estate "pays" the owner.

☞ The Daily Copperhead says that "A party of negroes have been committing horrible outrages in the upper part of Chesterfield county, Virginia, in the belief that this was the privilege of freedmen—a respectable lady having been deliberately forced," &c. Horrible enough, truly; but wherein is it any worse than the "chivalry" used to treat the negro women? And how should Cuffee know any better than he has been taught, by his master's example if not precept?

☞ Why are Poets generally not good business men? Because they write too many owe-ds.

— An engine company in Bath, Me., officers and men, have joined the Sons of Temperance.

— They sell milk in some places in Connecticut at 4 cents per quart.

— A white marble Methodist chapel has just been built in Philadelphia at a cost of $150,000.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the bile the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.

Two cents " " " " " $100 "
Ten " " " " " " $500 "
20 " " " " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

THE HOLY DOVE.

There sitteth a dove so white and fair
All on the lilly spray,
And she breateth how to Jesus Christ
The little children pray.
Lightly she spreadeth her friendly wings,
And to Heaven's gate hath speed,
And unto the Father in Heaven she bears
The prayers which the children have said.

And back she comes from Heaven's gate,
And brings—that dove so mild!—
From the Father in Heaven, who hears her speak,
A blessing to every child.
Then, children, lift up a pleasant prayer
It bears whatever you say,
That heavenly dove, so white and fair,
All on the lilly spray.

Researches made into the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full models of all patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved to inventors.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass out into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which signifies them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Rise, and others.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to some of the gentlemen prominent in starting this company and was urgently entreated to use his experience in the Petroleum regions, and was solicited to aid in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Gen. B. F. Martin, Hon. Mosely Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, of Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel E. Lancaster, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in the spring they found one of the farms selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The farms are located in the region situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Alleghany river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other. All the Oil Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year the 3d Grade of Pennsylvania, as, in Curtin says in his Message, fifty six million of dollars. The last of March, D. W. Harris, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions that others had, and these Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:

THE MATTISON FARM.

This Farm contains 94 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The lay of the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.

The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which immense fortunes have been made. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 3000 barrels per day—the Fountain 200—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well sell for half a million.

It is believed by good judges that every rod of the seventy-five rods of the Mattison Farm, which is not here good for coal, is equal to the Flat below Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $12 per ton, and if the vein of coal should fail, oil well would be a fortune in itself. It is spleendid coal, burning freely as Cannel.

The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the wells, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $600 to sink a well to the depth of 700 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $20 per day to work it after it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:

"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more full and perfect character than any other that I am acquainted with, and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting Oil Territory in Venango County for myself and associates, which of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors MAYNARD and SHEPHERD, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion, regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Professor Shepherd or Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells. The flowing wells would sell for from one to one hundred, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be of incalculable value. There is abundant room on the same belt for hundreds on this farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation of the cost of so many wells, and the expense of sinking on the whole in a year, if these areas goes as they are expected, if they only yield the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and your humble servant will make the figures over one million of dollars. This Company do not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let each reader make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.

THE PARKER FARM

Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek, and about three miles west of the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek. They have lately sunk a well right opposite the farm and struck oil. A single good well on this subject farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.

THE BYLES FARM,

On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Coquet Well that flows 200 barrels daily, the Jarrett Well that flows 300, the Maple Shade and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the same line. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with the usher red in, and its pipe seven-eighths full of machinery, it has flowed 280 barrels per day ever since.—Boarding houses are being built on another rod yet, leaving they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 8,200 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another large well has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. Little farther north, on the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In the spouting wells, just the space between the Frazer and the one which has raised so high hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod of it is a well site. It is abundantly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, cash down.

THE DAWSON FARM,

On WEST PIT HOLE, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is sinking as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.

Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

Circulars, prospectuses, &c., containing every information, will be furnished on application at the office of the Company, or sent by mail to parties wishing to subscribe. Apply to or address

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced.
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over every other place in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this Ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, JUNE 9, 1865.

THE ROLL OF HONOR.—The New York Herald proposes to have the national debt of three thousand millions paid off by voluntary subscriptions of 150,000 rich men, in the sum of $20,000 each; and assumes that it will be a paying thing in the end for each of these subscribers, as it will compound entirely for their taxes, which, in the end, would amount to more. The Herald man offers to give $40,000, Com. Vanderbilt $500,000, Bonner of the Ledger $40,000, and so on—and we have no doubt the amount could easily be raised in this way, if the right man would only take hold of it in the right way.

An enterprising business man in this city says Portsmouth should and would subscribe at least one $30,000 share, and we believe it—for any live man would give from $100 to $500.

Wilkes' Spirit says of it—

"This is a good plan; but if it be good in the point of view in which it is put, we think it would be a better plan to assess the whole debt in a lump against all persons who have any taxable property, and thus be just all round. We propose this because we know there are not 150,000 persons in the United States who could spare $20,000 each; and because we know also, that the required amount could be raised out of our thirty millions. This is our plan, but only as contrasted with the Herald plan. That plan cannot work, while ours might."

But we go in for the Herald's plan, and hope it will be put through. The country is able to pay every debt of the war, and not feel it—and will do it ultimately; but had better do it now, as proposed.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Governor Watts of Alabama, who was arrested a few days ago at Macon, Ga., has been released from arrest and has returned to Montgomery.

It is thought that Letcher and Vance, now in the Old Capitol, will be released on parole.

All doubt in Fred. Seward's case is at an end. He has rapidly recovered within a few days, and is enabled to converse freely and suffers but little pain.

J. G. Nicolay, Private Secretary of President Lincoln, is making arrangements to leave for Paris on the 24th inst., to enter upon his duties as Consul.

A few only of the iron clads will be kept in commission; the others will probably be laid up in the Delaware River.

The President usually receives visitors for about five hours daily, being kept nearly all that time upon his feet. Wednesday at 2 P. M. there were at least 100 persons, one-fifth women, impatiently waiting for admission.

It is the opinion of the officers of the iron-clad squadron, sent to watch the pirate Stonewall, before she was surrendered to the Cuban authorities, that she is not so formidable as supposed, and that even the Monadnock was more than a match for her. This opinion has been expressed to the Navy Department after a careful survey of the Stonewall.

☞ The N. Y. Herald's Washington special has the following items:

"A formal demand has been made on the Spanish Government for the surrender of the rebel ram Stonewall.

It is not the intention of our government to abandon or abate its demand upon England for damages upon our commerce by the rebel pirate. Enough of our armies will be retained to enforce any demands upon foreign governments.

It is understood that preliminary measures have been taken to enforce the Monroe doctrine, and a notification has been sent to Napoleon that he must not only send no more troops to Mexico, but that he must withdraw those he has there, and leave the people of Mexico to decide for themselves whether they will have a republic or an empire."

[Part of these items must be moonshine; intended to produce a shadow in the gold market.]

GOLD, in New York, Thursday, 138 1-2 to 137 3-4. A steamer took $250,000 for Liverpool.

— Richmond papers say the elections in Virginia have been held in only six counties, and no delegates chosen but such as will stand by Gov. Pierpont and the Federal administration. If so it is well;—but it contradicts the early accounts.

— The Tribune's Washington special says Pres. Johnson has ordered a suspension of sales of land in Tennessee for U. S. taxes, and presumes he will do the same in other Southern States. [If so, why not in all the States?]

— A Washington dispatch says it is not now probable that Jeff. Davis' trial will take place until September. The Supreme Court will adjourn tomorrow (Thursday) and it is not likely a special term will be held during the Summer.

— Samuel Reddon, Charles Graffam and another man, all of Saco, went down the river in a boat on Sunday last, and passed the Pool. As they have not been seen or heard from since, it is supposed they have

DEFERRED CORRESPONDENCE.

LEXINGTON, MASS., June 1.

The exercises at the first anniversary of Dr. Dio Lewis's Boarding School for Young Ladies closed here last evening, having continued two days, to the great satisfaction of the large number of guests present. The success of the Doctor's course may well be grateful to himself as well as his patrons, for after eight months of continued study, instead of being obliged to give up to a course of treatment for the recuperation of bodily powers, the pupils are in a condition to enjoy life to its utmost. By actual measurement, the average increase in the circumference of the pupils' chests, under the arm-pits, has been 2½ inches during the term. While all the exercises passed off well, especially were the gymnastic exercises excellently performed, the school moving as one body, and the most difficult positions maintained without the slightest tremor. A very beautiful original poem by Miss H—d closed the performances.

Among the many improvements made by Dr. L. on his premises, is the preparation of an open shed, 100 by 30 feet, in which, during the summer months, his "Normal Classes" will exercise, and and thus avoid sweltering in-doors.

Lexington is suffering fearfully from the ravages of the canker worm, whole orchards being as brown and sere as though fire had been applied to the roots of every tree, and many shade trees being also much injured. I notice in Waltham, Cambridge and Dorchester the track of this destructive insect, but not to the same extent. Although this curse ceases to trouble the trees much after the middle of this month, their evil lives after them; for even if the trees possess vigor sufficient to bring forth new foliage the present season, the so doing is so exhausting to them as to affect the trees in the season coming. The best preventive against this grub is to build a square box around the foot of each tree, fill the same with coal ashes, and on the top nail flat a strip of board from four to six inches in width, which keep covered with tar. Orchards so protected stand fair and green amidst the surrounding desolation. IOX.

BOSTON, June 2.

The funeral ceremonies in this city yesterday were of an imposing nature. The city was filled with the suburban population, the day was one of those which come to us seldom during the year, and everything passed off pleasantly. Leading the first division came the Portsmouth Cornet Band, looking well in their uniform and furnishing music alike creditable to their place of residence and to themselves. The fire department with their steamers, drawn by beautiful animals, made a splendid show, and the great number of glittering gun-barrels show that the military power of the North was far from being exhausted; but by far the most extensive, seemingly, in the procession was the Fenian Brotherhood, a sturdy looking set of men. The carriages containing soldiers who had lost limbs in battle were loudly cheered, and the poor fellows seemed as enthusiastic over their loss, as were the spectators who thronged the windows and balconies in their demonstrations of gratitude toward those to whom we owe so much. Gen. Bartlett, leading the procession, despite his cork leg, sat his horse firmly and gracefully, striking all who saw him for the first time with his youthful appearance. Details of Mr. Sumner's eulogy and of the procession will have been rendered unnecessary by the Boston papers. The procession occupied an hour and a quarter passing a given point. IOX.

MILTON, MASS., June 3.

Here, in the quiet of almost a "Paradise regained," I write a few lines that may be of interest to some. In my mention of the procession in Boston I omitted to speak of the great Pennsylvania horses, whose sleek coats and ponderous bodies, as they drew the various machines of the fire department, added so much to the display and elicited universal admiration. Boston has long been noted for its superb draft horses, and nowhere, except it may be in Toronto, have I seen them approached. Even in Pittsburg, with all its heavy teaming and its propinquity to the home of animals for such work, the teams are not as fine, and the grotesque mule intrudes his long ears at short intervals.

"The Convalescent Soldier," a magnificent painting by Constant Meyer, is on free exhibition at Messrs. Childs & Jenks', and may be purchased for the bagatelle of $3000. 'Tis one of the best things in some particulars of coloring and design we have seen for some time.

Here, where I can see the long range of the Blue Hills, from which the Quincy granite is quarried, I am reminded to give you an extract from a letter of a fellow wanderer, exploding a popular fallacy:

"Tradition tells strange tales (tails?) of rattlesnakes which inhabit the Blue Hills, and people yet living pretend that some have been seen there; but I have beaten over and round and through the whole range, more than any one that I know of, and have never so much as heard a rattle, though I have been in the very places of all others where they might have been expected."

While in Cambridge, a day or two since, I was pleased to see the "spreading chestnut tree" immortalized by Longfellow, in his poem of "The Village Blacksmith," covered with a vigorous foliage.

At the Swedenborgian settlement, in Waltham, I once more heard the glorious voice of Miss M. Y. Clapham, formerly of your city, swell forth into song. That settlement is one of the most beautiful localities in that beautiful town, and comprehends a stone church, a brick schoolhouse and quite a number of very elegant residences, with extensive grounds attached, under the supervision of Rev Benj. Worcester.

Having occasion in my peregrinations to make some early starts, I have been surprised to see the indifference of travellers to the most beautiful natural displays—travellers who would willingly pay an admission fee to witness some disgusting dash in the way of a panorama. At sunrise among the mountains, not long since, I turned from the contemplation of a scene of unusual splendor to mark its effect upon my fellow passengers and found that, out of thirteen in the car, eleven were asleep! IOX.

☞ In Philadelphia, at the Convention of the Typographical Union, reports were read from the Unions throughout the country. Ten Unions are reported in a flourishing condition. Others report only the prices paid, and some make very bad reports. The Cincinnati Union is reduced one-half. The Boston Union is demoralized, there being only one Union office in the city. The St. Louis Union has lost control of the daily papers. The Detroit Union is reported to be in a more flourishing condition than ever before.

— Gen. Grant is received in New York city with great enthusiasm, and uncomfortably crowded upon by admiring people.

— The prettiest girl in Bardstown, Ky.,

☞ It is said that never within the recollection of the oldest farmer have caterpillars been so numerous as this summer. In the country, where there are large orchards, almost every limb has upon it a nest full of these destructive pests. Great efforts were made to remove them when they first made their appearance, but their numbers soon overpowered the labors of the farmers, and now one can find them crawling along the ground at almost every footstep. Those owning one or two trees in the city have succeeded in keeping them clear of this worm, and every effort which has been been made in this direction will be repaid tenfold. Other insects are also equally numerous this season; and farmers tell us that it is indicative of a hot summer.

☞ The Springfield Republican thus "stands up" for its own city, against the comments of those who suppose that the reduction of the number of workmen at the Armory will ruin the place. It says:

But whether we have 30,000, 20,000, or not more than 10,000 inhabitants, the fact still remains that Springfield is the smartest town of its size in the country. She has the greatest railroad facilities, the biggest City Hall, the largest and most convenient Agricultural Park, the best newspaper, (also the poorest,) the most valuable reputation for her manufactures, the smartest Lieutenant Governor, the smallest and meanest portion of the Democratic party, and, in fact, stands head and ears above any other town of its size; and it will take something more than the discharge of 2500 armorers to bring the city down to a level with New Haven, Newburyport, or any of the other places that have become so suddenly solicitous for our welfare.

Good for the Springfield Republican,—though we don't think it is a very good Republican paper—but these remarks have equal application elsewhere. The fact is, many people talk and feel as if live men were dead ones, which they never ought to be. At the breaking out of the rebellion, oh dear! the war was going to ruin us all; and latterly, peace is going to work the same sad result. Now we don't believe any such nonsense; nor do we think our salvation as a city depends on the Navy Yard, or any other one thing. Live men keep moving; and if not in one direction, then in another, perhaps equally well.

☞ The Meeting in New York city, Wednesday night, to express the joy of the citizens at the restoration of peace, to uphold the Government, and their confidence in President Johnson, was one of the largest ever held in the city. The reception given to Gens. Grant, Logan, and others, exceeded in enthusiasm anything of the kind ever witnessed. So say the papers.

—At the recent election at Norfolk, Va., out of the whole number of 328 white votes polled, Darius W. Todd, Sr, received 89 votes, being the second highest of three candidates running for the State Senate. Mr. Todd also received 1045 votes of colored men, whose votes were rejected at the polls, but were on the same day registered peaceably and quietly at their places of worship. He will contest the seat of the man declared elected.

— In London the news of the capture of Jeff. Davis created some sensation and anxiety. The Confederate loan fell to 7 a 9c.

— The Wilmington Herald of the 3d states that since the trade restrictions were removed immense amounts of cotton and resin are being brought to light, and every team in the vicinity is called into requisition to cart them into town to different storehouses, which are rapidly filling up.

— The Sanitary Commission are making arrangments to establish agencies in all parts of the North, at which soldiers entitled to bounty money, back pay, pensions, &c., may collect and receive the same without incurring the expenses that are now unavoidable.

— Gen. Butler, G. V. Fox, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Geo. L. Bascom, the richest man in New Hampshire, and E. A. Straw, agent of the Amoskeag Mill at Manchester, composed the four male members of the senior class in the Lowell High School thirty years ago.

— There is a great emigration movement towards Missouri, from Illinois and lower Indiana, and, as a consequence, real estate in the former State is rapidly advancing in some localities.

GAMBLING.—Perley telegraphs from Washington, Wednesday, that "A New England officer whose name has been too honorably mentioned in reports of battles to appear here, undertook last night to fight the tiger, and was relieved of nearly one thousand dollars in money, his watch and a valuable breast pin. The gamblers have been made to disgorge their plunder to-day." The officer deserved to lose it for his folly; —but this experience may make him wiser.

THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE.

By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

Tribune Correspondent.

The above work will embrace Mr. Richardson's unparalleled adventures for four years, travelling through the South in the secret service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the War; with our armies and fleets both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture while running the batteries on the Mississippi River at Vicksburg, where more than half his companions were either killed or wounded; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers of North Carolina and Tennessee through the enemy's country to our lines.

This work presents a rare opening for both men and women, who desire lucrative employment.—For particulars address

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE

Over gray, red and sandy heads of hair. The obnoxious hue is wiped out in five minutes, and a magnificent brown or black, glossy and natural, takes its place. Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No. 6 Astor House, New York. Sold by Druggists. Applied by all Hair Dressers. my29

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. my9dawlm

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "ancres," "topinas," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers.

☞ The grading of Market Square is one of the most important and sensible changes made in our streets for many a day, and the thorough manner in which it is being performed gives great satisfaction on all sides. Instead of a mudhole, we shall hereafter have a dry, even square, laid out according to the rules of common sense in such matters. The old idea of scooping out the centre of a street in such a manner as to give water, mud and vehicles a tendency toward the middle is exploded, and out of respect to the shades of Macadam should have been abandoned long ago. Such a defective theory may suit the degenerate Mexicans, and indeed they are said to employ it in Matamoros, but experience shows that in nearly every instance the rounding road is far superior, in wear as in all else.

☞ We have often noticed the extreme punctuality of the trains on the Eastern Railroad, and we know persons who have for years made the sound of the whistle of the incoming trains their standard of time. The Boston Traveller a few days since makes mention of this same creditable feature, and pays an especial tribute to Conductor Philbrick, whose train it says has varied scarcely a minute from the schedule time table in more than six weeks. Possessed of the finest rolling stock, excellently managed and under the control of efficient conductors, this is one of the pleasant est roads to travel upon in New England.

☞ The U. S. Steamer Dawn and Vinna are moored in the stream off the Navy Yard, the former waiting to be discharged. It is understood that nine or ten more vessels are expected here soon.

—— In Exeter, last Sunday evening, the lightning struck some trees, and the wind blew others down. During the same storm, a tree in Kensington was struck by lightning, and a horse beneath it, belonging to Mr. Sewell Dow, was killed.

—— Rev. G. W. Bean, recently of Lowell, Mass., has become pastor of the Second Freewill Baptist Church in Sandwich.

—— Rev. L. B. Tasker of Sandwich, who has during the winter been engaged as missionary amongst the freedmen at Beaufort S. C., has been compelled to return to his home on account of ill health.

—— In the S. J. Court at Manchester, Judge Doe delivered an opinion in the case of John P. Palmer vs. City of Concord. This was an action for the destruction of the Democratic Standard office in 1861, by a mob. It was objected that the action could not be sustained on the ground of the unconstitutionality of the law. But the Court held the statute constitutional, and the case is now to be tried by the jury. On the law point, the decision is in favor of the plaintiff. A number of divorces were decreed. Among them were the following:

Merrimack County, Martha Jane Fellows, custody of children and $2.500 alimony decreed for the libellant. Martha H. Bennett; alimony $750.

The vacancy in the office of the Registry of Deeds for this county has been filled by the appointment, by the Judges of the Supreme Judicial Court, of William H. Belknap, Esq. Mr. Belknap has had long experience in the office, having served as assistant to several Registers. He is an excellent recording officer, and always pleasant, affable and obliging. The people of the county would do a sensible thing by electing him Register next March, and retaining him in the office, instead of making a change every two or three years for the sake of giving place to some anxious office-seeker.—Ballot.

This is good advice.—We used to vote for Seth Walker every year, for some time, and until he declined, as we used also to vote for old town-clerks, because they knew the records better when they had been in office some time, than when they began.

☞ The Life and Public Services of Abraham Lincoln is the title of a neatly gotten up work which we have received from Messrs. A Williams & Co., Boston, through J. H. Foster of this city, who has it for sale. We have had time but for a cursory examination of its contents, but should judge it a valuable accession to our history, both as a work of reference and as a tribute to the man who was found unmoved in the hour of trial. Edited by Frank Crosby, of the Philadelphia bar; with steel portrait price $2.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the bile the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.

Two cents	"	"	"	"	$100 "
Ten	"	"	"	"	$500 "
20	"	"	"	"	$1000 "
$1	"	"	"	"	$5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7.3-10ths in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.—This is

The Only Loan in Market

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

The properties of this Company consist of 643 acres, principally owned in Fee Simple, of the most desirable Oil Lands, situated mostly in Oil Creek, Penn., upon which there are three wells now down, capable of producing from 100 to 1000 barrels per day when completed, as they are located so near the great producing interests of the Empire, Noble, Sherman and Drake wells, on this noted creek. This Company offer inducements seldom met with. The capital stock is very small for the amount of valuable oil lands. The Company possess three engines are already at the wells. Our Agent at Titusville writes us that the well on the McElhany farm has commenced flowing, which places this Company beyond a doubt of success. The Officers of this Company, in placing this property before the New England public, have full confidence that no properties yet offered are superior, or any out of which larger and more certain dividends may at once be expected. Maps and full information given on application to the Treasurer. Subscriptions received by JOS. W. SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by all, not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All inventors, in proximity to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to secure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN F. TAGGART,
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and and-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for lifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the cool, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the ablest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their leader in this enterprise will great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was sent on to select lands for the gentlemen interested in starting this company as a man strictly honest, sagacious, and experienced in the Petroleum region, and we feel delighted with the selection he made for farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Martin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 64 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel E. Lancaster, 419 Broadway, New York, were reminded a short notice to visit the farms spoken of. Early in February they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The great Oil Basin seems to be situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Allegheny river a distance of twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are within the Basin and on the same vein of Oil of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his message, fifty-six millions of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Harris, Esq., a well-known lawyer of Boston and late District Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They agree in the same conclusions the others had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:
THE MATTISON FARM.
This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek.—The lay of the land is beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.
The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which innumerable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 1000 barrels per day—the Mountain 200—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel will sell for half a million.
It is believed by most judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the Flat below Titusville. Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.
The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. Here the Steele & Mead well flowed 1000 barrels per day—the Mountain 200—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of every ten wells bored on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel will sell for half a million.
It is believed by most judges that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is not good for coal, is equal to the Flat below Titusville. Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.
The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $600 to sink a well to the depth of 700 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $20 per day to work it after it yields oil. G. P. Ball, of the Cherry Creek Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:
"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more full and perfect character than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting Oil territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investments.—Professors Hayes and Shepard, who are both men of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valleys of East Oil Creek. If the farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Ball, of Mr. Bates, it will have pumping wells and flowing wells on it, that the farm would sell for large sums of money, and the pumping wells, if as good as those south of Titusville, would be worth of inestimable value. Oil is abundant room on each acre for 15 wells, and on this farm for over 900 wells. Just make computation of the cost of so many wells, and the yield and profit on the whole in a year, if they are as good as they are expected, if they only yield the minimum amount of the wells on that Oil Belt, and your income from this Farm alone is over one million of dollars. This Company do not promise any such results, but merely state facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.
THE PARKER FARM
Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Brady's Bend, near the East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Caldwell Creek empties into Oil Creek. They have twenty wells in operation on the farm, and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great profit. For remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.
THE BYLES FARM,
On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil rock, directly east of the Grant Oil Belt and flows 100 barrels daily, the Jersey that flows 200, the Maple Shade and other noted flowing wells, and pumping wells without end. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There is great excitement on Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with its sucker rod in, and its pipe seven-eights full of machinery, it has flowed 250 barrels per day ever since.—They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 3,200 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another fine well has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. As far farther north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that looks already better than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In sight of the spouting wells, and between the frazer and the one which has raised so high hopes, is the Byles farm, all low land, and every rod fit for a well. It is splendidly located. It abounds in sand rocks and oil indications. Mr. Butler thinks it very highly of it, and no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Copper vein, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, each down.
THE DAWSON FARM,

the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 25, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as Rudy as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as our well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 170 feet; at 340 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly.
Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.

VOL. XXVI. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 1865 : 159. No. 113.

The Chronicle.

Thomas D'Arcy M'Gee, a rebel against the British government in other days, though now a cabinet minister in Canada, is on a visit to Ireland, where he is quite a lion. At a meeting of men of all parties in the town of Wexford, his birth-place, Mr. M'Gee said that in the United States Irishmen were despised and demoralized, and without character or influence—persecuted in the East, insolent in the West, and in a bad case generally; while in Canada it was all the reverse. There they were better treated, better off and better behaved. In short, Mr. M'Gee did all he could to increase the number of his future constituents. Exchange.

Mr. M'Gee, though a man of much talent, is yet given to lying; and in the above statements he "lies like a bulletin." If he can induce his fellow countrymen to go to Canada, nobody this side the line need to be grieved about the matter:—but he will find many of them slipping over the line into the States, and joining the million of their relatives already here, who have taken root and intend to grow and thrive among the rest of us.

LOGIC.—The Journal of Commerce says there is but little building this season in New York. It is the same everywhere; the high prices of materials and labor prevent building, and will till the present stock of bricks, lumber, &c., is consumed. They have been obtained when gold was two hundred and more, and the present holders are unwilling to meet the loss now that gold is a hundred per cent. less. They already talk of suspending their lumber operations in Maine because of the reduced demand; but the prices must fall before there can be much demand. Nobody can build at the present rates.—Newburyport Herald.

Well, if "the prices will prevent building till the present stocks are consumed" we wonder how long it will take to "consume" them? And if lumbermen "suspend operations until the demand increases," and "there will be no demand until prices fall"—we wonder how long it will be before prices will be high enough and the demand urgent enough to start the mills again? Pshaw! better sell at the best prices the market affords, whatever you need at all times.

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DON'T HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported or home-made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit, has been produced
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astounding testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—It makes an ink of a beautiful, glossy, rich color, that never body will rot the paper, or corrode it.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it a particle, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MIRROR AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 1, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given to the public. I have made ink, for eight years, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, made of Aleppa Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senagal,) and have sold large quantities of it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupation is all gone now. I think it is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid twice and it now flows just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used I would not be without. I remain yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company:—I received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The enclosed money I long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had a quantity of it, it would find a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient serv't,
GEO. W. FARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is to certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. FOREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from your Powder is equal to any I have ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is to most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I can say that I to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever used. I have used J. Moor's Mayuard & Joyes', D. J. Ellicott's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Yours respectfully, G. E. STILES.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 1865.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The Boston Advertiser's special says Gen. Canby has hunted up and arrested the man in Alabama who advertised to give $1000 in a combination of $1,000,000, as a reward to any one who would assassinate Pres. Lincoln; and that he is on his way to Washington.

The War Department has decided that volunteers who now enlist in the regular army may be forthwith mustered out of their respective commands, receive their discharges, and not be sent to the rendezvous, but receive their final payments.

Since the 31st ult., when the great movement of troops from Washington homeward commenced, the total number of soldiers who have left, amounts to 80,000, with nearly 2500 horses and 2,000,000 pounds of baggage.

No determination has been made as yet whether Jeff. Davis will be tried by a civil or military court. So it is said.

The N. Y. Herald's Washington dispatch says it is not to be inferred that Jeff. Davis will be tried in the District of Columbia because he was indicted there. He was not indicted at the instance of the government, and may likewise be indicted in Maryland and the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and if so may be tried in the one to which the government may see fit to turn him over.

William E. Chandler of New Hampshire will be appointed Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

It is stated on good authority that the government is now feeding 200,000 inhabitants of Virginia, 11,000 of whom are in Richmond.

Efforts are making by the War Department to increase the regular army.

The Times' Washington dispatch says it is reported that John Mitchell, now editor of the New York Daily News, has been notified by the President to leave the U. S., if he wishes to avoid an arrest. Good.

The Herald's dispatch says that John Minor Botts is in Richmond to oppose Gov. Pierpont's Administration, and to be a candidate for the Senate.

The expedition to Texas has sailed. An attempt was made at mutiny, on board the Nereus transport, but was promptly put down.

THE WASHINGTON ELECTION.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune says:

"In the city election here yesterday the secessionists and returned rebels turned out and voted in greater strength than they have done since the war began, and succeeded in electing the ticket they preferred. They made a special fight, and polled large majorities against all who participated in the recent meeting for the banishment from the city of those who left to join the rebel army. This indicates the insincerity of rebel repentance, and the necessity of extending the right of franchise to blacks."

MEXICO.—The latest dates from Chihuahua show that on the 8th of May the French troops were at least three hundred miles from that city, which is strongly fortified, and, therefore, it is not probable that they would move in that direction. The Emperor Maximilian has sent the Undersecretary of his Navy to New York, to contract for machinery and vessels of war for the Imperial Government.

☞ The U. S. steam transport Admiral Dupont, which left New York for Fortress Monroe June 7th, to take troops to Texas, it is supposed has been blown up, as a pilot boat on the 8th, 50 miles East from Cape May, fell in with fragments of the vessel and two boats belonging to the steamer, and the captain's watch and part of a writing, desk, were also picked up.

— The Philadelphia Telegraph's Washington dispatch says a letter in the Star from its correspondent on board the U. S. steamer Penguin, off Sabine Pass, dated May 27, says: "The forts at Sabine Pass, Texas, had surrendered to the U. S. steamer Awasco. The American flag was hoisted over the works at 4 P. M. We expect Galveston to surrender to-morrow."

— President Johnson on Friday moved his residence to the White House, of which he has now taken full possession.

— In New Orleans, on the night of the 28th ult., a squad of negroes were excited by a false report that one of their comrades had been killed by some white troops, and proceeding to the spot they fired a volley, one shot of which took effect in the spine of a man named Page, Banks' engineer, inflicting a mortal wound. [If so, the man who made the false report deserves to be shot also.]

— All minor places in the Departments at Washington are being filled as they become vacant with wounded and disabled soldiers, and applications from others are useless.

— Jeff. Davis and Clement C. Clay were severally in their cells at Fortress Monroe last Monday, consequently they were not at Washington as has been stated. Davis' health is reported to be bad.

THE LEGISLATURE.—In the crowded state of our columns, we can refer but briefly to the organization of "the Great and General Court of New Hampshire," at Concord, this week. We have already given the list of House officers. Messrs. Wheeler of Dover and William H. Hackett of Portsmouth, candidates for Speaker, both resigned to leave the way clear for Mr. Pike's harmonious election.

The Senate organized by choice of Hon. Ezekiel A. Straw of Manchester as President, Horace S. Cummings Clerk, George R. Fowler Assistant Clerk, and George E. Aldrich Doorkeeper.

There has been considerable debate about furnishing newspapers for the Members, which resulted in ordering one copy of the Legislative Reporter and afterwards one of the Daily Monitor for each. We are glad the smartest Daily in our State got in, at any rate.

Governor Smyth was inaugurated on Thursday, with the accustomed ceremonies, and delivered a capital address, which we shall try to find room for to-morrow in full, in preference to giving a synopsis earlier. The Governor elect, attended by Gov. Gilmore and the Council, appeared before the Convention of the Senate and House. Gov. Gilmore made the following Valedictory:

Gentlemen of the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives:

Believing that the duty of vindicating the future policy of the State should rightly devolve on the incoming Governor, and besing willing to leave my past official conduct to the judgment of posterity and the vindication of my associates in office, I have no further communications to make to you at this time.

Governor Smyth then took the oath of office, administered by President Straw of the Senate.

We have before stated that the Legislature is being, held this year in the City Hall building, during the enlargement of the State House.

Deferred Correspondence.

BALTIMORE, May 28th.

The rush to Washington to see the Grand Review was tremendous. * * * Names were registered from nearly every State in the Union at the leading Hotels, and such a jam has not been experienced since the Convention of '60.

A Congregational Society has been recently formed here—the first in the city—and occupy for the present, "Red Man's Hall," which was previously used as a secesh church.

It was announced shortly after the assassination of our late President, that his last official act was to appoint certain persons to the offices of Collector, Postmaster, &c., in this city; but as yet no change has been made, and it is stated that none will be made, as the present incumbents are well known here as "Davis" men, and it is also said that "H. Winter" is in the confidence of the President, and that is the reason why they will still continue in office.

Notwithstanding the denial of the N. Y. Herald, I have it from good authority that Jeff. Davis was put in irons, and still continued in them at last accounts. And he didn't like it a bit, and kicked up a terrible rumpus about it, knocking down two of the guards who were sent to arrange the articles, so that they had to receive a surgeon's care. He was finally subdued, and it is very probable is quiet enough now.

Jeff.'s being caught in his wife's petticoats was a terrible blow to his admirers here. They would not believe it at first—ridiculing the idea of such a high-toned, chivalric and christian gentleman resorting to such a cowardly method of escaping. Oh, no! he never would do that! But it seems he did; and one bitter rebel that I know, who thought more of him than anybody else living,—now that the fact is placed beyond a doubt, abuses him roundly, and says he ought to be hung.

The markets are now abundantly stocked with peas, string beans, new beets, turnips, onions and strawberries—the latter bringing from 10 to 30 cents per quart. The quality, however, is very poor this season, on account of their having been so much rain.

Truly Yours,

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY.

— Perley writes from Washington that the rebel Gen. Robert E. Lee has been furnished with a new suit of gray uniform by his admirers, and it is known that upward of one hundred suits of this Jeff. Davis livery have been made in Richmond within the past fortnight for men who boast that they have been out-numbered, not subdued;—he also says the Washington hospitals are crowded to overflowing by the shirkers and hangers on sent there from Virginia and other hospitals now discontinued. These worthless fellows, nearly all of whom have received large bounties, are now clamorous for their discharges and their pay.

☞ Some papers say that Mrs. Bloomer, the sensible lady who got up the sensible dress that bears her name, has left it, and now wears long skirts like other women. Very important, if true, but it needs confirmation; and yet it would be no wonder if a lady did get tired of being conspicuous, even to be healthy and comfortable.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by UNCLE TOBY.

Gov. John Wentworth, the last, 1774.—Non-intercourse, Non-importation,—Committee of Safety,—Funeral and Mourning Economy,—Gunpowder, Cannon, and small arms.

Governor Wentworth retained his popularity as extensively as possible for a person of his situation, which was extremely critical—for he was placed between two contending parties, of opposite interest, and it could not be expected that he would please both. His wishes were to preserve the union of the two countries. He was attached to his government, and was desirous of promoting its welfare as far as he could consistently with his duty to the King, which he considered paramount to all other obligations. A circumstance took place, which lessened him in the estimation of the people. The troops at Boston were destitute of barracks, and the carpenters there refused assistance in building them. General Gage applied to Wentworth to procure workmen, and he secretly employed an agent to hire carpenters to construct the barracks. As soon as it was known, his conduct was severely censured, and the committee of safety, of which his Uncle Hunking Wentworth, Esq., was chairman, declared that the person guilty of such conduct was "an enemy to the community." From this time his influence declined; and he retained only the shadow of authority. The real power was transferred to the committee of safety; and their orders were implicitly obeyed.

The proceedings of the General Congress were published in every part of the country, and received with approbation. They made a declaration of their rights, stated their grievances, and entered into an association, suspending all commercial intercourse with Great Britain, Ireland and the West Indies. When these proceedings were laid before the town of Portsmouth, they voted unanimously, "That they did cordially accede to the just state of the rights and grievances of the British colonies, and of the measures adopted and recommended by the American Continental Congress, for the restoration and establishment of the former, and for the redress of the latter." They voted, "that the association strictly adhered to, would in their opinion, prove the most peaceable and successful method, for the removal of the distresses these colonies are laboring under, and the restoration of their violated rights; therefore they cheerfully adopted, and would punctually and religiously execute the same as far as in them lies." A committee of twenty-five persons was chosen to "observe the conduct of all persons, touching the association, that every person within the limits of their appointment conform to the same; and if any should be hardy enough to violate it, in such case the majority of the committee shall forthwith cause the truth of the case to be published in the Gazette, according to the recommendation of Congress." And "lest some, for sordid gain, should be tempted to violate the association, they recommended a non-consumption as the best guard against any infraction of the nonimportation agreement." They bore "testimony against every species of gambling, and recommended industry and frugality to the inhabitants."

Amongst other systems of economy which were adopted, the regulation of funerals was one of the most important. They were usually attended with great expense, often beyond the ability of the survivors of the family to meet. All the connexions were obliged to dress in a full suit of mourning; enamelled rings were given to the near relations; gloves and rings were given to the pall-bearers and to the clergyman, who officiated at the grave. In many instances escutcheons, with the family armorial bearings painted on silk, were laid on the coffin, placed over the door, and sent to the particular friends of the deceased. By general consent these expenses were dispensed with, and instead of them, gentlemen wore black crape round the left arm, and ladies, black ribbons, as badges of mourning.

An order had been passed by the King in Council, prohibiting the exportion of gunpowder and military stores to America. The committee of safety received a copy of it by express from Boston, the 13th of December. They collected a company with great secrecy and dispatch, who went to Fort William and Mary at New Castle, under the direction of Major John Sullivan and Captain John Langdon, confined the Captain of the fort, and his five men, and brought off one hundred barrels of gunpowder. The next day another company brought off fifteen of the lightest cannon, all the small arms, and some warlike stores.

It was transacted with great expedition and alacrity, and in the most fortunate point of time; just before the arrival of the Scarborough frigate, and Canseau sloop, with several companies of soldiers; who took possession of the fort, and of the heavy cannon which had not been removed.

The governor put the five men, who belonged to the fort, on board the ships of war, to be reserved as evidence in case of a prosecution of the offenders for high treason; and having consulted counsel in this and the neighboring province, thought it his duty, that he might prevent any charge of misprision of treason against himself; to dismiss from public trust, all those persons concerned in the assault of the fort, who had held any office under the government, and concerning whose proceedings he had authentic testimony. He also issued a proclamation, commanding all officers, civil and military, to assist in detecting and securing the offenders; and exhorting all people to beware of being seduced, by the false arts and menaces of abandoned men.

It was thought proper by the governor and some of his friends, to form an association, for the support of the royal government, and for their mutual defence. They boasted that an hundred men could be procured, from the ships, at a minute's warning. This transaction exposed the weakness of the cause which they meant to support; for what could an hundred men do against the whole country!

☞ Owing to the various spellings of the name of our new and most excellent Governor Smyth on the ballots, it was said in Concord on Thursday, that he got no election by the people; and that the Legislature had to go through the legal ceremony of electing him.

Heaven preserve Andrew Johnson. Vallandigham has announced his purpose to sustain him. It is very doubtful if Vallandigham himself should not have been sustained a long time since—by a piece of hemp.—Press.

THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE.

By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

Tribune Correspondent.

The above work will embrace Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years travelling through the South in the sorst service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the War; with our armies and fleets both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture while running the batteries on the Mississippi River at Vicksburg, where more than half his companions were either killed or wounded; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers of North Carolina and Tennessee through the enemy's country to our lines.

This work presents a rare opening for both men and women, who desire lucrative employment.—For particulars address

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m29dawlm

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "ancres," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and he sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one-half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers.

Table Cutlery,

TEA TRAYS, PAPER CASTORS, FEATHER DUSTERS, &c., for sale at the lowest prices by my24 JOHN SISE, 5 Market Sq.

Local.

☞ In our Police Court, June 9th, Judge Odell fined Judson P. Randall and Henry Gardner, each $3 and costs $3.86, for making a trawl and tumult in the Temple, Thursday evening, and disturbing the audience. For the good pluck displayed in arresting these fellows, and other violators of the peace at that public hall, as well as their efficiency in general, of late, we hear many commendations of our Police, and it is thought by some of our best citizens, that more severe sentences from His Honor the Judge in some cases, would be more effectual for good.

☞ Great preparations are making for the Fair, at the Temple, next week. Mr. Rogers, of the Kittery Nurseries, we hear is to donate two bushels of beautiful cut flowers; and if every body does their duty in the premises as well, the soldiers will net a handsome sum. See the advertisement.

☞ We learn that Mr. Joy is to give his grand Singing School Exhibition and Concert, at the Temple, in a few days; which will afford opportunity for the hundreds who couldn't come in at the first, to enjoy one of these interesting occasions.

DRAMATIC.—Miss Josie Orton, with a talented Stock Company, and Miss Moore the famous Skater, are to give another of their grand entertainments, at the Temple, on Thursday Evening next. New and splendid scenery is promised, and the bill includes drama, comedy and farce—The Maid with a Milking Pail, Loan of a Lover, and Betsey Baker; besides champion Skating, good music, &c. Mr. Lowell is in charge, as usual—Mr. Jarrett lessee.

COOL, VERY.—The way Avery talks up his ice-cream Soda. Well, it is a tip-top article, and no mistake, and can't be beat in Boston; though as to that, all the fountains here produce better Soda than we generally find any where else abroad.

☞ The Tableaux at the Fair will be an attractive novelty. They will be gotten up under direction of Mr. J. H. Head, and no doubt will be as successful as this feature has always proved.

☞ The Navy Department have accepted the resignation of Acting Assistant Surgeon James R. May, of this city.

☞ The new steam fire engine "Dearborn" is promised to be finished and delivered here July 3d.

☞ See Mr. Wendell's Auction for to-day.

☞ The 11th Regiment N. H. V., and the 1st N. H. Battery arrived in Concord Wednesday afternoon, on two extra trains, and were received at the railway station by a salute of artillery. The Veteran Reserve Corps and its Band appeared for escort duty, and the Regiment and Battery then marched through the principal streets of Concord, and were everywhere received with the wildest excitement—cheers from men, and the waving of handkerchiefs by thousands of women. After the march these veteran heroes from the war were entertained by a grand dinner at the Eagle and Phenix Hotels, which accommodated every man, and did credit to the landlords.

The Regiment and Battery then marched to the State House Yard, where Adj. Gen. Head introduced Gov. Gilmore, who cordially welcomed the boys home, in a brief speech. Speaker Pike then addressed them.

Col. Harriman, of the 11th, eloquently responded in behalf of his regiment; and Capt. Dakin responded for the Battery.

Speeches were made by Chas. H. Campbell of Amherst, Mr. Wheeler of Dover, Mr. Quincy of Rumney, and H. P. Rolfe of Concord; and Peter Sanborn wound up the performance with one of his mirth-provoking speeches. The Regiment and Battery then marched to Camp, about three-fourths of a mile south of Concord.

The Monitor says: "The exercises concluded with a fervent benediction by Rev. Dr. Burroughs, of Portsmouth, and the troops marched to camp with the promise of being paid off to-morrow. The speaking at the State House Yard was of unusual excellence, and Gov. Gilmore introduced the several speakers with rare felicity and tact, eliciting a good deal of humorous by-play."

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

"Sic Semper tyrannis!" the assassin cried,
As Lincoln fell. O villain! who than he Must live to see both slave and tyrant free?
Or, so enrapt with plans of freedom, died
That even thy treacherous deed shall glance aside,
And do the dead man's will by land and sea;
Win bloodless battles, and make that to be
Which to his living mandate was denied.
Peace to that gentle heart! the peace he sought
For all mankind, nor for it dies in vain;
Rest to the uncrowned king, who, toiling, brought
His bleeding country thro' that dreadful reign;
Who, living, earned a world's revering thought,
And, dying, leaves his name without a stain.
—English Paper.

WALTZING.

At first they move slowly, with caution and grace,
Like horses when just setting out on a race;
For dancers at balls, just like horses at races,
Must come a little to show off their paces.
The music plays faster, their raptures begin;
Like lambkins they skip, like tentotums they spin;
Now draperies whirl, and now petticoats fly,
And nakies at times are exposed to the eye.
O'er the well-polished ball-room in circles they swim;
He smiles upon her, and she smiles upon him;
Her hand on his shoulder is tenderly placed,
His arm quite as tenderly circles her waist.
They still bear in mind as they're turning each other,
The proverb, "One good turn's deserving another;"
And these bodily turns often end, it is said,
In turning the lady's or gentleman's head.

Is to put—it straightway in the fire!"

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—Rt. Rev. Bishop Potter of New York has ordered the trial of Rev. Dr. Muhlenburg, of the Church of the Holy Communion, for having taken part in a meeting of the Christian Association at the Broadway Tabernacle, affiliating with Presbyterians, Congregationalists, &c., notwithstanding the recent admonition of Bishop Potter against such practices by the clergy of the Episcopal Church. Other eminent churchmen have committed the same offense. The Church Journal publishes Bishop Potter's pastoral letter, and says:—

Some of the daily papers are stupid enough to suppose that it is going to create a quarrel in the Church. So far from it, the Pastoral will put an end to quarrels otherwise sure to prevail from the repeated violations of the canons of the Church.—The only issue is, whether the law is to be obeyed or broken. And if, after this noble pastoral, any choose to run the risk of breaking it, they must be prepared to take the consequences.

The Christian News questions the right of the Bishop to give any such pastoral, characterising it as a serious mistake.

OUT GENERALLED.—Some East Tennessee rebels recently attempted to attach the $600,000 in specie belonging to the Bank of Tennessee, captured at Augusta, Ga., on the ground that it was the property of the depositors. Gov. Brownlow promptly notified the sheriff that the Bank of Tennessee had $2,000,000 of the sacred and inalienable school fund belonging to the children of the State, which fund was stolen by Harris in 1862, and that he was determined to hold on to the $600,000 at all hazards.

— A. Monroe, manager of the Montreal Branch of the Bank of Toronto, has been dismissed for speculating in gold and exchange, contrary to the orders of the Bank. Served him right.

CONCERT.—Mr. E. A. JOY proposes to give another of his attractive Concerts by One Hundred and Fifty Children, who have been under his instruction. It will take place at the Temple on Wednesday evening, June 14, when the place will be handsomely decorated and the children tastefully dressed. This will offer an opportunity for the five hundred who could not get admission at his last Concert to find places—provided they get tickets in season. Tickets, 25 cents to any part of the house, may be obtained at the bookstores.—No more will be sold than can be accommodated.

Orchestra band will be employed.

THE SONS OF PORTSMOUTH.—We do not know whether the "sons" in Boston are going home on the 4th or not. No general action has yet been had, and though considerable individual interest is manifest, the matter will be likely to drop for want of some central action. The time is very short, and movement, if any is to be made, should be commenced at once. The people of Portsmouth are eager to again welcome the wanderers, and are so expressing themselves, through the papers and otherwise, and if it is not done this year it will be likely to fall the next, because the brave lads are coming home from the field by the 4th, and everything can be made to honor them, while a grand social reunion is enjoyed by all. Leaving it till next year, therefore, one grand feature of its interest will be wanting. The young men should take the matter in hand and leave the old ones to follow, if they will, and all will be very sure to do so who recall the delightful occasion enjoyed twelve years ago.

POSTPONEMENT.

The above we copy from the Boston Evening Gazette of June 8. We cannot learn that any general action has been held of our sons in any other city; and it is now very apparent that the matter was not agitated so early as it should have been to insure such a meeting as would be creditable to our city, and a source of true enjoyment to our esteemed visitors. There has not been any thing tangible for our city government to act upon, however desirable such an event may be, and now it is too late to move in a matter which would be such a failure should it not be a general return to the old homestead. We therefore deem t our duty to say to the Portsmouth family abroad, that while as individuals such as may come will receive a cordial and heartfelt welcome, there cannot be expected this year such public demonstrations as we hope to see on the 4th of July, 1866, when we hope to see the whole Union again wheeled into line, and every one rejoicing in the scenes of early childhood.

Market Square and Congress Street are now scientifically graded, requiring about two thousand loads of stone and gravel to complete the work.—It is a permanent public improvement, for which Mr. Haines is entitled to much credit. The survey of Mr. Harris was of much benefit in the operations.

At the annual meeting of Portland, Saco & Portsmouth Railroad, at North Berwick, on Monday, a proposition of the Boston & Maine Road to pay the former one per cent. semi-annually, in addition to the regular 8 per cent. to be relieved of all liability to pay the latter in specie, from May 1, 1863 to Dec. 1864, was accepted. This gives the stockholders of the P. S. & P. road about $32,000.

On the vote for Directors, all the ballots were for the following gentlemen, to wit: Ichabod Goodwin, Geo. M. Browne, Israel M. Spelman, Charles E. Barrett, Geo. W. Burleigh, Nathaniel Hooper, Stephen W. Bullard — and the same were declared unanimously elected.

PORTSMOUTH HIGH SCHOOL CADETS.

One of the attractive features of the procession at Concord on the 1st of June was the above company, eighty in number, of whom the Daily Monitor says that although they are inclined to give the palm to the Concord Lancers, yet they find that public opinion inclines strongly in favor of the High School Cadets, of Portsmouth, who certainly did great credit to their limited opportunities for drill and will soon outgrow their place as a "Boy's Company."

The following are the Officers of the Cadets:

Captain.—Edward Ball.

Lieutenants.—1st Andrew B. Sherburne. 2nd Robert Valentine Noble. 3d John Nelson Handy, Jr.

Sergeants.—Orderly Horatio Frost Martin.—2d. William Payson. 3d Samuel Lord Morrison. 4th Merril E. Spalding. 5th Edward Delano Childs.

Corporals.—Charles Barrie, (A. C.) Stephen Weston Paul, Charles Davis, Foster Shores, Sanford Byron Woodward, Frank Robinson, William Pray, J. Frederick Hill.

Dr. Baker has placed upon our table a hen's egg without any yolk. Rare things seem to fall to the Doctor's lot—or perhaps being more observant he discovers and makes known what others might pass without notice. The Doctor also exhibits to us a model of a churn with a double operation of the dasher, which looks like an improvement. He is no less skilful in his regular profession from his wayside labors, and can extract a tooth in such a manner as to make you truly thankful to him.

The City Tax this year is about $20 on $1000.

The thunder storm on Sunday night was very severe in Portland and that neighborhood. The Portland Advertiser of Monday says:—

"In the north part of Gorham we hear that a house and barn were blown down; in Standish a large number, in Scarboro', a barn was blown down and several fine trees uprooted. One of the chimneys of Cape Cottage was blown over, and falling on the roof damaged the oil part of the house considerably. In the city a stone shed on East Commercial street was blown down, and a number of shade trees had large limbs torn off. The flag staff on the City Hotel was blown down, and in striking the sidewalk, a young man who was standing near the door had a narrow escape from instant death. When the staff toppled over into the street it fell but a few inches in front of a horse which was passing at the moment. Since the above was put in type a gentleman who rode into the city after the storm informs us that the storm was the most violent known in that town for many years. On his way in he counted no less than twelve buildings blown down, and many fences were entirely demolished. Twice he was obliged to remove prostrate trees from across the road to allow his horse to pass.

The lightning on Sunday evening struck a barn on Water street, in Newburyport, belonging to Mrs. Benjamin Lunt, but did little damage. It also struck the earth near the head of Huse's wharf, making a hole that very frightened a load of travel. It is likewise reported to have struck a tree not far from the house of Mr. Joseph Knight.—Herald.

THE CONFESSIONAL IN THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND.—At a recent Free Church Assembly held in Edinburgh, Lord Dalhousie said:

"I am sorry to say that we now see the Church of England holding a dangerous flirtation with Popery (laughter), and late circumstances have brought under the public eye the fact that even in our Protestant, or rather so-called Protestant, churches that wretched device, the confessional, has again been established. Anything more degrading to liberal-minded men—anything more detrimental to the virtue and harmony of society, never was invented by Satan himself, than that system of the confessional, which, it now appears, is rearing its head in the front of the Church of England."

AMERICAN JEWS.—The 'reformed Jews' are now the majority among the Israelites in this country. The Newburyport Herald says they may be pretty accurately described as Parkerites in theology. At the recent dedication of a temple in Cincinnati the rabbi defined a true Israelite to be one "who trusts in God and believes in the divine truth of the Bible, needs no king to govern, no Messiah to redeem, and no miracles to demonstrate the truth of religion."

Searches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for obtaining Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not unmeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast amount of useful specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. I find unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
HENRY L. ELLSWORTH.
During eight months, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Important to the Afflicted.
DR. DOW can be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate sufferer with a remedy, which, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases arising from a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the person for a state individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with private rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving a description of your case. THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.
"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The New Hampshire Petroleum Co. is organized with great care, under the management of some of the oldest financiers and most successful business men in the State, whose integrity is above reproach, and who cannot be led by excitement into speculations that have not to their minds a golden foundation. Their lands have been selected with great caution. Mr. N. R. Bates, of Titusville, who has been very successful in the past year in selecting Oil Lands and boring wells, was known to some of the gentlemen prominent in starting this company as a man strictly honest, conscious, and experienced in the Petroleum regions, and was solicited to aid in selecting the proper farms. He did so. Col. B. F. Mar. tin, Wm. P. Newell, Esq., and John B. Clarke, Editor of the Mirror, of Manchester, J. S. Fogg, Esq., of the firm of Fogg, Houghton & Coolidge, 21 Pearl St., Boston, and Daniel P. Lamphier, 419 Broadway, New York, were appointed a committee to visit the farms spoken of. Early in January they looked over the lands selected by Mr. Bates, and became convinced that they were among the very best that could be had. The farm in Venango Co. is situated between Oil Creek, East Oil Creek, and Alleghany river, and not twenty miles from one point to the other, and the Four Farms of the Company are boring in the Basin and on the same Oil Belt of the great flowing and pumping wells that have yielded the past year 80 to the State of Pennsylvania, as Gov. Curtin says in his Message, fifty six million of dollars. The last of March, B. W. Harris, Esq., a well known lawyer of New York, now acting as Attorney, P. H. Burns, Esq., a shrewd business man of Dover, N. H., and F. A. Wilcox, Esq., a lawyer of 76 Wall Street, New York, were sent out to see to the titles of lands, and make further examinations. They came to the same conclusions that Messrs. Bates had, and the Four Farms were bought, which are thus described:
THE MATTISON FARM.
This Farm contains 84 acres and is near the confluence of Cherry Creek and East Oil Creek—the latter being the beautiful for Oil; high lands on each side, Cherry Creek running directly through, and a rich undeveloped Coal vein on one side. Every inch of the land is valuable for Coal or boring wells, and there is no waste to it.
The oil belts run from east to west, or from north east to south west, and are from one to three miles wide. The Mattison Farm is two and a half miles in a direct line east of the great Oil flats south of Titusville, from which innumerable fortunes have flowed. Here the Steele & Maxwell flowed 2000 barrels per day—the Fountain 200—the Parker 200—and scores of wells are now being worked that yield from 10 to 60 barrels daily. Nine out of ten wells bored on this flat are a success. A ten barrel well will sell for forty thousand dollars, and a sixty barrel well sell for half a million.
It is believed by good judge that every rod of the seventy-five acres of the Mattison Farm, all that is bored, will be as good for oil as any of the Farms below Titusville. Coal in that section is worth $12 per ton, and if the vein of coal should work well it would be a fortune in itself. It is splendid coal, burning freely as Cannel.
The average price of oil per barrel the last year was $10 at the works, the buyers furnishing the barrels. It costs a little less than $200 to sink a well to the depth of 700 feet, and few go lower than that. It costs $25 per day to work it after it yields oil. In a G. P. Rockwell report on the Farm Petroleum Company, says of this Farm Section:
"I consider all the lands located there, as being richer in Oil, and presenting geological features of a more full and perfect character than any other that I am acquainted with; and I have spent much time during the last few months in examining and selecting Oil Territory in Venango, Crawford and Warren Counties, in all of which I have made considerable investment."—Professors MAYNARD and SHEPHERD, Geologists of eminence, are of the same opinion regarding the lands generally throughout the valley of East Oil Creek. If this Farm comes up to the expectations of Prof. Shepherd of Yale College, of Mr. Bates, of Mr. Martin, if they only yield the minimum average of the wells on that Oil Belt, and your income from this Farm alone is over one million of dollars. Those who will not expect any such results, but merely state facts, and let each person make his own figuring and reach his own conclusions.
THE PARKER FARM
Contains 100 acres, a heavily timbered, situated near the road to Enterprise, not far from East Oil Creek, and between Cherry Creek and where the Coquet Creek empties into it. Oil springs have lately sunk a well right opposite this farm and struck oil. A single good well on this large farm would enable the Company to sell or lease the lands for great sums. The remarks about the location of the Mattison Farm, apply equally well to this.
THE BYLES FARM,
On Pit Hole Creek, contains 105 acres. It is about three miles east of Oil Creek, directly east of the Coquet Well that flows 100 barrels daily, the Jerry Run Farm 200, the Maple Shade and other great flowing wells, and pumping wells without limit. This Farm is on the same Oil Belt and on the right range. There have been extensive sales of Pit Hole. The Frazer well is on it. It began to flow about the middle of January, and with its sucker rod in, and its pipe seven-eight full of machinery, it has flowed 290 barrels per day ever since—They have not dared to pull out the sucker rod yet, fearing they had not sufficient tanks to hold the oil. The tanks they now have will hold 3,200 barrels. Below this well, on the same Creek, another flow of oil has been struck, and above it is a spouting well, which, when bored low enough, will yield abundantly. A little farther north the same company, the United States, is putting down a well that has struck oil. Less than the Frazer well, and great expectations rest upon it. In eight of the spouting wells, and between the Frazer and the one which has struck so big hopes, is the Byles Farm, all low land, and every rod fit for a well. It is splendidly located. Hundreds in and around it, and indications. Mr. Bates thinks very highly of it, and has no doubt but we shall find on it flowing wells superior to any yet struck in that section. A single flowing well struck would enable us to sell the farm in small lots for ten millions of dollars. Land on high bluffs some ways removed from the Coquet well, leases for fifty years at the rate of $50,000 for strips twelve rods by sixteen, each down.
THE DAWSON FARM,
On West Pit Hole, contains 25 acres, and is in the same wonderful oil region. It has oil springs on and around it, and many wells are now being bored near it with excellent show for oil. Mr. Bates is now sinking one close to it. In a letter dated March 20, 1865, he says: "My well is showing as finely as it progresses, both in gas and oil, as any well has ever shown at the same depth on Oil Creek; gas at 90 feet; a good show of oil at 112 feet; at 140 feet gas is rising and roaring loudly."
Within rifle shot of this farm, sixteen years ago a well was sunk twenty-seven feet deep for water, and oil came in and spoiled it. We have no doubt that rich oil wells will be sunk on this Farm, and there is land enough, if they are rich, to make the Farm a fortune.
Circulars, prospectuses, &c., containing every information, will be furnished on application at the office of the Company, or sent by mail to parties wishing to subscribe. Apply to or address

The Best Ink in the World!
A CHEAP PRODUCT DISCOVERED.
A Substitute for Costly Galls, and a Writing Fluid produced that challenges Competition!
INK POWDERS
TO CARRY IN YOUR POCKET, FROM WHICH TO MAKE INK AT PLEASURE.
THE INK MADE in Three Minutes.
Forty Cents will buy Powder enough to furnish a family for years.
FREEZING DO'NT HURT IT.
An accident revealed to a Machinist, in Manchester, N. H., a certain result which by the aid of Chemistry has been used till the most beautiful writing fluid, better than anything imported, or home made, flowing freer, writing easier, handsomer, as lasting as time, not injuring the pen a whit. has been produced
It is put up in the form of a small powder, stands all climates, good for years, and can be converted into elegant black writing fluid in three minutes.
A company has lately been formed for the manufacture of these Powders, and although the Fluid has been before the public but a few weeks the most astonishing testimonials have been received in its favor, all unsolicited. We select a few from the many.
The greatest qualities of these Ink Powders over everything else in the market are:
1st—Beauty. It makes an ink of a beautiful, rich color, that every body will be delighted with.
2d—It flows freely, does not mud up, thicken on the pen or corrode it, lasts a period, and never fades, and will endure as long as the paper on which it is used.
3d—Its cheapness baffles all competition. Forty cents will buy enough to fill fifty common bottles that are retailed at ten cents each.
4th—Convenience. Can be carried to the army, to sea, to the mines, to far off countries.
5th—Wipe your pen dry after using it, and a single steel pen will last with this ink till the paper wears the point off. It is as harmless as water.
Testimonials.
MELROSE AND AMERICAN OFFICE,
Manchester, N. H., Jan. 11, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—I have tried your Ink Powders. They work to a charm. They make perfect ink in three minutes, the best ink I ever saw. It flows easily, does not gum up the pen or corrode it. I have cleared my inkstands of all other kinds of ink. JOHN B. CLARKE.
MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 7, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I wish heartily to thank you for the beautiful Ink which you have given the public. I have made ink for eight years past, from Prof. Ure's Recipe, (made of Aleppa Gall, Sulphate Iron and Gum Senegal,) and have had large demands for it. Have supplied the schools in this town with it for two years, and every one using it gave it great praise. It is a good Ink, but my occupants are all gone now. Your Ink is the best article of the kind I ever used. This is no puff. Some in my inkstands froze up solid once and it was down just freely as at the first, and is not changed in the color a single shade. It is a beautiful black; it flows so readily that I can write one-quarter faster with it than with any other Ink. It ought to be introduced into every school in the Union.
Yours truly, J. W. POLAND.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1864.
To the American Ink Company: I have tried your Ink Powders, and I think, without any exception, it makes the best writing fluid I ever used I would not be without. I remain, yours,
GEO. H. HOLMES,
Battery M, 1st Mass. H. Artillery.
Kewanee, Henry Co., Illinois, Feb. 20, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: Received the Powder that you sent, and to say that I am pleased with it is true, but does not express what I should like to say. The community have long wanted an Ink Powder that could stand the test of freezing and that would not corrode the pen, and several have been produced. Prof. Ure's was an excellent recipe, but was spoiled by freezing. I have frozen this to test it, and find that it is not affected at all.
I have introduced it into my school in this place, and had a quantity of it, it was good and a ready sale. Thanking you in behalf of the community and myself for such a discovery, I remain, very respectfully, yours truly,
GEO. W. PARKER.
Deering, March 1, 1865.
To the American Ink Company:—This is certify that I have given your Ink Powder a trial, and I am happy to state it works to perfection. It has a superiority over all other Inks within my knowledge. And I would cheerfully recommend it to the lawyer, the merchant, or any person whose business requires any amount of writing.—It does not corrode, and flows as freely after being frozen as before. Respectfully yours,
ALMON M. COREY.
Nashua, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: The ink made from the powders you sent me is the best I ever used. There is none of that sticky substance about it that there is so most kinds of ink. It flows freely and works to a charm.
Yours truly, GEORGE W. FLANDERS.
Brookline, N. H., March 13, 1865.
American Ink Company—Gents: I received the Powder you sent me, and I recommend it to all those that have any writing to do, as the best Ink I ever saw. I have used J. Moor's Manuscript & Noyes', D. J. Rideout's, and many others, but yours far excels any I ever used.
Respectfully, G. E. STILES.

MONDAY, JUNE 12, 1865.

UNION SENTIMENT OF TEXAS.—New Orleans dates of the 31st, state that Col. A. Smith and W. P. Bellinger, Commissioners sent by Magruder to settle the terms for the surrender of the rebel forces in Texas, had arrived. When sent, Magruder knew nothing of the surrender of Kirby Smith. They state they represent fully the civil authorities. General Canby told them he could not recognize the civil authorities, but would grant the Commissioners an interview. They represent that the people of Texas will return to the Union without the least reservation; they do not desire to set up any barriers between themselves and any other States, East, West, or North; they are anxious, and long have been, to return to the Union. They return to it as it is, without a claim upon the past, and accept the situation pure and simple.

This agrees very well with what we have heard from a loyal resident of Texas,—who has often told us during the war, that his State was either dragged or driven into the rebellion by a comparitively small number of reckless and armed men, while a considerable majority of the people, including nearly all the quiet and orderly, desired no change before the war,—and would hail a return of the U. S. authority with great satisfaction.

Forts Manhasset and Griffin, defending Sabine Pass, were surrendered on the 26th. The rebel troops, before the arrival of the national forces, left in a mutiny, and this was the condition of the rebel forces generally at the time of Kirby Smith's surrender. Nine heavy guns were found in the works. Delegations of citizens met Commander Pennington and were anxious to take the oath of allegiance and delighted at the restoration of the national government.

May 26th Galveston was evacuated by the rebels, each soldier taking his musket and marching home.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—100,000 volunteer troops went towards their Northern and Western homes last week, from Washington. The last of Sherman's late army left on Friday.

The Georgia and Mississippi delegations have informed the President that they will do all in their power to restore the authority of the Union in their respective States.

In the conspirators' trial, nearly or quite all the evidence—both for the Government and the prisoners—has been taken.

The order for the discharge of certain prisoners of war renders personal application to the President for the release of prisoners under the rank of Major unnecessary, and the President is issuing no orders at present for the release of any prisoners of war of or above that rank.

The government dispatched 500 men with intrenchment tools and coffins to the battlefields of the Wilderness, for the purpose of interring the remains of soldiers exposed to view.

Sec. Seward walked to the State Department Friday, for the first time since his injuries. His wife, who has been confined to her bed for a week past, is quite low.

The Navy Department has advertised at auction, on the 24th of June, 15 vessels be longing to the Potomac flotilla—side-wheel steamers and propellers.

According to accounts from the Shenandoah Valley, the people there have gladly settled down to the changed condition of affairs.

☞ North Carolina appears to be very favorable towards the new style of Union;—South Carolina is in disorder; good citizens call on U. S. military officers at Charlotte, for protection against some of their own robbers, who commit depredations.—Western Louisiana has quietly come under U. S. rule. Our Gen. Herron is in command, with headquarters at Shreveport. At Alexandria he found 22 cannon.

GOLD, Saturday, 137 1-2. Steamers that day took out $1,782,000 for Europe.

— The loss of U. S. quartermaster and commissary stores, by the fire at Nashville on Friday, is said to be $10,000,000. The building was 800 feet long.

— A story comes from Imayne, via Nassau, that the pirate Capt. Peir, of Chesapeake fame, has burnt a bark named "Lizzie," and destroyed her crew: and that the pirate was chased off by a steamer.

☞ A letter from Fortress Monroe, dated last Monday, states that since his irons were removed, Davis takes confinement more resignedly. He is allowed no books but the Bible and the Book of Common Prayer, and he is not permitted to have pen, ink or paper. He has neither chair nor table in his cell. One officer is always inside, and two sentinels who pace their rounds, so that he is always under the eye of one of them. Davis seems very anxious at times to get up conversations with the soldiers, but this is strictly prohibited. Clement C. Clay spends his time principally in smoking. Jeff. does up a good deal of thinking. It is believed that his thoughts are not of the most pleasant character.

ELECTION DAY.—Yes, we were at Concord on Thursday, at the Inauguration of Governor—when the old went out and the new came in; but we went in a capacity different, at any rate, from that of reporter, whether higher or lower—for it was ours on this occasion, to handle the weapon which is said, even in the hands of men entirely great, to be less mighty than the pen. And as when we do get away from business, we desire to sink the shop and hear nothing of business, we shall depend on our cotemporaries for most of what little we have to say about 'Lection.

The weather was favorable for the outdoor display, of Thursday—which was very creditable; though neither was the Procession to escort the Governor, nor the attendance of people to witness it, to be compared with the Fast Day turn-out of the week previous.

The Governor's Horse Guards were out in fair numbers, Col. Kent commanding—in two Companies, Co. A under Capt. Webster, and Co. B under Capt. Gust. Walker; Co. C and its Portsmouth Officers and most of the members, gallantly turning up nowhere. The Concord Brigade Band, mounted on white horses, (or horses which would have been white enough, were they clean,) furnished very acceptable music. In Col. Kent's staff, rode Lieut. Col. Gilman, (Mayor) of Nashua, Adjt. Barrett of Nashua, Capt. Estabrook, late of the Volunteer service, Surgeons Gage and Eastman, Chaplains Eames of Concord and Burroughs of Portsmouth, Quartermaster Rider of Portsmouth, and the Paymaster.

Gov. Smyth came from Manchester under escort of the Amoskeag Veterans, (Col. C. E. Potter,) and the Bedford Light Infantry, the Manchester Cornet Band furnishing exquisite music; and was received by Governor Gilmore and staff and the Horse Guards. Governors Smyth and Gilmore, Hon. E. A. Straw and Hon. A. F. Pike occupied a baronche drawn by six black horses. Gov. Gilmore's staff, including Gen. Natt. Head and Col. B. F. Martin, were in full uniform and finely mounted as usual. The Governor's Council, members of Congress and other dignitaries followed in carriages, backed by the 11th regiment N. H. V., Col. Walter Harriman, —with their regimental band. These 300 war-worn veterans, in sad and forlorn hope of other days, attracted all eyes. A nice company of boys called the Concord Cadets brought up the rear. Two full drum corps furnished the music (or noise) for this division. There should have been a couple of dozen fifes also, to balance the drums, as in the old fashioned military bands.

After the march about town, and the Governors and other dignitaries had entered the State House,—a bountiful and excellent collation was served in the Armory of the Concord Horse Guards, to the Guards and their numerous guests, the Veterans and others.

Then, at the close of Gov. Smyth's address, the State Officers and other guests of the Guards were escorted to Eagle Hall, for dinner—which was served by Mr. Coffin of the American House, we should judge in fine style—but as our furlough had expired, and we were obliged as usual to leave without tasting the tempting viands we always pay for only to look at, we must take hearsay for it. But we must say we think it vastly more enjoyable to join in eating or singing, than to see or hear anybody else. The Monitor says:

The dinner was as usual fully attended, the Amoskeag Veterans being the guests of the corps, together with a large number of civilians. Rev. Dr. Eames, the Chaplain, asked the divine blessing. Col. Kent announced Lieut. Barrett as Toast Master; he announced as the first toast:

The President of the United States—To which Hon. Daniel Clark of Manchester responded.

After music by the band, Lieut. Barrett gave the 2d toast, The Governor of New Hampshire. His Excellency Gov. Smyth, responded, saying that he felt that he had done his share of talking for the day, but he could not help returning his sincere thanks to the soldiers for the splendid manner in which they had performed escort duty. The honor of the State could not be better preserved than by the volunteer militia of the State. While he had not the power of his predecessor, he certainly had the inclination to foster it. * * * In conclusion he would say that there was a verse in Scripture which declared that "let not him that putteth his armor on, boast, but rather him that layeth it aside." In accordance with that sentiment, he hoped to hear from Gov. Gilmore.

Col. Kent, the accomplished commander of the Horse Guards, said that he performed a superfluous duty in introducing a man whom everybody knew, and who always means to do what he thinks is right.

Gov. Gilmore said it was gratifying to him to do what little he could towards the inauguration of Gov. Smyth. He wanted to say also that he should stand by him, and that he wanted every man, woman and child in New Hampshire to stand by him.

The third toast was, The Army and the Navy. Prof. J. W. Patterson responded to this toast in his usual happy and felicitous manner.

Other toasts were given, for which we have no room. Col. Cross replied to the Amoskeag Veterans, Hon. Austin F. Pike to the Legislature of New Hampshire, and Rev. Dr. Burroughs, Chaplain of the Guards, to The Church. The whole dinner was eminently successful, and passed off with that feeling of good fellowship which is always characteristic of the corps.

NOTES OF THIRD SERIES OF 7-30S NOW READY.—The demand for the Second Series of the 7-30 Notes was so great that the Treasury Department was unable to print them with sufficient rapidity to fill the orders. It will be remembered that a hundred millions were subscribed and paid for in a single week. The printing presses have finally surmounted the difficulty, and on Wednesday, June 7th, the deliveries of the Third Series commenced, and will be continued with the same promptness that marked the supply of the notes of the first and second series.

It has been this interruption of delivery at the time of subscription which has given an appearance of falling off in the popular taking of the loan,—the great body of small takers being unwilling to pay their money unless they receive their notes right in hand, to carry them home. It is expected that the daily subscriptions to the Seven-Thirties will immediately run up into millions, as they will undoubtedly be stimulated by the opening of the farmer's wool markets East and West. It is not at all likely that the Government will ever again offer so desirable a security as these notes, and about two hundred millions only remain to be taken.

With the close of the war the national expenses will be vastly reduced, and investors must look for a sharp reduction in the rate of interest as soon as the present loans become due, and can be paid off. There is no reason why the United States credit for money should ever again fall below its credit for courage. The same spirit that preserved the geographical integrity of the country, will place its pecuniary integrity on a par with that of the most favored nations—and that will represent a rate of interest rather under than over four per cent.

☞ A sale of fine horses, belonging to Nathl. M'Kay, took place at East Boston Thursday. The first pair offered were the splendid bays, seven years old, recently owned by President Lincoln. The first bid on them was $500, but they were quickly advanced by $100 bids to $1900, at which sum they were sold. The second pair offered were splendid light bays, by many thought to be superior to the Lincoln horses. They were knocked off for $1450. A pair of splendid black horses sold for $1050. The pair of trotting mares known Nelly Hart and the "Morris Mare," which have trotted in 2.45 together, were sold for $1850—a very low price for horses of their style and speed. All the horses were knocked off at low prices, considering their style and excellence.

☞ The Boston Public School Report for 1864, prepared by Dr. J. Baxter Upham, has just been printed. Greater attention is being devoted to the primary schools, and gratifying progress has been made in increasing their usefulness. A special instructor in music has been appointed for them the past year. Imperfect ventilation is a glaring evil in all the schoolhouses. Military gymnastics and elementary drill has been introduced in the schools for boys with good results. The "high pressure" system of study is emphatically condemned.

Communication.

Messrs. Editors:—In the closing portion of Gov. Smyth's very excellent message, he takes strong ground in favor of extending the right of suffrage to all loyal men in the rebel States.

By so doing he not only utters the sentiments of his own heart, but gives voice to the wishes of the people of this State.

The President and his advisers have a difficult task before them to settle the many vexed questions which will arise in the adjustment of our affairs, and it is proper they should know the wishes of the people in relation to them.

We hope the Legislature, now in session, will make a plain declaration that the equality of all men must be respected in any reconstruction of rebel States.

New Hampshire has usually stood firm on the side of liberty and equality; and the voice of the Old Granite State should certainly be heard in favor of freedom, in this crisis of our national affairs. S.

A letter from Ex-Gov. and Ex-Senator Hammond, of mudsill notoriety, was found in Charleston, and is published, written fifteen years ago, in which the writer cautiously speaks of and approves the then broached idea of a Southern government in due time. "I do not (he says) think it advisable to agitate it warmly out of Charleston."

— At Haverhill, Mass., on Thursday, as Hiram Young was engaged in charging a soda fountain, he applied more than the usual quantity of pressure, and the result was the bursting of the fountain, causing his death in a short time. Eustice Kelly, who was assisting him, was badly wounded, but not dangerously.

— A great temperance meeting is to be held on Boston Common, June 17,—of Sunday Schools and Sons of Temperance:—Gough is to speak. There will be singing by great numbers of children, and other exercises.

—The Washington Chronicle reports the most brutal treatment of soldiers by officers of the 16th Regiment in the Veteran Reserve Corps in that city. If the officers drank less rum it would be better for the soldiers everywhere.

— An ex-member of the rebel Gen. Lee's staff, in a letter recently published, shows that Lee and the rebel powers were dreadfully disappointed by the result of their incursion into Maryland, which ended in the battle of Antietam. They hoped to be joined by 50,000 Marylanders:—they got 300. They had a provisional Governor all ready to take care of the State, but they were glad to get back into Virginia.

MR. EVERETT and Judge Story were at a public dinner. The usual toasts were given, when Judge Story arose and said: "Fame follows fortune wherever it (Everett) goes." Everett replied: "Here's to the legal profession. It has never got above the first story." (Story.)

— Somebody has found out a new way of taking pictures, by which they can be taken better in the night than in the daytime. A photographer has missed several from the frames that hung by his door, and doesn't approve of the new plan.

— A correspondent of the Tribune writes from Charleston that he has under tuition there a class of bright colored folks, and among them is a son of the aristocratic Governor Magrath, now held as prisoner by the Government.

Josh Billings says that, "If a man professes to serve the lord, he likes to see him do it when he measures onions as well as when he hollers glory hallelujver."

— Miss Lizzie Lock, a convert to Judaism from Christianity, was admitted to the Congregation of Israel, with appropriate ceremonies, at Memphis, a few days ago.

Why is the assessor of taxes the best man in the world? Because he never intentionally underrates anybody.

— Troops have been sent to the coal regions of Pennsylvania to prevent threatened disturbances among the miners.

THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE.

By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

Tribune Correspondent.

The above work will embrace Mr. Richardson's unparallelled experience for four years: traveling through the South in the secret service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the War; with our armies and fleets both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture while running the blockade on the Mississippi River at Vicksburg, where more than half his companions were either killed or wounded; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles, aided by negroes and Union mountaineers of North Carolina and Tennessee through the enemy's country to our lines.

This work presents a rare opening for both men and women, who desire lucrative employment.—For particulars address

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart-burn, pain in the breast bone, sudden faintness and costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. m29dawlm

AMERICAN WATCH

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "aneres," "lepines," and "Swiss levers" in proper repair for a few years will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any other business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE. 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIERS' WATCH (named Wm. Elery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH named F. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large, and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

OUR THREE-QUARTER PLATE WATCH is thinner and lighter than the others we have described. Its fine chronometer balance is delicately adjusted to correct the variations caused by changes of temperature. These watches are the fruits of the latest experiments in chronometry, and are made by our best workmen, in a separate department of our factory. For the finest time-keeping qualities they challenge comparison with the best works of the most famous English and Swiss makers

Darne's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the disease arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

EXTERMINATOR OF VERMIN.—Messrs. Editors;—In your issue of Friday the attention of the reader is called to the prevalence of caterpillars on fruit trees. This is true, and we wish to add that vermin of every description are uncommonly numerous, and nervous women are shocked with the sight of a bug, worm, snake, mouse or rat at almost every step. And speaking of mice reminds us of an incident which occurred not long since, illustrating the truth of our assertion relative to the abundance of these creatures.

A friend of ours, who knows how to keep a good livery stable ["he keeps the best horses in this city,"]—we don't mean Jones—while engaged in conversation with a friend in a store on Congress street, with his hands in coat pockets, feeling something move, drew out his pocket, and four young live mice together with their maternal progenitor made their appearance. The old one was dead, and the cause of her death being a mystery, a post mortem examination or cadaveric autopsy was held, and it was ascertained that the unfortunate quadruped had been subsisting upon a copy of the "played out copperhead," a paper published in this county, and which the stable keeper chanced to have in the pocket in which dwelt the mouse. It was supposed that this defunct animal obtained access to the pocket through the means of a very loose habit of throwing a garment down after taking it off.

We trust your readers will remember the rat poison referred to, and thus by placing a few copies in localities infested, succeed in driving these obnoxious pests from our midst. BETA.

☞ THE FAIR, or Festival, or Levee or Sale, or whatever you may call it, so it be something good,—in aid of our sick and needy soldiers—will open at the Temple at Noon to-day, and continue through this and to-morrow afternoons and evenings. The new Temple Hall is finely decorated, and presents a beautiful appearance, and should be seen by all—as also should the Tableaux, to-night.

☞ Mr. Avery states that Mr. J. W. Hoyt brought the first Strawberries to this market (which were raised about here,) on Friday last, the 9th of June; and that Mr. Hoyt has done the same thing for three years past. Avery is hard to beat, on strawberries or newspapers.

☞ What more delicious than a dish of strawberries and cream, or a dish of ice-cream, or if you prefer, a cup of coffee, and accompaniments, at the Fair to-night,—when you know that besides the benefit you receive, the poor soldier will also be benefitted.

☞ We print on our fourth page this morning, Governor Smyth's capital Inaugural Address—for the loan of the type of which, we are indebted to our neighbors of the Journal. It is a very interesting as well as exceedingly valuable document, and should be read by every man in the State.

☞ Those who were favored with a peep at the Tableaux, at the rehearsal on Saturday evening, pronounced them very fine—as of course they would be, under Mr. Head's direction.

—— The Rochester Courier says Mr. S. B. Scruton, of that ilk, lost his horse, and no trace of him could be found. A week after, he was discovered mired in the swamp in his pasture, almost famished, and with his nose just above the surface. He was dug out, and is now doing well. When first taken from the mire, as may be supposed, his appetite was equal to anything except ten penny nails.

—— The Courier also says "a good (but we call it bad, very bad) haul of trout was made one day last week, at Perkins' Mill Pond in New Durham. The pond was drawn off to low-water mark, and the fish caught—some of them by hand—and by hook. The lot counted up to over one thousand, some of them being the largest we ever saw." But is that sportsman-like?—We call it killing the goose that laid the golden eggs. Murder! murder!

—— Hon. John D. Lyman, of Farmington, has been appointed by the Secretary of War, one of the Board of Visitors to the West Point Military Academy. The annual examination of the cadets takes place this month.

—— Rev. S. T. Frost, late pastor of the Andover Free Baptist Church, has removed to Lexington, Mass., and rejoined the Calvinistic Baptists.
